Obituaries

WILLIAM T. POPPLE

Funeral services for William T. Popple, 66, who died yesterday at the V.A. Domiciliary at Camp White will be held in Camp White chapel at 9:30 a.m. Friday. Chaplain Samuel Feller will officiate. Committal will be in Camp White cemetery. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Popple was born May 1, 1890, in Diamond Dale, Mich. He enlisted in the army on Aug. 19, 1917, and received his discharge July 1, 1919.

CHARLES MARSHALL

Charles Marshall, 82, of Central Point, died last night in a local hospital. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

MRS. ROSA MAY PERKINS

Funeral services for Mrs. Rosa May Perkins, 86, of 334 South Grape st., who died Wednesday at her home, will be held in Conger-Morris chapel at 11 a.m. Saturday. The Rev. James W. Neely of the First Baptist church, of which she was a member, will officiate. Committal will be in Memory Gardens Memorial park.

Mrs. Perkins was born Aug. 24, 1870, in Hart, Mich. In Portland, in 1900, she was married to Floyd A. Perkins, who preceded her in death in 1935. She came from Coquille to Gold Hill in 1938, moving to Ashland in 1942 and to Medford in 1952.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Roy Eskew, Gold Hill, and Mrs. Alpha Colvin, Medford; two half-sisters, Mrs. N. A. Alexander, El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. Belle Lamb, Santa Barbara, Calif.; eight grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Eagles Convention—The Oregon state Eagles convention is being held this week end at The Dalles instead of Bend as previously reported to the Mail Tribune.

In Salem—District Attorney Walter Nunley and Alan Holmes, deputy district attorney, are in Salem attending a state-wide district attorney's convention which started today. They are expected back at the office Monday.

Astorian Here—Robert Chessman, publisher of the Astorian-Budget in Astoria, visited the Mail Tribune plant today while vacationing in Jackson county. Chessman and his family have been fishing in the Rogue River area.
