

2 CHENEY STUDS NINES END FAIRGROUNDS SERIES TODAY

An "intramural" baseball series which, however, matches contingents of two different states concludes today at the fairgrounds park south of Medford.

Rivals in the 2 p.m. second tussle of a two-game stand are the Washington Cheney Studs and the Medford Cheney Studs, both sponsored by Cheney Forest Products. The crews engaged in their opening ruckus here last night.

Medford's edition of the Studs aims to state for two setbacks at the hands of the Seattle-Tacoma nine last year. The Washingtonians seek this season to uphold their prestige as last year's runner up for the American Baseball congress national mantle. They are the defending Washington and northwest titlists in ABC competition.

On Friday night the Washington club lost a 3 to 8 verdict to the Klamath Falls Lakers, a potent independent team. But the Studs of the Evergreen state were to be joined by four top players for their Medford series and should be stronger for their series here.

Top Hitters Join

The players missing the Klamath appearance but coming here were Monte Geiger and George Kritsonis, pitcher - outfielders, Mel Manley, outfielder, and Jim Harney infield. Statistics show them as top hitters for the Seattle-Tacoma squad. Either Geiger or Kritsonis is to be on the hill today. One of the two was to have thrown last night.

Manager Jack Cooney will name his pitcher from Derald Wooton, Don White and Bob Selsor with one of the three to have been the starter last night.

Ron Dodge may handle the catching for the Washington nine. Ozzie Williams could be at first with Harney at second, Walski or Don Jacobs at third and George Grant or Jim Yurina at shortstop. Outfielders will be named from among Louth Carr, Kritsonis, Mel Manley, Roy Critser, Dick Binford and Geiger. Joe Budnich is manager.

Medford Starters
Likely starters for Medford are Frank Roelandt, catcher; Cooney first base; Bill Martell, second; Jim Taylor, third; Twink

Pederson, shortstop with the outfield to be named from among John Kovenz, Jim Steffen, Wooton and Selsor.

The visiting Studs have won 12 and lost five this season and the Medford nine has won eight and dropped five.

Klamath got only three earned runs against the Washington gang last night. Big frame for the Lakers was the fourth when four runs came in. Jerry Hanlon and Ken Mallory doubled in the inning and there were two errors and a fielder's choice.

Mallory and Jack Henkel combined on the mound for KF to hold the Studs to five hits, one a triple by Dodge. The Lakers picked up nine safeties off Walski.

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Roseburg	8	1	.888
Medford-Central Point	5	4	.556
Grants Pass	5	5	.500
Myrtle Creek	0	9	.000

Grants Pass American Legion junior baseball team tipped Medford-Central Point 2 to 0 Friday night at Grants Pass to tie the two clubs for second place in the final standings of District 43.

Roseburg won the district diadem. Two unearned runs, one in the third inning and one in the sixth, gave Grants Pass the Friday verdict as Pitchers Wayne Allen and Ernie Tyler held the Climate city nine to two hits.

In the third Jim Smith singled and went to second base on a ground out. He scored on Eldon Francis's miscue at third base. Scott Tippetts singled in the sixth and Larry Cochell sacrificed him to second. A dropped fly ball by John Payne to the outfield allowed Tippetts to get home.

Medford got to Jim Smith of GP for three hits. The longest and the biggest Medford scoring threat was in the last inning when Dennis King three-baggered with no one out. Payne and Tyler grounded out, pitcher to first base and Gordon Owsley flied out. Phil Sword and Tyler slapped singles for Medford.

Another Medford chance was in the sixth inning when their were two men on base on walks with two out. However, Dick Copple struck out.

Smith issued three walks and struck out seven batters. He hit one batter, Allen, who was blown off the hill because of the tuck on his right elbow. Allen permitted one hit and no walks and whiffed two batters in three innings. Taylor gave up one single and one base on balls.

Paolo Rosi Trims Lopes

New York — (U.P.) — At last, 28-year-old Paolo Rosi from Italy has a "reputation" and the promise of a fight with a ranking lightweight because of his upset, unanimous 10-round decision over Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Matchmaker Billy Brown said "I'll put Rosi back in the garden with Larry Boardman on Aug. 24 or 31." Boardman of Marlborough, Conn., is the fifth-ranking contender.

Balding, hard-hitting Rosi—whom none of the ranking 135-pounders wanted to fight "until he gets a reputation"—had 25-year-old Lopes on his knees at the final bell in their excellent TV-radio scrap Friday night. Rosi weighed 137½ pounds to Lopes' 134.

Dellinger Plans August Wedding

Eugene — (U.P.) — Bill Dellinger, University of Oregon track star and member of the United States Olympic team, will marry Miss Myrna Joan Mattheyer of Springfield August 12.

Announcement of the engagement and wedding date was made Friday by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Itto H. Hattheyer. The wedding will be in the First Baptist church here.

Dellinger, whose home also is in Springfield, won the 3000-meter run in the recent Olympic trials at Los Angeles. He will represent the United States in this event in the Olympic Games in Australia in November.

Springfield will honor the runner with a "Bill Dellinger Day" Monday.

Hand Injury Postpones Elorde-Gallardo Bout

San Jose, Calif. — (U.P.) — A bout scheduled for Tuesday night between featherweights Flash Elorde of Manila and Dave Gallardo has been postponed until Tuesday, July 24, because Elorde hurt his hand while training.

Elorde fought Sandy Saddler for the featherweight championship in San Francisco last January, but lost in the 11th round because of a cut eye. Gallardo is champion state featherweight champion.

IN MEDFORD LINE-UP—Derald Wooton, above, ex-Medford high and ex-professional player, is scheduled to be in the outfield or on the pitching mound this afternoon when the Medford Cheney Studs oppose the Washington Cheney Studs at the fairgrounds diamond here.

Scooter Too Takes Race

Tahoe City — (U.P.) — Edgar Kaiser's Scooter Too, speeding through the ice-cold Lake Tahoe waters at $9,418 miles per hour, won the first heat of the fourth annual Mile High Regatta here Saturday.

Only four boats of the unlimited hydroplane class started and of these three finished. The other, the defending champion, breathless, fell out on the second lap of the five-lap 15-mile race, and owner J. Phillip Murphy of Piedmont, Calif., was busy trying to get it in shape for the second and third heats later Saturday.

The Scooter Too was driven by Jack Regan, Livermore, Cal. The Hawaii Kai, II, driven by Howard Gidovlenko, LaMirada, Calif., and also owned by Edgar Kaiser, finished second with an average speed of 82.116 miles per hour.

Third place went to the Shanty I, owned by William Wogner, Phoenix, and driven by Air Force Lt. Col. Russ Schlee of Castle Air Force base. Speed for the Shanty I was 76.857.

A fifth boat, the Thriftway from Seattle, was supposed to compete, but it failed to arrive here in time for the start.

Beavers Soak Rainiers 5-3

Seattle — (U.P.) — Portland pushed over three runs in a first-inning rally and went on to score a 5-3 victory over Seattle Friday night in the opener of their four-game Pacific Coast League series.

The defeat, coupled with a Los Angeles victory over Hollywood, trimmed the league-leading Rainiers margin over the Angels to half a game.

Bill Werle notched his tenth win against seven defeats although he required help from Ray Shore during a ninth-inning Seattle threat.

The first four Portland batters of the game delivered singles to knock out starter Artie Schallack and bring on Don Fracchia. Eddie Basinski singled infield to open the game. Then Luis Marquez, Bob Borkowski and Frank Carswell all singled to center and two runs crossed.

Frachia came in and Sam Calderone hit into a double play on which the third run of the inning scored.

DODGERS SIGN WEISS
Brooklyn — (U.P.) — Star south-paw pitcher Robert Earl Weiss of the University of Maryland has been signed by the Brooklyn Dodgers and assigned to Shawnee, Okla., of the Class D Sooner State league.

Bob Newland, coach of Medford High school's perennial state championship track and field teams, has been named to a three-man committee to organize a National High School Track Coaches Association. The appointment came while Newland was attending the International Track and Field clinic last month at Berkeley, Calif. Forrest Jameson, Palo Alto, Calif., was named chairman of the committee. Beverly S. Rockhold, Baytown, Tex., was the other man named.

It is planned to pattern the prep tutor's organization after the National College Track Coaches association. There was some talk of the high school group having representation on the college association. Purpose of the organization, Newland reported, would be to disseminate information from outstanding coaches to others desiring it.

SPOKE ON JAVELIN

Newland, only coach from an Oregon high school at the international session, was also the only prep coach in the country to have a part in the week-long clinic program. He spoke on javelin throwing along with Bud Held, world record holder, Frank Wetzler, LaSalle college, and Kalevi Rampotti, Finland.

Attendance at the clinic proved a great experience for the Medford mentor. Track coaches were on hand from many countries and included a number who are coaches for their countries' Olympic games delegations. Newland said that in addition to the regular clinic sessions in the mornings and afternoons there were informal get-togethers in evenings and opportunities to watch the nation's top college athletes train for the NCAA meet and to talk to them.

The Medford coach particularly enjoyed talking to Gosta Holmer, Swedish Olympic coach, with whom he has corresponded, and Herb McKinley, Jamaican 400-meter Kine. Holmer is a distance expert. He chatted with such college track stars as sprinters Christian Morrow of Abilene Christian and Dave Sims of Duke and shotputter Ken Bantum of Manhattan.

BEAVERS VOW
Roy Helsner, manager of the Drain Black Sox of the Southern Oregon league, has had to eat his words. Brownie Valdez in his Roseburg News-Review column reports an early season conversation with the Drain pilot in which Helsner remarked that under no circumstances would he pitch this season—not even in relief. The Linfield coach and ex-Portland Beaver twirler, nevertheless made a couple of relief appearances at Bend last week end.

Drain has been the powerhouse of the Southern Oregon circuit and its predecessor, the Southwestern Oregon loop. The Black Sox this season, however, are meeting sterner opposition in their efforts to defend their laurels.

TRACK FINALS LIKE DREAM
"You shake your head and wonder if you haven't been dreaming." That's what Dick Strite had to say in the Eugene Register-Guard about the two days of Olympic trial finals last week end in the Los Angeles coliseum. He also states, "We doubt very much if more than a few track fans...realized the tremendous talent paraded before them." Strite comments that "the performances were so great that one fails to grasp the significance of the 17 record-shattering events." He adds that "every event was so terrific that you tend to lose the color and the drama of one really outstanding performance."

CALL COAST GUARD
A note from Empire advises sportsmen planning a salmon fishing jaunts to Coos Bay to telephone the Coos Bay Coast Guard before making the trip. Some days the sea is rough and boats cannot get out, according to the communication. A newspaper clipping enclosed reports that a boat 150 boats out with around 300 anglers went out on the Coos Bay bar on the holiday with many bringing back limit catches. Mooching with herring and anchovies got the best results. Another coast report is from Castle Rock camp, Smith River, where the first salmon limit of the season was caught on July 4. Earl Ennis was the lucky fisherman.

Pro Football Reservations Being Taken

Portland, — With the finest schedule it has been able to arrange in five years of pro football promotions, Oregon Sports Attractions is ready to start accepting mail-order reservations for its two games here at Multnomah stadium in September.

President Harry Glickman has announced that applications will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis with preference for orders for both games.

Four different members of the National Football league will display their talents in the two games.

The first one matches the San Francisco 49ers with the New York Giants on Saturday night, September 8. On Saturday night, September 22, the Los Angeles Rams will play the Pittsburgh Steelers.

This will be the first appearance in Portland for the 49ers, who recently signed Frankie Albert, one of the great quarterbacks of modern football, as their new head coach.

It is almost certain that Hugh McElhenny, the great All-American from Washington, will be able to play. McElhenny recently underwent surgery and the operation on his injured foot will enable him to rejoin the football's most explosive backfield along with Y. A. Tittle, John Henry Johnson and Joe Perry.

The Giants return to familiar Oregon territory for the third straight time and will hold part of their summer training camp at Portland university from August 26 to September 12.

The game between the Rams and Steelers is a rematch of their touchdown thriller of last year, won by the Rams 38 to 24. Norm Van Brocklin again heads the cast for the Rams, while Paul Cameron of UCLA and Johnny Lattner of Notre Dame are expected out of the service in time to lead the Steelers.

Applications or tickets should be sent to Oregon Sports Attractions, 811 SW Washington ave. Glickman pointed out that orders

14 Scuffles Remain for Softballers

JACKSON COUNTY SOFTBALL ASSOCIATION

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Walt's Lithia Motors	9	0	1.000
Chris Drugs	6	1	.857
McCulloch Chain Saw	5	2	.714
Medford Auto Upholstery	4	2	.671
Crater Lake Motors	2	2	.500
20-30 Club	4	5	.444
Bill's 99 Chevron Service	4	5	.444
National Guard	2	3	.400
Courtesy Chevrolet	3	5	.375
YMCA	2	6	.250
DeMolay	0	9	.000

Five games remaining on the published slate of the Jackson County Softball association are to be played this week. But they won't end regular season play and their regular season play will be conclusively which clubs will be in the four-team club-end play-offs.

Nine other fill-in and make-up scuffles are to be contested to complete regular action in the circuit. Six of the nine involve Crater Lake Motors, late comer to the circuit. Dates for most of the nine games have yet to be arranged.

Twilight frays at the high school stadium this week are Medford Auto Upholstery versus Chris Drugs and National Guard playing Bill's 99 Chevron service on Monday night; McCulloch Chain Saw opposing Chris Drugs and National Guard versus YMCA Ysmen on Tuesday and National Guard playing DeMolay on Tuesday.

Crater Lake Foes
Foes yet to be faced by Crater Lake Motors are Chris Drugs, YMCA, McCulloch, 20-30 club, National Guard and Courtesy Chevrolet. Medford Auto Upholstery must meet Lithia Motors and Courtesy Chevrolet and National Guard has also McCulloch to play.

Only club to clinch a play-off berth so far is Lithia which is unbeaten in nine games. DeMolay is out of the running with nine losses. All other clubs are yet in contention. Chris Drugs is virtually "in" and another loss will throw YMCA out of the chase.

SAIL RACES STARTS
Torbay, Eng. — (U.P.) — Twenty-one sailing ships of 11 nations left here Saturday on the start of the 800-mile Torbay-to-Lisbon sailing race.

should be mailed early as advance inquiries have been the greatest in history and large crowds are expected for both games.

'World' Next For Champ

Hoylake, Eng. — (U.P.) — Aussie Peter Thomson, who succeeded where the great Bobby Jones and Walter Hagen failed by winning the British Open golf championship a third straight time, will shoot for his next title in the "world" championship in Chicago, Aug. 9-12.

The handsome 26-year-old star from "down under," who scored his historic third Open Victory Friday as fellow Aussie Lew Hoard was winning the Wimbledon tennis championship, outlined his plans after finishing the 72-hole circuit here with a two-over-par 286.
