

Yaks, Braves Victors in NWL Frays

By RAY ANDREWS
United Press Sports Writer

Two Northwest league hurlers bumped into the ninth-inning blues last night but weathered the storms to post victories.

Don Boenker of Yakima went all the way in the Bears' 5-4 decision over Salem. Salem had pushed across two runs in the ninth and had the tying run on base before Boenker got off the hook.

Yakima got its winning run in the top of the ninth on an error, a walk and a single by Dick Renner.

Ted Kazek of Tri-City was rocked for two homers in the ninth but stayed around to notch a 9-6 decision over Lewiston.

Bruce MacIntosh belted a two-run homer and Gene Kilgler hit one with the bases empty for Lewiston in the ninth. Joe Riney hit a solo homer for the Broncs in the sixth.

However, Tri-City collected 14 hits including a two-run homer in the fifth by Tom Perez to stake Kazek to the victory.

Ray Zapf, Tri-City catcher, had two doubles and drove in three runs and Perez had two other hits to go with his homer.

A scheduled game between Spokane and Wenatchee was washed out at the end of four innings with the score 0-0. Glen Irsinghaus, Wenatchee pitcher, had not allowed a hit and Bill Bottler, Spokane's moundman, had allowed only one scratch single in the four innings.

GP, Glendale in Feature RVL Brush; Colts Go to BF

Grants Pass will be the scene of the main attraction this Sunday in the Rogue Valley Baseball league.

The Merchants will be hosts to Glendale in their afternoon ruckus. Rivalry between the two clubs is for lone possession of the league leadership. The two clubs currently are tied in the race.

Other games take the Cheney Colts to Butte Falls, Eagle Point to Cave Junction and Ashland to Camp White.

The Colts and Cave Junction are favored in their tangles and victories by the two clubs would move them into a tie for second place with the losers of the GP-Glendale skirmish. First place is out of reach this week for the Cheney and Junction nines.

Colts' pitching call Sunday likely will go to Duane Sides with Howard Morris catching.

Joey Lopes Faces Rosi

New York—(U.P.)—Lightweight Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., pits his speed and skill against Italian Paolo Rosi's punch tonight in their TV-radio 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Lopes, 25, is favored at 13-10 because of his combined youth and experience, and his former ranking.

Until last Jan. 13, Lopes was rated tenth among contenders for the 135-pound crown. Then he was defeated by Ludwig Lightburn, number seven, in a close fight at San Francisco; and he dropped out of the ratings.

Since then California Joey registered four straight victories. He hopes to score an impressive TV win tonight and bounce back into the rankings.

Rosi, 28, is a "name" fighter although unranked. Because of his punch he has difficulties getting matches with top-flighters.

Waivers Signed By Bilko, Mauch

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Home run slugger Steve Bilko and his teammate, Gene Mauch, of the Los Angeles Angels have signed 1957 contracts with the Pacific Coast league club.

The Angels announced Thursday that both players also signed waivers to prevent them from being grabbed up by major league clubs at the end of the season. First Sacker Bilko has basted 38 home runs so far and maintains a .384 batting average while second baseman Mauch has an impressive .360 average at the plate.

2 Golfers Share Salesman Title

Bob Weaver and Rex Sweeney are the golf co-champions of the Southern Oregon Salesmen's club. The two men tied with 73 in the club's tournament at Oak Knoll Golf club. There was no play-off. Weaver and Sweeney each will receive a trophy.

Ernie Given Nod in Bout

Portland—(U.P.)—Ernie Durando, 162 pounds, Bayonne, N.J., won a split 10-round decision from Jimmy Martinez, 160, Phoenix, Thursday night.

The referee scored the fight 56 points to 51 in favor of Martinez, but the judges scored it for Durando by slim margins, 54 to 53 and 57 to 53.

Durando, making his first appearance in the ring in eight months, wasn't the Durando of old, according to his handler, Joe Vella.

"His timing was off," said Vella, "but that was to be expected because of his inactivity." We have no excuses to make."

United Press scored it seven rounds for Martinez, two even, one for Durando.

31,000 Silver Salmon Rescued From Potholes

Portland—The Tenmile Lake Sportsmen's Association and the Oregon State Game Commission recently combined forces to accomplish a sizable job of salmon salvage in the Tenmile lakes area.

Up to the present time 31,000 young silver salmon have been rescued from potholes and released into the larger stream flows of the Tenmile lakes system. The group is now working on Big Benson creeks, the last tributary streams to receive attention.

Most of the work is being done by the fish salvage committee of the Tenmile Lake Sportsmen's group assisted by Bill Saltzman, game commission fishery biologist at Reedsport. Game commission nets and pack cans are being utilized by the committee in the salvage attempts.

London—(U.P.)—Jockeys in England will have to wear crash helmets after Sept. 10, the Jockey club has announced because of the increase in the number of accidents to jockeys as a result of falls.

Unsponsored River Race Class Added

Redding, Calif.—Two classes have been added to a special "unsponsored" class has been added to this year's second annual Stockton to Redding river race, August 18-19.

The cuts are CU and DU, both two-day classes last year. Addition is a Sunday-boater division with four classes within itself.

CU was cut because of the lack of possible entries. The two-day DU class was eliminated in order to channel more of the big boats into the straight-through Diamond cup race on August 19.

The changes mean no cut in the sack full of prize money ($5,000), however. First place in the Diamond cup still pays $1,000. All the others, with the exception of unsponsored, pay $500 first place money.

To encourage professionals to stay out of the unsponsored class, no money will be offered. Trophies only will be awarded. The four unsponsored groups will be divided primarily by horsepower motor ratings: 15-20, 20-25, 25-30, 30-35.

Exact details on all classes can be obtained by writing the East Bay Boat Club in Oakland. EBBC was low bidder on producing the 316-mile event this year. The race was run last year by the Northern California Outboard Association.

A $2,200 Diamond Cup trophy, won last year by Arvid Nyleen of Willamina, Ore., will be awarded the DU driver who can take first in the Diamond cup classic three successive years.

All classes are AU, BU, 36, DU, unsponsored.

SOL Teams Bill Series

Drain, now tied with the Medford Cheney Studs for the top place in Southern Oregon League baseball standings, will aim to take over sole possession of the lead this week but Bend and Coos Bay-North Bend are each in a good position to move into command or a tie for leadership in Saturday and Sunday conflicts.

Coos Bay-North Bend will travel to Drain to meet the Bend Sox in three-game stand. Bend will be host to Coquille for a threesome.

Medford has a league bye and takes on the Washington Cheney Studs.

Drain and Medford are deadlocked with five wins and four losses each. CB-NB and Bend are tied for third with three victories and three setbacks. Coquille has two wins and four defeats.

Trappers' Year Good One Despite Market Slump

Portland—Oregon trappers again enjoyed a good year during the 1955-56 trapping season despite a small slump in the fur market that carried throughout the year.

Figures compiled by Chet Kebbe, chief of furbearers, Oregon Game Commission, show that 53,532 pelts brought a return of more than $219,296.00 to the 1,598 licensed trappers during the 1955-56 season. This is a drop of approximately $53,000.00 from the fur returns of the previous season.

Muskrats lead in the number of pelts taken, numbering more than all other fur animals combined. A total of $6,240 muskrat pelts brought a return to trappers of $35,152.80. Malheur, Klamath, and Lane counties were the leading muskrat producing areas.

Beaver Market Stable

The beaver market held stable at an average price of $11.90, bringing to the trappers $137,242.70 for the 11,533 beaver pelts taken. Lane county was the big beaver producer with 1,690 taken, followed by Clatsop where trappers took 889 pelts and Columbia with 707 pelts.

Trappers took 2,880 mink for a return of $39,621.90. Average price was $13.71. Clatsop, Lane and Douglas counties were the top mink producers.

Highest prices were brought by otter pelts which sold for an average price of $20.65. However, only 188 pelts were taken, bringing to the trapper a little more than $3,880.00.

Long haired fur animals were lightly trapped as their pelts had little value on the fur market. Most of the trapping efforts were devoted to catching mink, muskrat and beaver, all of which brought a fair return for the trapper's efforts.

Hernado Scores Net Meet Upset

Burlingame, Calif.—(U.P.)—Sixth seeded Rudy Hernado, Detroit, scored the first major upset in the National Junior Hardcourt Tennis Championships Thursday when he breezed through second seeded Allan Fox, Los Angeles in straight sets.

Hernado moved into the semifinals by trouncing Fox, 6-0, 6-4, in fourth round play. Other semifinalists included top seeded Roger Werksman, Los Angeles; third seeded Chris Crawford, Piedmont, Calif., and fourth seeded Joe Cowley, Salt Lake City.

Werksman defeated George Stoesser, Carmel, 6-2, 6-1; Crawford downed seventh seeded Paul Palmer, Phoenix, 6-3, 6-2; and Cowley beat Mike Crane, Berkeley, 6-4, 6-3.

Competition in the top girls' bracket went according to form.
