

Bob Quinney Has Perfect No-No Game

Bob Quinney pitched a perfect game Tuesday as the Medford Tigers turned back Lone Pine 6 to 0 in a pee wee league scramble.

Medford Wildcats out-scored the Eagle Point nine 19 to 13 and Ashland tripped Central Point 6 to 4 in other scraps.

Not a man reached first base against Quinney. He struck out nine and got the benefit of good fielding.

Wilmington, Eng.—(U.P.)—Ham Richardson, a determined, young Yank at Oxford, set out today to stop top-seeded Lew Hoad from turning the men's singles final of the Wimbledon tennis championships into an all-Australian affair.

Ken Rosewall of Australia gained the final bracket Wednesday with a stunning, come-from-behind victory over Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, 6-3, 3-6, 6-8, 6-3, 7-5.

The Richardson-Hoad semifinal also had been scheduled Wednesday but was postponed until today because of poor visibility following a heavy rainfall.

Also on today's program were the semi-finals in women's singles — one an all-American match and the other all-British.

Defending Champion Louis Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., was favored over fifth-seeded Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., in the U. S. affair.

Angela Buxton and Pat Ward of Britain clashed in the other to determine which would become Britain's first finalist since Kay Stammers in 1939.

Cheney Colts 8-1 Winners Over Roseburg Merchants

Utilizing nine of their 11 hits with walks, stolen bases and a passed ball and a wild pitch and getting five-hit pitching from Duane Sides and Don LaBeau, the Medford Cheney Colts drubbed the Roseburg Merchants 8 to 1 yesterday in a non-league semi-pro baseball game at Roseburg.

It was the second win for the Colts over the Merchants. The Cheney team won 9 to 8 here a week ago. So far this season the Colts and Coquille have handed Roseburg its only losses.

Yesterday the Colts established their command with three runs in the second inning. A base on balls, a double by Morrie Churchman, a triple by Larry Bigham and a passed ball did the trick.

The Colts vie at Butte Falls Sunday in a Rogue Valley League game.

Rogue Trout Fishing Good

Portland—The weekly fishing report of the Oregon State Game Commission:

Southwest — Trout angling good on the North Umpqua, upper South Umpqua, and Little river. The fly-only area of the North Umpqua is very good with large wet flies and dark patterns producing best.

A number of summer steel head are in the river but have not begun to strike. Water is still quite high with upstream construction work resulting in some turbidity.

Trout fishing remains good in nearly all waters of the Rogue watershed. Hot spots are the Union creek area and the upper Rogue from Shady Cove to Peyton bridge.

Trout angling in Coos bay fair to good. Early morning tides best. Striped bass angling on mud flats between McCullough and Railroad bridge fair to good.

Incoming tides are best. Trout angling in Coos and Coquille rivers, and their tributaries is only fair.

Trout fishing in all south coastal waters is very slow.

Lenhardt stayed in the game and clouted another homer in the top of the 13th that gave the Seals the contest. Nippy Jones and Jake Crawford homered for the Seals.

In the second game Wally Westla and Dan Baich hit two-run homers for Sacramento but could not match a seven-run inning the Seals put on in the second.

Joe Taylor hit the only home run of the 9-8 first game for Seattle as the first man up in the bottom of the seventh to break a tie and give the Rainiers victory in the sea-saw contest.

In the second one Bob Balcena homered in the first and Howie Judson pitched the day's only shutout to increase the Rainiers' lead to two games.

Suds, SF Gain Most From Heavy Slugging PCL Holiday Contests

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

Pacific Coast League batters celebrated the Fourth of July with such a tremendous explosion of power yesterday that it left the impression that the pitchers were supplying the "punk."

In eight holiday games there were 24 home runs, 159 hits, 84 runs and 42 pitchers took their places on the mound.

Seattle and San Francisco benefited most by the doubleheaders. The league leaders beat Vancouver 9-8 and 2-0, while the Seals edged Sacramento 6-5 in 13 innings and then 7-4 in seven.

San Diego outpounded Los Angeles 14-12, but the Angels took the second one 6-1. Portland got a 9-3 victory over Hollywood, but the Stars won the nightcap 3-2.

Bilko Hits Three
Steve Bilko drove out three home runs during the day, two in the losing first game, to bring his season total to a huge 38.

Casey Wise, Gene Mauch and George Freese also homered for the Angels, but a three-run uprising in the ninth by the Pads gave them the game.

Earl Rapp's homer was one of the 20 hits the San Diego crew got.

In the second game all runs came on homers. Pitcher John Briggs and Bilko hit solo blasts for the Angels and Bob Speake got a grand slammer.

Rocky Colunga's homer accounted for the lone Padre run.

There were five homers in the first Portland-Hollywood game. Luis Marquez and pitcher Bob Darnell hit them for Portland and Jim Baumer got one and R. C. Stevens two for the three Star runs.

In the second game the Stars got only five hits but put them together in the sixth inning to produce three runs and a victory for Ben Wade.

San Francisco trailed Sacramento 5-0 going into what was to be the final inning of the opener—the seventh. Then Don Lenhardt hit a two run homer and Bob Dipietro a three-run

Seixas Loses To Rosewall

Wimbledon, Eng.—(U.P.)—Ham Richardson, a determined, young Yank at Oxford, set out today to stop top-seeded Lew Hoad from turning the men's singles final of the Wimbledon tennis championships into an all-Australian affair.

Ken Rosewall of Australia gained the final bracket Wednesday with a stunning, come-from-behind victory over Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, 6-3, 3-6, 6-8, 6-3, 7-5.

The Richardson-Hoad semifinal also had been scheduled Wednesday but was postponed until today because of poor visibility following a heavy rainfall.

Also on today's program were the semi-finals in women's singles — one an all-American match and the other all-British.

Defending Champion Louis Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., was favored over fifth-seeded Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., in the U. S. affair.

Angela Buxton and Pat Ward of Britain clashed in the other to determine which would become Britain's first finalist since Kay Stammers in 1939.
