Suicide Ends Utah Murder Case

Vernal, Utah — (UP) — The Norma Rodeback case was closed today with the suicide of a 23-year-old Vernal service station attendant after he confessed killing the pretty high school girl.

Carl Donnell Dow put a rifle bullet through his mouth after frugging onto a desolate hillside west of Vernal, only a few miles from the ditch where two weeks earlier he had dumped the body of his 17-year-old victim.

Finding of Dow's body Wednesday climaxed a hectic day that brought Utah's most sensational murder case in recent years to a quick close.

In notes left for his wife, mother of two children and expecting a third, and his father, young Dow admitted accosting the Rodeback girl, choking her and disposing of her body on June 13. He denied actually raping her.

Officers questioned him briefly Tuesday because his car was similar to one seen where Miss Rodeback was kidnaped. He was to have been questioned again Wednesday but during the night slipped out, took a rifle, drove his car to the hills and walked to the spot where he took his own life.

NEEDY BURGLAR BORROWS

Columbus, Miss. — (UP) — Sheriff Robert Jernigan reported that a burglar who needed an acetylene torch to open the safe of a tractor company here found one on the premises all ready for use—and used it.

Cypriots Blast US Consulate's Car

Nicosia, Cyprus — (UP) — Cypriot extremists blasted the automobile of an American consulate official today.

A muffled explosion in the gasoline tank damaged the car owned by consular official Louis la Baue, 28, New Orleans.

La Baue was not in the car and the explosion caused no casualties.

Cypriot extremists killed an American vice consul 12 days ago and wounded three others when they threw a bomb into a Cypriot restaurant.

British security forces heard a muffled explosion in la Baue's car.

Investigation showed a vial filled with gunpowder had been fitted with a fuse and dropped down the filler pipe of the gas tank.

Train Derailment Case to Grand Jury

Portland — (UP) — A 19-year-old Spokane youth accused of attempting to derail a Union Pacific train, was bound over to the federal grand jury here yesterday.

Dale Philip Cornwell is accused of placing railroad ties across the railroad's tracks near Boardman on April 11. The City of Portland, passenger train, hit the obstruction but was not derailed.
