

Justin Smith Nabs 2nd Round Tiff In OGA Mix; Harrington, Millette Losers; Gracie Subdues Sue DeVoe

Justin Smith Jr. remained the only Rogue Valley Country club participant in championship play after a second round victory yesterday in the Oregon Golf association match play tournament at Portland Golf club.

Smith defeated Dean Childs of Rose City, Portland, 3 and 2. He was to have met Francis Heitkemper of Portland GC in the third round today.

Rogue Valley players eliminated from titular play yesterday were George Harrington, Harry Millette and Sue DeVoe.

Hanen muffed his second shot only to have it clear a water trap and roll dead to the pin for a winning birdie.

Fred Hudspeth of Prineville went 19 holes to edge Ray Isaacs of Columbia-Edgewater.

With Carole Jo Kabler, Sutherland, the defending champion in the women's field defeated.

Grace DeMoss of Corvallis retained her spot as favorite in the women's field. Yesterday the 1956 medalist disposed of Medford's Sue DeVoe, 5 and 4.

The women rest today and then swing into semi-final play Friday. Miss DeMoss meets Mrs. Frank Fish of Columbia-Edgewater in one semi-final match while Mrs. Fred Robertson and Mrs. R. L. Borst, both of Portland, meet in the other half of the semi-finals.

Lower flight results for RVCC players yesterday included:

First flight—Dom Provost Jr. lost 1 up to Bob Johnson of Eugene. Second flight—Clayton Lewis defeated George Griswold of Oswego 4 and 3. Fifth flight—Deane Lambert won by default. Bill McAllister defeated Bob Fray of Portland 2 and 1. Sixth flight—Del Berg lost to Dennis Murphy of Portland 5 and 3. Seventh flight—Russ Heysell lost by default. Eighth flight—Mah Reymers lost to Bill Jordan of Coos Bay 6 and 5. Bud Haupt lost by default. Miles Doran defeated Dick Shelton of Portland 4 and 3.

Fifth flight—Mrs. Les Schneider defeated Mrs. Walter Pearson of Oswego 3 and 2. Sixth flight—Mrs. Jack Ford defeated Mrs. George Harrington 6 and 5. Mrs. C. B. Collins defeated Mrs. Ralph Lomax of Portland 2 up.

SPORTS

Colts Edge Roseburg 9-8 In Non-League Scramble

For a while last night the old bugaboo of miscues threatened to prove the downfall of the Cheney Colts. But the Rogue Valley League club found its hitting eyes, got stellar relief chucking from versatile Jim Taylor and took advantage of its rivals' misplays. The result was a 9 to 8 nod over the Roseburg Merchants in a non-loop semi-pro baseball ruckus at the fairgrounds here last night.

The Colts had to overcome two deficits of five runs each to bounce the Merchants. Roseburg had gaps of 5 to 0 and 6 to 1 before the Cheney gang swung into effective offensive action. A four-run spurge in the fourth inning got the Colts back into contention. They tied up the game and went on top with a pair of rallies in the fifth panel. Once in front they stayed there.

Roseburg started the scoring in the first inning with a singleton on a base on balls, a fielder's option, an error and a hit by Nub Beamer. Two more markers were added in the second frame on hits by Francis Sprague and Phil Telford, a wild pitch and three Colt errors.

Serak and Sprague hit two for four and Reinking and Taylor two for five. Bigham drove in three runs.

The Merchants got seven hits off Davidson, who walked one man and struck out one. Weber, starting on the hill for Roseburg, yielded six hits, walked three and whiffed four in 3 2/3 innings. Reliever Wally Richardson gave up four safeties and also walked three and fanned four.

The Douglas county crew got to Colt thrower Eldon Davidson for four hits and two runs in the third inning to make the standing 5 to 0. Jack Meyers, Frank Weber, Sprague and Roy Childress smacked the consecutive safeties.

The Colts were assessed nine errors and the Merchants five. Rogue Valley League action is set here Sunday when the Colts tussle Ashland. In other RVL games Eagle Point will be at Camp White, Grants Pass at Butte Falls and Cave Junction at Glendale.

At that point Taylor, who had been catching, took over on the hill for the Colts. He struck out Telford to retire the side. Taylor from there pitched five hitless innings before yielding a pair of bingles in the ninth canto. He whiffed 10 batters and walked none but three wild pitchers helped in two runs.

Cheney picked up its first run in the third inning. Bob Serak lined to right field and went to second on a ground out and to third on a flyout. He scored when catcher Beamer threw wild into the outfield when returning a pitch to tosser Weber. In the fourth inning, Taylor fanned Arlen Weaver but the third strike heave was wild and Weaver got to first base. He went all the way to third on catcher Doy Gatlin's bad throw to second and scored on another miscue. That made the score 6 to 1.

Cheney picked up its first run in the third inning. Bob Serak lined to right field and went to second on a ground out and to third on a flyout. He scored when catcher Beamer threw wild into the outfield when returning a pitch to tosser Weber. In the fourth inning, Taylor fanned Arlen Weaver but the third strike heave was wild and Weaver got to first base. He went all the way to third on catcher Doy Gatlin's bad throw to second and scored on another miscue. That made the score 6 to 1.

Cheney picked up its first run in the third inning. Bob Serak lined to right field and went to second on a ground out and to third on a flyout. He scored when catcher Beamer threw wild into the outfield when returning a pitch to tosser Weber. In the fourth inning, Taylor fanned Arlen Weaver but the third strike heave was wild and Weaver got to first base. He went all the way to third on catcher Doy Gatlin's bad throw to second and scored on another miscue. That made the score 6 to 1.

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Bears Trim Senators in 11 Innings

By RAY ANDREWS
United Press Sports Writer

There's a lot of different ways to get the job done and the Yakima Bears of the Northwest League seem to know all the angles.

Last night the league leaders went 11 innings before posting a 7-6 victory over Salem. Manager Hub Kittle tossed five pitchers into the game and Charlie Drummond, who entered in the eighth, received credit for the decision.

The winning Yakima run came when Dick Neal walked and was sacrificed to second. He crossed on a single by Bob Wilson. For Drummond it was his seventh victory against two losses.

Russ Rossberg hit a grand slam homer in the first for Salem and the Senators added two in the sixth. Yakima tied it with six runs in the seventh on three walks, three singles and a double.

Cal Humphries spaced nine hits in pitching Wenatchee to a 4-2 victory over the Lewiston Broncs.

Wenatchee got two runs in the first, added one in the second and got its final tally on Bob Easterbrook's homer in the sixth.

Tri-City pushed across two runs in the seventh to nip Eugene 6-5. Pitcher Dave Kostenuk tied it at 5-5 with a solo homer in the fifth and Rich Scramaglia scored later in the same frame with the winning run.

Fanfare

By DICK JEWETT
Mail Tribune Sports Editor

When Marlene Bauer Hagge appeared with her sister, Alice, in a golfing exhibition at Rogue Valley Country club several years back, the then teen-age links whiz showed the potential of top stardom. She attained that high place in goldfom last week end. On Sunday she won out in a sudden death play-off with Patty Berg for the Ladies Professional Golf association championship.

Both Huff and Reed are big men. Huff, who taught two years in Hawaii and a year in Kansas is six feet tall and weighs 180 pounds. Reed, who obtained his masters degree from Denver university, is six feet also and weighs 209. He was an all conference tackle at Simpson.

Bob Phillips will move up to the coaching spot at Jefferson grade school. Ron Weatherford, who had the post last year, will become principal of an elementary school at Nampa, Ida. Coach at West Side school will be Don Perry, Coos Bay, a grad of Southern Oregon college.

NEW KIWANIAN

Jim Sheldon, golfer who formerly played out of Salem and now lives here, is a new member of Medford Kiwanis club.

MORE BILLS SOUGHT

Medford's "Bills for Bill Bowerman" movement has slowed after reaching about the halfway mark in its goal of $1,000. Efforts are being made in Portland, Eugene and Medford to raise $3,000 to send Bowerman, University of Oregon track coach and his wife to the Olympic Games in November. Bowerman, ex-Medford high coach and athlete, is considered the man who has given the most impetus to track and field in Oregon. Donations may be left with Dick Finch at Home Appliance company here. Other committeemen are Otto Frohn-

Marlene Hagge

Mrs. Hagge and Miss Berg had 291s for the regulation 72 holes in the Detroit tourney. She took the play-off with a par five on the first extra hole. It was third major tournament victory in a row for blonde Marlene, now 22.

From her exhibition here Mrs. Hagge picked up a following of fans, local linksters who have watched her rise with interest.

NEW COACHES HERE

Two new additions to junior high coaching staffs here are Robert Huff, from Kansas City, Kansas and a graduate of University of Kansas in 1953, and John A. Reed, Simpson college grad who has been a head coach for eight years at the high school in Vinton.

Norris Expects To Close Talks On Welter Bout

New York — (U.P.) — Promoter Jim Norris expected to close negotiations today for a return title fight between welterweight champion Johnny Saxton and ex-champ Carmen Basilio at the Syracuse (N.Y.) War Memorial Auditorium, probably Sept. 12.

It would be a TV-radio 15-rounder, co-promoted by Norman Rothschild of Syracuse.

Saxton of Brooklyn recaptured the 147-pound crown from Basilio of Chittanooga, N.Y., on a unanimous but unpopular decision at the Chicago Stadium, March 14.

Although there was no contract for a return bout, the dispute over the decision indicated that the most profitable next title defense Saxton could make would be against Basilio—preferably at Syracuse, which is only a few miles from Basilio's Chittanooga.

The N.Y. State Athletic Commission recently cleared the way for a return match by deciding that Saxton could sign his own contract for the fight despite the fact that his manager, Frank Blinky Palermo, has no N.Y. state license.

McElhenny Will Report for Duty

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Half-back Hugh McElhenny of the San Francisco Forty Niners said today his injured foot has healed so well that he'll report for action this fall.

"You bet your life I'll report," he said. "If I don't get away for a few touchdowns, then maybe the league is faster or I'm older."

McElhenny underwent an operation April 19 to remove scar tissue from an ailing foot that kept him idle most of last season.

In the last week and a half, he has been working out on his own at Mountain View High school.

"I've been running full speed, straight on and I've been cutting," he said. "I've also been jumping into the air for passes thrown by Y. A. Tittle. Boy, it sure feels good."

He said he still feels a little pain when he twists or turns sharply, but he said his doctor told him to expect that for a while after he began serious training again.

20-30 Club, Walt's Win In Softball

Walt's Lithia Motors kept its status as the lone unbeaten club in the Jackson County Softball association last evening with a 9 to 2 decision over Crater Lake Motors.

The tussle was a play-off of a tie of a game last week. In yesterday's other tangle 20-30 club scored in the extra eighth inning to nip Bill's 99 Chevron service 3 to 2.

Lithia's win was its seventh and dropped the Fordmen into a fifth place knot with Bill's and Medford Auto Upholstery. The Ashland club got four runs in the first inning including a homer by Pete Hale and tallied the other five runs in the second panel. Crater Lake got its markers in the fifth in hits by Tyler, Payne and Hammer and a walk.

A double by Jones and an error led in the winning run for 20-30. The service club scored in the fourth inning on a double by Loren Soderlund and a triple by Watkins. It got another in the sixth in hits by Soderlund, John Niles and Watkins. Bill's runs came in the sixth when Bill Sweett and Larry Slesier got hits and runs.

Walt's hopes to keep its record untarnished against Courtesy Chevrolet this evening at the high school field. The Yamen and DeMolay are slated in the other twilight mix.

LINESCORES:
Crater Lake 000 02-2
Walt's 450 03-0
Cearley and Hammer; Hendrickson and Hale.

Bill's 000 002 00-2
20-30 000 101 01-3
Sweett, Barnum and Garner; Sanders and Niles.

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

Portland — (U.P.) — The men's division of the Oregon Amateur golf championships rolled into the third day of match play today with the odds on picking a champion pretty well divided among among the remaining contenders.

Bruce Cudd, two-times winner of the tourney, lost 2 and 1, yesterday to former Canadian junior champion Gordon McKenzie.

Ralph Dichter of Astoria shared the spotlight with McKenzie yesterday as he toured the Portland golf club course four strokes under par to post a 2 and 1 win over Medford's George Harrington.

Dick Hanen of Coos Bay was pushed to 25 holes by Harry Millette of Medford in a duel of endurance that ended when

MEDFORD MOTORS

6th and Ivy
WILL BE CLOSED
JULY 2, 3 & 4th
OPEN THURSDAY, JULY 5

MAKE THAT SPARE!
...then make yourself
a memorable drink...

Ask for

HERMITAGE

and tell the world
you know great straight Kentucky
bourbon!
6 years old

$2.80 PT.

$4.35 4/5 QT.

OLD HERMITAGE CO., DIV. OF NATIONAL DIST. PROD. CORP., FRANKFORT, KY. KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY, 86 PROOF.

Western Auto

4th of JULY TIRE SALE!

Prepare Now for the Big Holiday, Vacation or Weekend Outings! New Tires Cost You LESS at WESTERN AUTO!

The Famous
DAVIS Luxury Ride

TUBE TYPE 12.95 6.70 x 15 Rayon Cord
Regular Outright Price $19.60

All Sale Prices Plus Tax and Your Tire

7.10 x 15 Rayon Tube Type, Reg. Outright $21.70. Only... 14.45

A Top Quality NEW Tire!

Get Luxury Ride safety for the 4th plus year round top mileage... yours NOW at this firecracker price! Super tough cold rubber tread — hi-tension rayon cord carcass.

CHECK THESE OTHER SIZES
Size	Outright Reg. Price	New Only
6.00 x 16	17.55	11.68
6.50 x 16	23.30	15.31
6.70 x 16	19.75	13.15
7.60 x 16		