

Tea Marks Anniversary

Shasta daisies and lilies decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Russell, 120 Newtown street, for a tea Sunday, June 24, honoring their silver wedding anniversary. More than 80 relatives and friends were present.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ford Kenney, Aloha, parents of Mrs. Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Pat J. Boyle, and daughter, Claudine, Beaverton, sister of Mrs. Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Balsiger, sister of Mr. Russell, Portland; Mrs. Alice Crellin, Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and Mrs. Fred Leidung, Napa, California, friends of the Russells.

Mrs. Crellin was in charge of the guest book, Mrs. Leidung supervised the gifts, while Miss Boyle presided at the punch bowl. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Tom Saunders, Mrs. Harley D. McMaster and Mrs. Leslie W. Thomas.

For the tea Mrs. Russell wore a dark blue sheath accented with silver cummerbund and accessories.

Home from school for their parent's anniversary were Miss Marilyn Russell, who is a student at Samuel Merritt School of Nursing, Oakland, and Miss Nancy Kay Russell, a student at Willamette university. The former has returned to school after a two weeks visit with her parents.

Reums to Spend Summer in City

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reum and four children have arrived in Medford from Honolulu, Hawaii, to spend the summer weeks. Mr. Reum is a son of Mrs. F. H. Reum, Findley apartments. The Reums have taken the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Preston Jr., 186 White Oak dr., for their stay here.

Tolle-McCulloch Ceremony Held At Church Here

Mrs. Gertrude D. McCulloch, Corona Del Mar, Calif., and Harold E. Tolle of Medford were married in a simple ceremony held June 23 at First Methodist church. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolle made a wedding trip to Corona Del Mar, and after July 15 will be at home here at 1389 South Stage road.

For the marriage service the bride wore a dress of navy blue lace over taffeta with white accessories and her corsage was of Cecile Brunner rosebuds with a gardenia.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. LeVander, Medford, long-time friends of both the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. LeVander wore a navy blue taffeta dress with white accessories and her corsage was also a gardenia with rosebuds.

A luncheon at the LeVander home followed the ceremony.

The bride formerly lived in the Wagner Creek area for many years. Mr. Tolle, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tolle, 1065 Stewart avenue, is office manager for the road department of Jackson county.

Mrs. Eva L. Baker, 517 South Grape street, announces the engagement and forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Barbara, to Kenneth John Chokie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hamilton, Route 2, Box 393B.

Miss Baker is a 1956 graduate of Medford Senior High school. Mr. Chokie attended school in Rock Spring, Wyo., and has served in the United States Army.

The wedding is set for July 29 in Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Shower is Given For Bride-Elect

Mrs. Edward Bunnell and Mrs. Paul Dix complimented Mrs. Constance Stokes Skinner at a party Friday evening at the Bunnell home on Portland avenue. Members of Alpha Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, were guests.

Mrs. Skinner was presented a shower of personal gifts.

Mrs. Skinner and Charles Allan Sams are to be married later this month.

Grandsons Here

W. Garland Jones and two sons, Ronny and Bliz, arrived yesterday from Ukiah, Calif., to spend the July Fourth holiday with the boys' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Toppides, Old Stage road. The two boys arrived earlier this summer from their home in the Virgin islands to spend several weeks in Ukiah and Medford.

Returns to City

Mrs. Ethel Chadwick has returned to her home in Medford after spending the winter and early spring at her apartment in Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Chadwick's daughter, Mrs. J. C. Koppen, also lives in that city.

Later in the summer Mrs. Chadwick plans to visit friends in Montana and Canada.

Retiring Queen Honored at Dance

Central Point — Bethel 38, Job's Daughters, held the retiring queen, Miss Vicki Noel, at a formal dinner-dance Saturday evening, June 23 in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel. Fifty guests attended, which included Bethel members and escorts; guardian council, their husbands and wives, and relatives of Miss Noel.

A "Blue Moon" theme was used for decorations and program. Centerpieces for the retiring queen's table and those of guests were glittered blue moons in a setting of Esther Reed daisies and blue candles.

Specialty numbers were presented by Miss Pat's School of Dance.

Guardian council members were on the committees for program and decorations, which was headed by Mrs. Harry Elden and Miss Sally Elden, senior princess-elect.

Gary Smith sang "Blue Moon" during the addendum as Miss Noel was presented the traditional silver teaspoon from the Bethel and each girl presented her a blue carnation.

McLeod-Johnson Ceremony Held at Methodist Church

An event of June 23 was the wedding of Miss Janet Johnson to William Curtis McLeod. The ceremony was held at First Methodist church at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon with Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Johnson, 325 Vancouver avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McLeod, Coos Bay, Ore. The newlyweds will live in Coos Bay until September when they will return to Oregon State college for their senior year.

The bride, home economics major at OSC, designed and made her wedding gown as a part of her college work last term. It was of Swiss imported organdy with long fitted bodice dropping to a V in front and back and bordered with embroidery scallops. The organdy skirt was embroidered with flowers beneath to give a shadowy effect and had a brush-length train. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a jeweled tiara and she carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white carnations, Cecile Brunner rosebuds and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Miss Karen Johnson, maid-of-honor for his sister, wore a princess-style gown of cascade emerald green crystalline with matching picture hat and carried a cascade bouquet of Ester Reed daisies and ivy. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Healy, Lanikai, Hawaii, college roommate, Miss Lois Patterson, Roseburg, college friend, Miss Margaret Hildreth, Salem, and Miss Sally Pearson, Hermiston, Ore., both sorority sisters of the bride. Their gowns were of Nile green crystalline over white taffeta, fashioned princess style, and worn with matching picture hats. They carried bouquets of daisies with ivy.

Audrey and Mary Lynn Buckingham, cousins of the bridegroom from Coos Bay, were flower girls. Their frocks were of Nile green embossed organdy and they carried baskets of petals.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a navy blue silk shantung frock with jeweled collar and white accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's mother wore an ice blue crystalline gown with jeweled bodice, white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Mr. Johnson gave his daughter in marriage and Russell Hansen, Coos Bay, was best man. Seating the guests were Martin
