

Surprise Birthday Party APPLEGATE-JACKSONVILLE

By HELGA MITCHELL

Applegate - Jacksonville — A surprise birthday party for Clarence Buck was held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Buck in Little Applegate. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farrand, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cox, Mrs. Charley Buck, Mrs. Anne Hancock, Mrs. Letha Clark, Theron Applebaker, and Roland Hedges. A strawberry eating contest was held. Fifteen members of the 4-H Applegate Fishermen's club, and five members of the Forestry club participated in the camping trip to Squaw lake last week. Andy Landrace taught members essentials in connection with fishing, one of them being how to clean fish. Approximately 35 fish were caught by the group, and most of them were taken by fly fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Ogden, Utah, left last Monday after spending a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Taylor of Upper Applegate. V. E. Taylor and W. H. Taylor are brothers.

Mrs. V. E. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Joyce Dent, and her two children, Gary and Donna, of Renton, Wash., arrived last Tuesday at the Taylor residence.

Recent visitors at the L. L. Tweedy residence in Applegate were Dr. and Mrs. Bowen Jenkins and son, Eric, Randolph Rae, and his two sons, Tony and Michael, all of Rolling Hills, Calif. Eric and Michael are spending the summer with the Tweedys.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tweedy and family camped out on the Rogue river on the July 4 holiday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker.

Marilyn Monroe has nothing on "Fleet" when it comes to the popularity of spectators ogling at their contours. "Fleet", a three-day-old, tan colored baby colt, who has been romping on the ranch of Mrs. Frank P. Dutton, has attracted the attention and admiration of all the neighbors in that vicinity.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Dutton were Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and daughter, Mary, of Medford.

Darlene Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bowman of Jacksonville, was a weekend house guest at the home of Shirley Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Walker of "Top o' the Hill".

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Dutton and two children, Mary and Annie, of Medford were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Frank P. Dutton on Independence day.

Tom Dutton, grandson of Mrs. Dutton, arrived with two captains of the National Guard in Portland last Sunday and stayed overnight at the Dutton residence.

Twelve-year-old Tom Darling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Darling of Medford, is staying all summer at the Dutton residence.

Mrs. Myrtle Walker of Medford is visiting Mrs. John Byrnes of Palmer creek.

Mrs. Earl Hvall and children recently went to Tacoma, Wash., to visit her mother.

Mrs. Mary Reynolds, who resides at the D. L. Boehm residence, recently returned from a two months visit in Nebraska. In Kearney, Neb., Mrs. Reynolds visited her mother, Mrs. Flora Boehm, and in Blair, Neb., she visited her friend, Mrs. Lena Lintz.

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Diana Dors, England's answer to Marilyn Monroe, confesses she started one controversy since she arrived in Hollywood: "Somebody started a rumor I was only size 35."

"That's taking away two inches," the buxom blonde declared. "What are they trying to do — sabotage my efforts?"

Diana has had the movie colony buzzing about her measurements and other characteristics since she swept into town with 17 pieces of luggage to co-star with George Gobel in an RKO picture, "I Married a Woman."

The whole town turned out to check Diana at a cocktail party where RKO heralded her as "in impact and importance somewhere between two earlier British importations, the English language and golf."

Smart Cookie
The consensus: Diana appeared more like Jayne Mansfield or Betty Grable than Marilyn Monroe and she is, as one observer said, "a smart cookie."

"In England they told me I'd be disappointed on my first visit to Hollywood, but I think it's beautiful," Diana said. "I can't imagine why so many people need psychiatrists here!"

"RKO has two more scripts for me and I hope to make more pictures here. But I don't regard myself as England's Marilyn Monroe," she added. "Marilyn is England's Diana Dors."

Diana paused to wiggle her shoulders beneath her lo-and-behold tight, red dress. When re-mindful of Hollywood's trend toward slender types such as Grace Kelly, the bosomy blonde laughed. "I'm afraid I couldn't conform to that pattern."

Wolves Discouraged
Diana has a husband to fend off any Hollywood wolves. He is Dennis Hamilton, a real estate man credited with building his 24-year-old wife's successful career. Hamilton, handsome and ruddy cheeked, said RKO offered Diana $40,000 plus $250 a week expenses for the movie. She calmly held out for $82,500 plus $700 a week expenses.

I asked Hamilton if he minded having the world look at pin-up photos of his wife wearing nothing but bits of fur, which are famous in England as Marilyn calendars.

"It doesn't bother Diana."

happy vacations begin in a Chevy

You'll love to travel in it, because it loves to travel! When you get this Chevrolet out on the road, you'll want to keep going—and so will the whole family.

Of course, even in a Chevrolet the happiest vacations may involve one or two minor problems. Like fidgety small fry who want gallons of water and keep asking if you're almost there. The big things, though, are beautifully taken care of by this roomy Chevrolet's smooth and easy way of going.

The fact is, few cars at any price hold the road with a Chevy's grace. That idea about the best riding cars being great oversized affairs went out with the introduction of Chevrolet's outrigger rear springing and low, precisely balanced chassis design. With horsepower up to 225, the Chevrolet moves out like a whip-lash, for safer passing. And with it you've always got that solid feeling of stability.

Is it any wonder that more and more people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet? You'll be happy to see how easy we're making it to start your vacation in a new Chevy. Stop by soon for a ride.
