Arch Moore Ranked Top Heavyweight

Milwaukee, Wis. (U.P.)—Arch Moore today was rated as the top candidate for the heavyweight crown Rocky Marciano wore until his recent retirement.

Trailing Moore as contenders for the vacant title in the National Boxing Association ratings were Floyd Patterson and Bob Baker, in that order.

Fred J. Saddy, Milwaukee, chairman of the NBA Rating committee, said in announcing the quarterly ratings that Patterson gained his rating by beating Thomas Jackson and Baker by defeating John Holman in elimination fights.

Cautioned "There has been considerable talk of a Moore-Patterson fight for Marciano's crown," Saddy said, but he cautioned matchmakers should take "particular care" in slating such a bout due to Patterson's hand injury.

"No state boxing commission should permit Patterson to fight for the championship unless he has fully recovered from his injury," Saddy said.

The NBA chairman said that Moore was listed as the logical contender due to his past record.

Heavyweights given honorable mention were John Holman of Illinois, Bob Satterfield of Illinois, Johnny Summerlin of Michigan, Harold Carter of New Jersey, Igenor Johansson of Sweden, Eddie Machen of California and Nino Valdez of Cuba.

Other ratings by weight classes: Light Heavyweight: Champion—Archie Moore, California. Logical Contenders—1, Chuck Spieser, Michigan; 2, Hans Straet, Germany; 3, Gerhard Rechi, Germany.

Middleweight: Champion—Ray Robinson, New York. Logical Contenders—1, Carmen Basilio, New York; 2, Tony DeMarco, Massachusetts.

Lightweight: Champion—Wallace (Bud) Smith, Ohio. Logical Contenders—1, Larry Boardman, Connecticut; 2, Cisco Andrade, California; 3, Dulio Loi, Italy; 4, Ralph Dupas, Louisiana; 5, Johnny Gonzalez, California.

Special Eugene Meet Eyed for Olympic Team

Los Angeles (U.P.)—Plans were being made today to invite the United States Olympic games team to Eugene, Ore., on Aug. 25 for a special meet which would, among other things, help raise money for the team.

A committee of Eugene citizens was to present plans to the U.S. Olympic track and field committee here Sunday. Members pointed out the meet also would offer competition or team members in the long layoff between the trials and the games in Australia.

Eugene Active club members were reported to have raised more than $15,000 to underwrite expenses.

Burgess Raps 3-Run Homer For Redlegs' Fifth Straight Win

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs is playing such a "hot hand" these days that he can come up with a game-winning home by benching the National League's All-Star catcher.

Tebbetts did just that Thursday night when he decided to let Ed Bailey, newly-elected to the All-Star squad by the fans' vote, sit out a game in favor of stumpy, 29-year-old Smokey Burgess. It turned out to be the winning move, too, when Burgess walloped a three-run, eighth-inning homer that gave the Redlegs a 4-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The blast gave the Redlegs their fifth straight triumph and lifted them to within six percentage points of the idle first-place Milwaukee Braves. It also marked the slumping Pirates' 11th defeat in 12 games and dropped them a game and a half behind fourth-place St. Louis. No Idle Hunch

It was no idle "hunch" move that caused "Tebbetts to substitute Burgess for Bailey. Although nominally the Redlegs' reserve catcher, Burgess is out-hitting every "regular" receiver in the circuit except Bailey, Stan Lopez and Bill Sarni. The homer was his fifth of the season and he has knocked in 25 runs in 29 games compared to Bailey's 29 RBIs in 51 games.

Together, Bailey and Burgess have a composite batting average of .315, 18 homers and have driven in 54 runs. So, it might be wise for the National League to add still another Redleg to its All-Star squad in the person of Cincinnati's "second-string catcher."

Tom Acker, who pitched only one inning, received credit for his first victory of the year while Luis Arroyo suffered his second loss. Burgess' homer was the 100th of the year for the Redlegs, who will break the 1947 New York Giants' all-time mark of 221 at their current pace.

Giants Down Dodgers
The Giants shook off their last-place doldrums at least for a night when they walloped four homers in downing the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-3, in the other National League game. Foster Castleman, Jackie Brandt, Bill White and Daryl Spencer homered for the Giants, who beat their arch-rivals for only the second time in seven meetings. Junior Gilliam homered for the Dodgers, who had a three-game winning streak ended.

Harvey Kuenn, who went to bat for Detroit Manager Bucky Harris in a recent radio broadcast, did it in even more concrete fashion with two homers that sparked the Tigers to a 4-0 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics. The victory snapped a 10-game losing streak for the Tigers, who hadn't won since June 15 in a slump that placed Harris' job in peril.

Kuenn homered in the third and eighth innings and the Tigers then added two more runs in the ninth. Virgil Trucks went the distance, limiting the Athletics to six hits in gaining his third win while Jack McMahan, recently acquired from the Pirates, suffered the defeat.

Novia del Mar In Front in Race

Los Angeles (U.P.)—The sleek 89-foot ketch Novia del Mar has taken over undisputed lead in the world's longest yacht race covering 3,571 miles from Los Angeles Harbor to Tahiti.

The Novia del Mar was sailing about 1900 miles from the starting point and was heading on the last stretch of the race, having passed the halfway mark in 12 days.

Radio reports Thursday night placed John P. Scripps' scratch yacht in first place more than 15 miles ahead of the second place Jada.

Bill Murphy's 64-foot Quest was reported 80 miles behind the leader in third place. The

Portland Clips Suds Again; Stars Twinkle

By DON THACKERY

The Hollywood Stars, who have been feeling their oats in the Pacific Coast League for several weeks get a fine chance to make hay by starlight tonight.

The Stars dropped San Francisco twice Thursday night to move within eight games of the top. And while Los Angeles and Seattle battle it out for the king spot, the Stars take on Sacramento in another first division battle.

The Stars fell on San Francisco 11-4 and 10-9 Thursday night, spotting the spotty Seals a 7-0 lead in the second game and winning it in the bottom of the ninth.

Los Angeles moved to within a game of the top by beating Vancouver 7-3 while Portland made it three straight over Seattle with a 2-0 win. San Diego edged Sacramento 3-2 in the other game.

Trimble Coasts
Hollywood got three in the first and five in the third of the first game.

In the second one the Seals went ahead 7-0, then behind 8-7, then tied it at 8-8 and again at 9-9. In the bottom of the ninth an error put the winning run aboard and R. C. Stevens doubled, letting Bill Mazeroski go to third from whence he scored on Jim Baumer's fly.

Rene Valdes blanked the league leading Rainiers on 11 hits and Luis Marquez supplied him with all he needed with a two-run homer in the fourth. The Beavers got only five hits off Howie Judson and Bill Kennedy.

Los Angeles came back from a double defeat at the hands of the rising Vancouver Mounties and rolled to seven runs on 11 hits.

Ed Erault got the win for San Diego after the Solons had downed the Padres three straight times.

D'Agata Seeks Bantam Crown

Rome (U.P.)—Little Mario D'Agata of Italy will try to wrest the bantamweight 118-pound crown from Robert Cohen of France tonight and become the first deaf-mute world champion in boxing history.

Promoter Carlo Levi Dellavida expects a crowd of 50,000 at the Mussolini-built Foro Italo soccer arena for Italy's first world title fight since Primo Carnera defended the heavyweight crown against Paulino Uzcudun in October, 1933.

VILLANOVA VS. ARMY
Villanova, Pa. (U.P.)—Villanova announced Thursday that it will play Army's football team in both 1958 and 1960. The Cadets have won 14 of 16 previous meetings although Villanova scored a 21-7 victory the last time they played in 1951.

Viveka dropped 400 miles astern of the Scripps' boat and the fifth entry, the Celebes, failed to report its position for the second straight day.

It was believed that the Celebes, John Hedden's 69-foot ketch out of San Francisco, was having radio trouble but was in no danger since the weather was reported calm in the area.

Walt's Wins Again; YMCA Tops Lodge

Walt's Lithia Motors of Ashland kept its record clean with its eighth straight win in one of two lopsided struggles last night in the Jackson County Softball association.

The Lithians smacked Courtesey Chevrolet 13 to 1 while the YMCA Ysmen smothered DeMolay 23 to 5.

While Walt's retained its top spot, Courtesey's set back made a four-way tie among the Chev's, Crater Lake Motors, Bill's Chevrolet and Medford Auto Upholstery. The Ysmen scored their second loop victory and DeMolay, yet to win a game, was beaten for the seventh time.

YMCA scored six runs in the third inning and five each in the second and fourth. Lithia tallied six times in the fifth inning against Chevrolet. Consecutive doubles by Don Reverman, E. C. Brittsan and Pete Hale and a single by Shell got three runs in the opening canto. Brittsan also tripled in the ruckus. The tussles completed the regularly scheduled softball play in the loop for this week. Regular games resume on Monday.
