

Many Parties for Visitors

The summer months always bring many parties for visitors. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tomy will be hosts for a large cocktail and supper party to honor their daughter, Mrs. Richard C. Ashcom, who is here for several weeks. The event will be at the Colony club.

Mrs. Ashcom, who makes her home in Detroit, was accompanied by her three children, Julie, Kathy and Jeffrey. They will be joined in August by Dr. Ashcom and the family plans to return to Detroit about September 1.

A number of recent parties were given for the pleasure of three couples who came to Medford to visit Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clark, 133 White Oak drive. They were Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert I. Markham, Chicago, her two brothers, John J. Markham of Chicago and James M. Markham of Milwaukee, Wis., and their wives.

Last Sunday the Clarks were hosts for a cocktail party in honor of the visitors. Others who entertained for the three couples were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Emmens, 6 North Modoc avenue, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, 190 White Oak drive and Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley, Old Stage road. Mrs. Gail Robinson and Mrs. J. J. Emmens were hostesses Monday for a luncheon and bridge party which honored the three women, and Mrs. Martin Luther and Mrs. George Roberts entertained Thursday at a luncheon-bridge party for Mrs. Herbert Markham. Both parties were at the Colony club.

Mrs. Roberts invited James Markham III and his sister, Holly, who accompanied their parents here, and Mrs. Clark's son and daughter, Susie and Walter (Butch) Graff, to her home Tuesday, for luncheon and swimming.

The younger Markhams left early in the week for Seattle, and the elder couple departed Friday to join them in Spokane from where the family planned to leave for home.
