

Lawrence Cops 10th Verdict For Redleg; Brave Lead Cut

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

For a guy who once was given six blood transfusions and almost left for dead, unbeaten Brooks Lawrence is certainly pumping plenty of life into Cincinnati's pennant hopes.

The Redlegs now are only a half game out of first place in the National league and it was Lawrence, a 31-year-old Cardinal castoff who put them there by nailing down his 10th straight victory without a defeat Wednesday night while defeating the Pirates, 10-2.

"Lawrence is our good luck charm," explains Manager Bridgette, "because whenever he pitches we get plenty of runs."

The Redlegs came from behind Wednesday night to knock out Bob Friend in the eighth inning with a nine-run rally put together on six singles, two walks and four Pittsburgh errors. Lawrence gave way for a pinch hitter in the explosive eighth so he celebrated his 10th triumph under a shower.

Lawrence Key Hurler

By all odds, the 205-pound Lawrence is the key pitcher in the Redlegs' spectacular climb this season but less than two years ago he lost more than 30 pounds because of bleeding ulcers and it was only those transfusions that helped keep him alive.

Even so, the Cardinals decided not to take a chance with him and traded him to Cincinnati before the current season began. The Redlegs are still cheering over that deal.

Stan Lopata's 14th homer of the season in the 11th inning gave the Phillies a 4-3 victory over the league-leading Braves. Lopata's blow, a mighty wallop over the left field roof at Connie Mack stadium, came off reliever Ernie Johnson and earned the Phils their second straight decision over the Braves, who had come into Philadelphia with an 11-game winning streak. Willie (Puddin' Head) Jones and Andy Seminick also homered for the Phillies while Johnny Logan and Hank Aaron connected for the Braves.

Craig, Dodgers Win

The Dodgers swept their three-game series with the Cubs, 6-2, in a game that was twice halted by rainstorms. Brooklyn clinched the contest by jumping on Warren Hacker for four runs on five hits in the fourth inning. Roger Craig racked up his seventh victory although he yielded to Don Bessent in the eighth. Carl Furillo homered.

A pair of homers by Ken Boyer and the five-hit pitching of Tom Poholsky swept the Cardinals to a 6-0 victory over the sinking Giants. Boyer hit both of his homers off lefty Johnny Antonelli, who also yielded a home run to Hal Smith.

Cleveland ran its winning streak to eight games in the American league by battling back from an eight-run deficit to beat Baltimore, 12-11, in 11 innings.

Chico Carresquel's fifth hit, a single to left field, scored Al Rosen from second base with the winning run as reliever Don Mossi was credited with the victory. Trailing 9-1, the Indians rallied for six runs in the fourth with the aid of Al Rosen's two-run homer. They then tied the score at 11-all in the bottom of the ninth after the Orioles had scored twice in the top of the ninth. Tito Francona and Dick Williams homered for Baltimore.

Boxer Stop Chicago

The Red Sox snapped the White Sox' nine-game winning streak with an 11-9 victory by rallying for three runs in the eighth. Don Buddin doubled with two out to start the winning rally and Dick Gernert, Billy Goodman, Billy Klaus and Ted Williams followed with singles. Fred Hatfield, Dixie Howell and Dave Philley all homered for Chicago. Reliever Ike Delock was the winner.

Southpaw Bob Slesier of Washington held Detroit to five hits in handing the Tigers their 10th straight setback, 3-1. Wiesler outpitched Frank Lary and had a shutout until Charlie Maxwell hit his 13th homer in the ninth. Fete Runnels hit a homer for the Senators.

The Yankees increased their lead over the second-place White Sox to 2½ games with a 5-2 victory over the Athletics. Tom Sturdivant pitched a five-hitter in posting his fifth victory although Tom Morgan had to retire the last two batters in the ninth. Hank Bauer hit his 16th homer off loser Art Ditmar in the eighth inning.

header 4-1 and 6-2 to drop the Angels back two games behind Seattle.

It gave Vancouver four wins and three series victories in a row and a record of seven out of their last eight games in the right column.

Seattle missed a chance to go farther ahead by losing to Portland 4-3, Sacramento beat San Diego 4-3 and Hollywood dumped San Francisco 3-1.

Ryne Duren, who couldn't win for losing early in the year, notched his fourth straight victory and fanned 17 Angels in doing it. The 17 strikeouts came within two of the PCL record of 19 set in 1905 by Charlie Shields of Seattle.

The Mounties broke 1-1 ties in each game to down the second place Cherubs. In the first one a three-run fifth inning did it and in the second four runs in the fourth frame won the contest.

Ron Jackson of Vancouver hit the only home run of the two games.

Bill Werle held Seattle to five hits as the Beavers came from behind with two unearned runs in the seventh to edge the league leaders. The winning run came home on an interference play.

Frank Carswell homered for the Beavers and Ray Orteig for the Rainiers.

Under Protest

San Francisco protested its game with Hollywood although the Seals got only three hits off Cholly Naranjo.

The protest came when the Seals had a man on base and one umpire called a ball hit by Haywood Sullivan fair while another called it foul. In the mix-up Sullivan was ruled out at first.

Hollywood got all its runs in the fourth inning.

Earl Rapp homered for the San Diego Padres in the eighth inning to tie the score but the Solons pushed across the winning run in the tenth frame on a bases-loaded hit by George Risley.

Gene Bearden, who came to the relief of Earl Harrist, got his second win in two nights and Tom Herrera, third of four Padre pitchers, was the loser. The win made it three in a row for the Sacs over the Pads.

Trout Fishing Condition On Rogue Improved

Portland—(U.P.)—The weekly report of fishing conditions prepared by the Oregon State Game Commission.

Southwest: Mercer Lake trout fishing good. Tahkenitch lake blue-gill and perch fishing fair to good. Trout fishing poor. Siltcoos lake trout fishing improved, bass and blue-gill fair to good with some bullheads.

Trout angling fair in the North Umpqua, upper South Umpqua, Rock Creek Little river, and reservoirs of the extreme upper North Umpqua drainage. Salmon angling at Winchester bay generally good. Fly fishing for trout at Tenmile, Eel, and Loon Lakes good.

Trout angling in south fork of Coquille is fair to good. Trout angling in Tioga creek upper regions fair, fair also in Williams river.

Rogue river clear and dropping. Conditions for trout fishing improved. Salmon fishing good but poorer than last week. Trout fishing in Union Creek area slow, but improvement expected.

Berrien Springs, Mich.—(U.P.)—Truck driver Chester Mack, 52, heard a crash as the lights of an approaching car blinded him on a highway near here. On investigation, he found someone had hurled a bowling ball, knocking out the truck's right front headlight.

Vic Seixas, Flam Vie at Wimbledon

Wimbledon, England—(U.P.)—America was down to seven men survivors and seven women today in the Wimbledon tennis championships and the elimination wheel was certain to spin several more of them off by nightfall.

In fact Vic Seixas, one of the two seeded Americans left in the men's division, was expected to eliminate one team mate today when he encountered Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., in a feature match on the center court. Seixas, the Philadelphia Davis Cupper, is seeded eighth and is expected to handle Flam handily.

Althea Gibson, the New York Negro girl who has performed so brilliantly on the European tournament tour, was involved in another feature match against Anne Shilcock of Britain. Miss Gibson is seeded fourth.

America's other seeded players, Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., No. 6 among the men, and Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, No. 1 among the women, and Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., No. 5, were not scheduled for the famed center court.

Miss Brough opposed Jennifer Middleton of Britain. Miss Fry took on the veteran Heather Brewer of Bermuda, and Richardson opposed the well-rated Torben Ulrich of Denmark.

POSSESSIVE CARS

Indianapolis, Ind.—(U.P.)—Some two-car couples now have their garages labeled "His" and "Hers." The Eugene O'Neills go them one better. Their garages are called "His" and "Hers," those of Mrs. O'Neill's parents next door "Yours" and "Mine," and a connecting service building used by both families is labelled "Ours."

Bob Prall NCAA Victor

Columbus—(U.P.)—Only one Oregon golfer made it through the opening round of the NCAA golf championships being played here yesterday.

Bob Prall went 19 holes to edge Bobby Maxwell of North Texas State with a three-over performance.

Oregon's other two contenders, Art Abrahamson and Bob Norquist, were dropped in yesterday's action.

Ike Chestnut Stops Costa

Washington—(U.P.)—Ike Chestnut of New York, who first would like to get rated among the top 10 featherweights and then wants to get a title shot, made progress along both lines today as the result of his eighth round technical knockout over Carmelo Costa.

Chestnut scored a big upset in his triumph over fourth-ranked Costa, Brooklyn battler, in a nationally televised bout at the Capitol Arena Wednesday.

Referee Harry Volkman stopped the fight at 29 seconds of the eighth round when Chestnut downed Costa with a hard right to the head. Costa took a nine count and was up, ready to resume fighting, but Volkman called a halt.

Chestnut weighed 130, Costa 129.

RVCC Men Slate Klamath Jaunt; Junior Play Set

Rogue Valley Country club players will travel to Reames Golf and Country club Sunday for a team golf match with Klamath Falls men.

Another activity involving RVCC members is a junior tournament with qualifying on July 2 and matches to be completed within the next eight days.

Club Pro Al Williams stated that about 30 men have signed up for the Klamath Falls trip. Others interested may sign up at the pro show. Williams said that he would like to know by Saturday noon how many will make the trip.

In the junior tourney boys will compete in three groups. They are pee wees (11 years of age and under), boys (12-15) and juniors (16-17). Girls division are girls (through 14) and junior girls (15-17).

Match play is to be finished by July 10.

Turf Association Asks Extension

Portland—(U.P.)—The Portland Turf Association yesterday made a formal application to the State Racing Commission for an extension of the current horse racing season at Portland Meadows.

The application came after officials of the Multnomah Kennel club said that the club's dog track facilities will not be ready to open July 9 as had been scheduled. The Portland Meadows season was scheduled to end July 7. The request, if granted, would extend the season until July 14.

Braves Suspend Jim Pendleton

Milwaukee—(U.P.)—Balking Jim Pendleton, who refused to report to Wichita after being released by Milwaukee on June 15, has been suspended without pay by the Braves. Braves officials said his refusal to report to the American Association club means automatic suspension.

O'Brien Chosen Mentor of Rams

Portland—(U.P.)—Bill O'Brien, former head football mentor at Aberdeen, Wash., high school, yesterday was named to the same post at Central Catholic high school here.
