

Mantle Revives, Yanks Triumph; Milwaukee Makes It Number 11

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer

The middle letters in his name spell K-E-Y M-A-N and make no mistake about it. Mantle is just that in the New York Yankee pennant picture right now.

Never was his value more clearly demonstrated than Monday night when he collected four hits in a 9-3 victory over the Athletics at Kansas City that put the Yankees a game and a half ahead of the idle, pesky Chicago White Sox.

Mantle hit no homers, even though the Yankees collected four, two by rookie Norm Siebern and one each by Hank Bauer and Joe Collins. He remained 14 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace of 60 homers for 1927 with a total of 27, but that right now is immaterial.

What Mantle did was to upset the entire Kansas City lineup, pitchers, fielders, hitters. In the first inning he tripled to drive in a run.

A's Shift Foiled
In the third inning, when the Athletics were stacked heavily around the right side of the diamond, Mantle foiled the shift by bunting safely down third. In the fifth he again capitalized on the maneuver by beating out a hit to the man in short center field, a ball normally handled by the shortstop. In the sixth he got a normal single when the shift was not on. It is used only when Mantle bats lefty.

Beyond the significance of Mantle's four hits was the victory. In Chicago Mantle was stopped with four scattered hits for four games and the Yankees lost all of them. Time and again it has developed that the Yankees lose when Mantle is stopped. That isn't too often.

In the National League, the bumptious Braves who may have established a pact with their new Manager Fred Haney, never to lose another game, won their 11th in a row since he took over, 8-5 against the Phillies and they had to offset a three-run eighth inning homer by Willie Jones to do it.

In the ninth a squeeze bunt by Del Crandall brought in one run, a sacrifice fly by Hank Aaron delivered another and a single by Bobby Thompson completed the conquest. It was the longest streak for Milwaukee since it came into the league and significantly—perhaps—all of the wins have been on the road.

Pirates Lose Another
Cincinnati stayed two games back in second place with a 2-1 triumph over the skidding Pirates. Ted Kluszewski hit his 14th homer in the seventh and Ray Jablonski delivered another run on a sacrifice fly as the Reds came from behind to gain the triumph on Art Fowler's five-hitter.

Brooklyn's "displaced persons," the Dodgers, who have distressed their home fans with recent ineptness, went to their Jersey City haven and scored a 3-2 victory over the Cubs, coming from behind with two runs in the eighth on an error. Junior Gilliam's triple and a scoring fly by PeeWee Reese. It was Carl Erskine's first victory since his no-hitter over the Giants on May 12.

In the only other American League game, the Senators defeated the Tigers at Detroit, 5-3 when Clint Courtney hit a two-run homer in the eighth. Billy Hoelt had struck out 10 and blanked Washington until the seventh when he tired.

There were no other major league games scheduled.

Legion Team Tries Revenge

Wayne Allen will try for his third victory in a row on the mound for the Medford-Central Point Junior American Legion baseball team against Roseburg here tonight.

The game will be played under the lights at the fairgrounds, starting at 8 p.m. Roseburg remains the only team Medford-CP has not beaten. The locals lost to the northern club in the only previous encounter 1 to 0 in a pitcher's duel.

Coach John Kovetz reports that the Medford-CP starting line-up will remain the same. Roseburg will probably pitch Dick Smith, hurler for Glids high school which took the state B championship this year.

'Beef, Not Horse' Said Homer Cause

Cincinnati, Ohio — (U.P.)—National league officials, a bit annoyed by all this talk about a "rabbit ball," rallied to the horsehide's defense today and declared that beefier players are the real reason for this year's home run rampage.

"There has been no change in the baseball for a great number of years," league officials insisted. "If you don't believe it, the NL invites you to check with A. G. Spalding Co., which makes the ball, or the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia, which last week conducted tests purporting to show the 1956 baseball has no more pop than the '55 model.

If the ball hasn't changed, the players have—and the league insists that there is the answer to homer hitting. The players are simply bigger and stronger than they used to be and more of them are capable of hitting homers.

PITCHER BACK
Chicago — (U.P.)—Veteran pitcher Harry Dorish, who broke into the major leagues with Boston in 1947, is back with the Red Sox today. Dorish, who'll be 33 years old on July 13, was picked up from the Baltimore Orioles for the $10,000 waiver price.

SCHOENDIENST OUT
New York — (U.P.)—Al (Red) Schoendienst, second baseman of the New York Giants got from the St. Louis Cardinals, will be out of action for quite some time because of a calcium deposit in his right shoulder.

Beavers Defeated by Rain; Elliott Wins in First Game

By UNITED PRESS

The weatherman made a lot of friends in Vancouver Monday night—but he had better not let the Portland Beavers get hold of him.

The Beavers came from behind with a four-run rally in the eighth inning of a Pacific Coast League game that had been repeatedly delayed by rain, but the skies opened up and the game was called at the end of seven. The four runs were there by cancelled.

The victory went to Vancouver by a score of 5-4, giving the Mounties the series, 3-1.

In the only other game played in the loop, Glenn Elliott made his first start a successful one by pitching the Sacramento Solons to a 9-2 victory over San Diego.

Dick Young Hot Hurler For Yakima

By UNITED PRESS

It's a little hard to believe the Dick Young pitching for Yakima is the same Dick Young who tried so unsuccessfully last year. In 1955, Young turned in a dull 6-11 mark in Northwest league competition but this is 1956 and things are so different.

Last night Young won his 11th victory with a 7-hit 13-3 win over Salem. His only bad inning came in the fourth when Chuck Essigman hit a three-run homer.

Lewiston collected 12 hits good for a 5-2 decision over the Wenatchee Chiefs to remain four games off the pace. Dick Dodell came in to help Bob Wadsworth in the ninth to quell a Wenatchee threat.

In the other league game, Tri-City topped Eugene 5 to 3 although Bill Eastburn hit two homers and John Keller one. Russ Agne came on in the ninth inning with two runners on and one out and got the last two Eugene hitters to fly out.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

first and second inning, but the Mounties tied it up in the bottom of the second. The Beavers moved out in front with another run in the fifth, but Vancouver took the lead with three runs in the same frame.

The Beavers got one back in the sixth and seemed well on their way in the eighth. They tied the score and went out in front on Tom Saffell's three-run homer—but then the weatherman and the umpires decided that the valiant effort didn't count.

The victory went to Vancouver by a score of 5-4, giving the Mounties the series, 3-1.

In the only other game played in the loop, Glenn Elliott made his first start a successful one by pitching the Sacramento Solons to a 9-2 victory over San Diego.

Walt's Only Unbeaten Softballers

Walt's Lithia Motors emerged as the only unbeaten team in the Jackson County Softball association after two games last night.

Walt's Lithians beat the YMCA Ysmen in a good match, 7-2. Bill's 99 Chevron Service dropped Crater Lake Motors out of its tie for first place with a 12 to 3 victory.

Hendrickson registered 13 strike outs for the Lithians, allowing runs to cross only in the second and sixth innings. Brittan slammed out a homer and Reverman got a double for Walt's in the third to bring across two runs.

Sweet, on the mound for Bill's 99, pitched to only 21 batters, with four three-up and three-down innings. While he contained the Crater Lake men, his own club managed 12 hits off pitchers Flanagan and Cearly. Barnum got a home run, Parmenter, Garner, and Sweet all collected triples for Bill's 99 during the game.

No games are scheduled for tonight. Wednesday night it will be Medford Auto Upholstery vs. Courtesy Chevrolet; Bill's 99 Chevron Service vs. 20-30 club; and a play-off of a tie game between Walt's Lithia Motors and Crater Lake Motors.

In San Diego, Elliott got plenty of help toward his victory as teammates George Risley, Dan Baich and Nippy Jones rapped out homers. Jones brought in three runs in the third frame with his tenth homer of the season.

Dave Hoskins lost his fourth straight decision for San Diego to end up with a 5-6 record.
