Portland—(U.P.)—The favorites tag stuck to Grace DeMoss of Corvallis and Portland's Bruce Cudd today as the two former champions climbed through the opening round match play of the Oregon amateur golf championship without a blemish.

Miss DeMoss saw her stock take on added value when defending champion Carole Jo Kabler of Sutherlin bowed out in yesterday's play. Marge Bernard of Portland posted a 2 and 1 win over the Sutherlin teenager to rate the biggest upset of the tourney thus far.

Miss DeMoss defeated Mrs. Tom Georges Jr. of Tualatin, 8 and 6, to set the stage for a match with Sue DeVoe of Medford, who won from Mrs. Tom Harrison of Portland, 3 and 4.

Cudd turned in an even-par day to stay in the contention for the championship by beating Church Van Lange of Stanford, 4 and 3.

title contenders, Harrington drubbed Eric Nelson, Portland, 8 and 7, and Dichter downed Don Braseth, Oswego.

Some of the top golfers in the tourney saw the last of their title hopes yesterday, though. Such men as McMinnville's Dusty Woods, Don Provost of Ashland and Bob McReynolds of Portland lost out in first round action.

Provost of Rogue Valley Country club lost, 3 and 2, to Dean Childs, Portland. In another championship match Justin Smith Jr. of Medford bounced Bob Johnson of Eugene, 4 and 3.

Fourth flight—Deane Lambert lost to Erroll Murhard of Portland 5 and 4; Bill McAllister Jr. lost to Bob Dautman of Longview, Wash., 4 and 3; Carl Schmidt lost to Alan Hokanson of Portland 4 and 3.

Sixth flight—Del Berg defeated Leonard Schwelm of Portland 2 and 1; R. E. Heysell lost by default to Carl Bressie of Portland.

Eighth flight—Mahr Reymers defeated Tom Stamper of Coos Bay 8 and 7. Bud Hauptert and Miles Doran drew byes.

Fourth flight—Mrs. Les Schneider lost to Mrs. Harold Schnitzer of Tualatin 2 and 1.

Sixth flight—Mrs. C. B. Collins defeated Mrs. Ed Geary of Portland 1 up; Mrs. George Harrington defeated Mrs. C. N. Tripp of Oswego 2 and 1.

Eighth flight—Mrs. Mahr Reymers drew a bye.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay clipped three strokes from par to stay with the front runners with a 5 and 3 win over Bob Smith of Portland. Top match yesterday saw Ray Koch of Seattle fire a 67 and take a 2 and 1 win over C. H. Weston of Portland.

Harry Millette of Medford put on a brilliant finish to stay in the running. He was 4 down with only six holes to go, then birdied four of them and went on to birdy a 19th hole playoff and win over Matt Hatala of Colwood.

Genrae Harrington of Medford and Astoria's Ralph Dichter both came through with sub par golf yesterday to move along and receive serious notice as

Five Redlegs Out in Front in All-Star Tabulations

New York—(U.P.)—A tidal wave of votes from the Midwest today brought the most drastic upheaval thus far in the All-Star team tabulations in which five of the eight National league players now are from the Cincinnati Redlegs.

There were four shifts in positions in the next to the last tabulation announcement by Commissioner Ford Frick's office, and each involved a player for the Redlegs.

At second base, Johnny Temple of the Redlegs replaced Red Schoendienst of the Giants as the leader, at shortstop Roy McMillan of Cincy forged ahead of Ernie Banks of the Cubs, in left field Rookie Frank Robinson of the Reds supplanted Rip Repulski of the Cardinals, and at catcher, Ed Bailey, Cincy's hot batsman went into the lead over Roy

Campanella of the Dodgers. No AL Changes

In the tabulation prior to today, Gus Bell of the Redlegs took over in center field over Duke Snider of the Dodgers, so there are five Cincinnati players on top now where there were none as voting closed last Friday at midnight.

There were no changes in the American League alignment where most of the positions now appear to be set. It also seemed likely that the other three leaders in the National league, First Baseman Dale Long of the Pirates, Third Baseman Ken Boyer of the Cardinals, and Right Fielder Stan Musial of the Cardinals, would hold their ground.

If the balloting ended on the basis of today's tabulations these would be the starting lineups:
American: Vernon 1b, Fox 2b, Kell 3b, Kuenn ss, Williams lf, Mantle cf, Kalline rf, Berra c.
National: Long 1b, Temple 2b, Boyer 3b, McMillan ss, Robinson lf, Bell cf, Musial rf, Bailey c.

Colorado Springs Stadium Planned

Colorado Springs, Colo.—(U.P.) A private-financed organization plans to construct a "moderate sized" football stadium on the site of the new U.S. Air Force Academy north of Colorado Springs.

The organization, the Air Force Academy foundation, has been given permission by Air Force Secretary Donald Quarles' office in Washington to go ahead.

Preliminary plans call for a 45,000 seat stadium to be ready for the 1958 season.

Official Ponders Status of Fight

Toronto, Ont.—(U.P.)—Merv McKenzie, Ontario boxing commissioner, began considering today whether to recognize the Archie Moore-James Parker fight on July 25 as a "world heavy-weight championship" bout.

When the match was signed here Tuesday for Maple Leaf baseball park, the managers of the fighters insisted that the winner would be Rocky Mar-

500,000 Trout To Be Planted In Diamond Lake

Portland—The Diamond lake fish population will have increased by approximately 500,000 in about 30 days.

A half-million eyed Kamloops rainbow trout eggs from Beaver Lake, British Columbia, are at the Wizard Falls fish hatchery near Bend on the Metolius river waiting to hatch. When they do in about a month, the fry will be transported to Diamond lake.

The eggs were hauled into Oregon after being picked up at the Canadian lake by Coy DeLozier, accompanied by Ron Shay of the Oregon Game Commission's information and education department.

The 500,000 eggs were iced at Beaver Lake, at Pentecost, B.C., and again at Yakima, Wash. When they arrived at Wizard Falls, they were taken from the shipping crates and placed in wire baskets in the hatching troughs.

This will probably be the last shipment of Canadian rainbow trout stock for Diamond lake, the game commission said. Next spring, fish from last year's plant should provide a source of eggs for continuous stocking of the lake.

ZIMMER HAS OPERATION

Bill Dellinger Will Be Teacher At Springfield

Springfield, Ore.—(U.P.)—Track star Bill Dellinger of the University of Oregon has been signed to a contract at Springfield high school as biology and physical education instructor. Dellinger is a graduate of the Springfield school.

Principal Dale Parnell said Dellinger was not signed as a track coach because of his desire to retain amateur status for the Olympic games in Australia. Dellinger was graduated from the University of Oregon this spring.

Ted Herrera Helps Bears Up Margin

By RAY ANDREWS
United Press Sports Writer

Ted Herrera strolled out to the mound twice last night and by the time he strolled off the Yakima Bears had boomed their way into a four-game Northwest league lead.

Herrera pitched 5-hit ball in the opener of the Yakima-Salem double-header to give the Bears a 6-3 decision. Salem's three runs came in the seventh on a three-run homer by Chuck Essigian.

Bob Wilson hit a two-run homer in the fourth and Ed Zander homered in the fourth with the bases empty for the Bears.

Lewis Homers

Herrera came on in the ninth inning of the nightcap with the score tied 2-2 and blanked Salem in the top of the inning.

Hern Lewis, hitless in eight trips, came to the rescue in the ninth with a solo homer with two out to produce a 3-2 Yakima victory.

Wenatchee topped Lewiston 9-8 with two runs in the ninth. The bases were loaded when Bob Roberts, Lewiston hurler, hit Bob Duretto to force in one run. The other came when Edo Vanni walked with the bases loaded.

Tri-City treated its biggest crowd in history, 3,946, to a 3-2 victory over Eugene. The eventual winning run came in the fifth when Ray Zari singled, moved up on a sacrifice by Vern Kinsfater and scored on a base hit by Rich Scramaglia.

Jada Heads Yacht Race

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—The Jada, smallest of five yachts entered in the world's longest yacht race from Los Angeles Harbor to Tahiti, was under full sail and holding its lead today within 600 miles of the equator.

The 56-foot yawl, skippered by Bill Sturgis of San Marino, Calif., was reported Tuesday night leading by 50 miles over the second place boat, Quest.

Radio reports placed John P. Scripps' Nova del Mar in third place. It was reported, however, that the Nova del Mar was sailing on a different course and a corrected position report by tonight might place the sleek yacht in second place. The Celebes and Viveka were reported in fourth and fifth place respectively some 100 miles behind the Jada.

COLTS HOSTS TO ROSEBURG AT FAIRGROUNDS TONIGHT

Roseburg's Merchants come to Medford this evening virtually as an "unknown quantity to play the Cheney Colts in a non-league semi-pro baseball brush.

The Merchants are an independent club who have booked contests with members of the Rogue Valley loop, including two with the Colt aggregation.

The one bit of basis of comparing the Colts and Merchants stems from a twinbill at Grants Pass last Sunday. GP lost to the Cheney Lumber crew 5 to 4 in an extra-inning starter and fell 5 to 1 before Roseburg in the nightcap.

Tossed Seven-Hitter

Wally Richardson hurled a seven-hit win for Roseburg in the fuss. Whether Manager Frank Weber will call on him again this evening is questionable. Names of other possible Merchant twirlers aren't available.

Nub Beamer is a catcher for the Roseburg team. Other players who may break into the visitor's line-up are Jack Myers, Weber, Jim White, Ralph Rudzik, Frank Curran and Eugene Polley.

Manager Harry Tonn has indicated that Eldon Davidson will get the Colt mound assignment with Jim Taylor and Kay Kelley standing by as relievers.

Game time at the fairgrounds is 8 p.m.

Medford Auto Upholstery goes after fourth place and 20-30 Club after seventh place in Jackson County Softball association standings tonight.

Medford Auto faces Courtesy Chevrolet and 20-30 Club takes on Bill's 99 Chevrolet Service.

In another feature of tonight's softball, the two motors teams, Walt's Lithia and Crater Lake, finish off a game they had to stop with the score tied at 6—all last Wednesday. They will continue the game from where it ended, playing whatever number of extra innings are necessary for one team to win.

Tomorrow night, Walt's Lithia vies with Courtesy Chevrolet and the YMCA Yamen play winless Medford DeMolay.

Lone Pine, CP, Tigers Winners In Pee Wee Play

Lone Pine, Medford Tigers and Central Point won opening games yesterday in the pee wee southern division of the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league.

Lone Pine won 7 to 1 over Eagle Point on the one-hit hurling of Bud Lowery. The Tigers also took a 7 to 1 decision, beating Ashland on a two-hitter job by Jerry Piland and a Central Point won 6 to 5 over the Medford Wildcats as Louis Alvarez and Dennis Sample combined for a two-hitter.

Lowery struck out nine and walked three in his effort for Lone Pine, which is sponsored this year by Big Y market and Courtesy Chevrolet. The Tigers reportedly had a big uprising after trailing 0 to 1.

At Central Point the home club got only three hits. Mike Barnes and Glines tossed for the Wildcats. Don Pfaff collected two of the CP swats.

Thursday frays will be Lone Pine at Medford Wildcats, Medford Tigers at Central Point and Eagle Point at Ashland.
