Ceremony At Temple Weds Pair

Miss Eloise Marilyn Mielke became the bride of Marwin Richard Despain in a ceremony held the evening of June 4 at 8:45 o'clock in the temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah. It is considered a great privilege by church members to be married in the temple, and permission is granted only after a series of interviews with church officials.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mielke, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Despain, also Medford.

After the wedding ceremony, for which the couple wears temple robes, the newlyweds and the parents of the bride were served a wedding dinner in the Skylight Room of the Hotel Utah.

A reception held June 8 in the reception hall of the Medford Church of Latter Day Saints honored the newly married couple. For the reception the bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace with a stand-up princess collar. In her hair she wore wax orange blossoms which were worn by her mother on her wedding day.

The parents of both the bride and bridegroom and their brothers and sisters were in the receiving line. Ushers for the reception were Gerald Mielke, brother of the bride, and Paul Eckel, cousin of the bridegroom.

Miss Kay Ferris and Kirt Fiedler provided music for the reception, and Miss Margaret Wasden gave a reading. The hall was decorated with red and yellow roses in white baskets.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Medford Senior High school, and both attended Brigham Young university in Utah.

The young couple is now at home at 1100 East Main street.

Afternoon Service Marries Miss White, Eddy H. Baker

An afternoon ceremony last Sunday, June 24, at First Methodist church wedded Miss Dolores Ann White to Eddy Hugh Baker of Burney, Calif. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Juanita White, 331 West Sixth street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, former Medford residents now living in Burney.

Dr. Raymond Balcomb read the service at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon and Ralph Franklin, uncle of the bride from Etna, Calif., gave his niece in marriage.

Pink and white gladioli in baskets decorated the church, and sprays of pink gladioli marked the center aisle of the church sanctuary.

Mrs. D. G. MacDougall sang, accompanied by Mrs. Richard Schuchard who also played the wedding marches.

The bride's gown, made by her mother, was of French, imported Chantilly lace fashioned with very full skirt and cascade of lace and tulle ruffles which flowed into a train. The lace-pleated yoke was trimmed with lace-covered buttons in scallops. She carried a white orchid encircled with white roses and her short veil was held by a tiara of pearls.

Miss Connie White was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a ballerina length gown of pink lace over taffeta designed with low waist and full net skirt with a taffeta bow at the back. She carried pink carnations, and her hat matched the lace of her gown.

Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Franklin, cousin of the bride from Etna; Miss Shirley Cooke, cousin of the bridegroom from Etna; and Miss Jackie Bates. Their frocks matched that worn by Miss White and they also carried pink carnations and wore pink lace hats.

Flower girls were Carol and Susan Rosecrans, cousins of the bridegroom from Gold Hill.

Their long frocks were of pink net with flowers caught in the ruffles of yoke and with large pink taffeta bows at the back. Their hats were of pink net ruffles and flowers and they carried pink baskets filled with petals.

Carl Fader, nephew of the bridegroom from Gold Hill, was ringbearer. Candelights were Gordon White, brother of the bride, and Fred Baker, cousin of the bridegroom.

Ira McDonald served as best man for Mr. Baker and Jack Pool, Arlyn Granger and Calvin McDonald were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. White wore a frock of pale lavender with white accessories and white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a white knit dress with pink accessories and her corsage was also a white orchid.

About 100 guests attended the reception which followed in the church parlors. Pink gladioli and fern encircled the wedding cake and white candles stood at either side. Baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons completed the decorations.

Mrs. Dean Smith cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Austin Caldwell poured punch and Miss Nancy Hamilton took charge of the gift table. Mrs. Melvin Fader, sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Baker and his bride made a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe and will be at home in Burney after July 1. Both the bride and bridegroom attended Medford schools. The bride has been employed by Acme cleaners and Mr. Baker is with Medford Machinery company.

Meeting Announced For Gold Star Mothers Gold Star Mothers will hold a meeting at the Jackson county court house auditorium Tuesday, July 3 at 2 p.m. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Oscar Anderson.

Stanford Honors Marilyn Olson

Miss Marilyn Olson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Olson, 1430 Euclid avenue, has been granted "honors at entrance" by Stanford university. Miss Olson, a member of the 1956 graduating class of Medford High school, will enter Stanford this fall for her freshman year.

According to President Wallace Sterling, this honor carries no monetary award but is granted by the committee on academic standing to the top 15 per cent of the entering freshman class. The selection is made on the basis of academic and personal records in high school and scores on the college board scholastic aptitude test.

Miss Olson, honor high school graduate, was a member of the Torch Honor society, was president last year of International Relations league, and was a member of Phi-Chem club and HECA.

Her junior year she was one of the delegates to Girls' State and at graduation was named winner of the American Chemical society's award.
