

Yanks Advance By Walloping Bums; Nab Two from Nats; Redlegs Whack Cards Twice

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees are in an old familiar position today for an old familiar reason: They will occupy first place on the July 4 milestone because they're walloping "the bums" without mercy.

The Yankees demonstrated anew that they know this ancient formula for winning pennants Sunday when they downed the seventh-place Washington Senators 3-2 and 3-0, to go four games ahead of the second-place Chicago White Sox. The sweep gave the Yankees an 18-4 record against the Senators and eighth-place Kansas City Athletics compared to a 28-21 pace against the rest of the league.

In other words, the Yankees are playing .818 ball against the two bottom teams and only .571 ball against the five other clubs.

The Yankees won the opener when Joe Collins walloped a "wrong way" two-run homer in the eighth inning and capped the nightcap on the wings of Mickey Mantle's 28th and 29th homers. Mantle's blows—the seventh and ninth innings—put him eight games ahead of Babe Ruth's record 1927 pace. He hit one right-handed and the other left-handed.

Relief pitchers won both games for the Yankees—Tom Morgan picked up his third win in the opener and Tom Sturdivant his sixth in the nightcap.

Indians Take Two
The Cleveland Indians dealt the White Sox a staggering blow when they beat them, 7-6 and 6-1, to take the five-game series, 3-2. The Indians won the opener with a three-run rally in the ninth climaxed by Chico Carrasquel's single and romped home in the nightcap behind Bob Lemon's five-hitter. The win raised Lemon's record to 10-5.

The Baltimore Orioles snapped a five-game losing streak when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 5-3, on Dick Williams' two-run homer. Connie Johnson yielded a homer to Ted Williams but went the distance for his third victory while Bob Porterfield suffered his seventh loss for the Red Sox.

The Kansas City Athletics scored three runs in the sixth inning to beat the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, and end their six-game losing skid in the other AL game. Tom Gorman gained credit for his fifth triumph and Frank Lary lost his 10th decision.

The Cincinnati Redlegs crushed the St. Louis Cardinals, 19-15 and 7-1, to move within five percentage points of first place in the National League when the Milwaukee Braves split with the Chicago Cubs.

Ted Wallops Three Homers
Ted Kluszewski walloped three homers in the 10-inning opener, the last one in the midst of a six-run, last-frame uprising. The Cardinals had tied the score with three runs in the ninth of a three-hour and 47-minute game marked by 43 hits and eight homers. Rookie Don Gross limited the Cardinals to seven hits, including Stan Musial's 14th homer, in the second game.

Don Kaiser pitched a six-hitter and Ernie Banks hit his 19th and 20th homers to give the Cubs a 7-0 triumph but the Braves rebounded behind Ray Crone's five-hitter to win the nightcap, 4-3, and retain first place.

The Philadelphia Phillies routed relief ace Clem Labine in a five-run ninth inning and beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7-4, but the world champions won their second game, 4-1, as Roger Craig spun a five-hitter spiced with nine strikeouts. Gil Hodges hit his 17th homer for Brooklyn in the nightcap.

Johnny Antonelli won his seventh game with the aid of Foster Castlemen's two-run homer as the New York Giants edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2, and the Giants led in the second game, 7-6, when it was suspended after eight innings. The Giants had taken the lead in the eighth when Willie Mays delivered a three-run double. The game will be completed on August 10.
