Church Rites In Ashland Wed Couple

Ashland — Miss Carol Ann Beare and Verna Edwin Moberly were married in a ceremony held June 23 at the Free Methodist church, Ashland. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beare, 128 South Pioneer avenue, Ashland, and the bridegroom is from Talent.

The Rev. F. C. Newmann officiated for the four o'clock afternoon ceremony and 75 guests attended.

John Beare, Portland, brother of the bride, was soloist and Mrs. William Vovruska, San Francisco, was at the organ.

The bride wore a ballerina-length bolero gown of lace fashioned with a tiered skirt. Her short veil was held by a cap of pearls and rhinestones and she carried a spray of pink rosebuds on a small white Bible.

Mrs. Jason Lee was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a blue nylon ballerina frock and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Sheila Beare, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of white nylon and she scattered petals from a pink basket.

Mr. Beare gave his daughter in marriage and William Moberly, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Jason Lee and Edward Beare, brother of the bride, were ushers.

An arch of red roses and mock orange blossoms formed a setting for the bridal party and other decorations were baskets of roses, snapdragons and white daisies.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee, 820 Garden way, Mrs. Marilyn Fay, Portland, a sister of the bride, served the wedding cake and Mrs. William Moberly, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, poured.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Crater lake and will live in Grand Junction, Colorado. The bride, born and reared in Ashland, was graduated from Ashland High school with the 1956 class. The bridegroom served in the United States Navy during World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dee Johnson

Presbyterian Ceremony Weds Pair in Rogue River

Rogue River—Marriage vows were exchanged Friday, June 29 at 8 p.m. by Miss Margaret Marie Miller and Gary Dee Johnson in the Hope Presbyterian church, Rogue River. Setting for the ceremony was an arch of fern and blue and pink daisies. Baskets of pink gladiolus and blue delphiniums flanked the arch.

The Rev. D. F. Barnett officiated at the candlelight double-ring ceremony.

Miss Miller is the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Eva Sherman, Savage Creek road, Grants Pass. Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Johnson, Rogue River.

Given in marriage by her father, James Miller, the bride wore a white gown fashioned with a skirt of lace and accordion pleated net panels. The fitted bodice was accented at the neckline with seed pearls and rhinestones. Sequin medallions trimmed her fingertip veil which was fastened to a crown of pearls. Her flowers were Ester Reed daisies and an orchid.

Mrs. D. F. Barnett was organist and accompanied Mrs. Robert DeArmand who sang.

Maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Boucher, carried a bouquet of blue daisies which contrasted with her dress of pink taffeta and net. Bridesmaids were Miss Gloria Little and Miss Myrna Towse, who wore dresses of blue taffeta and net. They carried pink daisies.

Miss Susan Rushing, niece of the bridegroom, was flowergirl. She wore a floorlength dress of blue net over blue nylon organza and had a crown of pink and blue flowers. Ringbearer was Gary Davis, cousin of the bride.

Cletus Dailey was best man and ushers were Don Biggers and Bobby Hoover. They also were candlelighters.

Mrs. Lee Reynolds, Bremerton, Wash., mother of the bride, wore a gown of dusty rose lace with navy blue duster coat and white accessories. Mrs. Johnson chose for her son's wedding a pink linen sheath and duster with matching accessories. They both wore white orchid corsages.

Pink and blue Ester Reed daisies decorated the church recreation room where a reception was held following the ceremony. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Mary Lou Davis, aunt of the bride. Miss Carol Weaver served coffee, while Miss Glenda Stinchcomb presided at the punch bowl. Miss Phyllis Stinchcomb was at the gift table and Miss Sandra Gregory was in charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests included James Miller, father of the bride, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Larry Essex, all of Bremerton.

Officers Installed By Groups

Central Point — Central Point Lions club and the auxiliary held the annual installation of officers Friday evening at Tally Ho cafe, Talent. Mr. and Mrs. William Saxbury were installed presidents.

C. W. Abbott presided as toastmaster during the dinner meeting preceding the candle-lighted ceremony.

Additional Lions taking office were Don A. Faber, first vice-president; C. W. Abbott, second vice-president; O. W. Panter, secretary-treasurer; Ted Anderson, lion trainer and Clint Blithem, lion tamer. Directors are Richard Stratton, Arthur Rupp, Jim Glenn and Gay Anderson.

Installing officer was William Roling, governor of District 36-E, and a member of the Grants Pass club.

Installing officer for the auxiliary was Mrs. Dan Dwyer, past parliamentary and member of Crater auxiliary, Medford. Taking office in addition to Mrs. Saxbury were Mrs. Jim Glenn, vice-president; Mrs. Gay Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Don A. Faber, treasurer; and Mrs. Ted Anderson, lion tamer.

Mr. Saxbury presented a past president's pin to Mr. Panter and Mrs. Rupp presented Mrs. Panter with her past president's pin and a gift.

The pages, Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Dick Korner, presented corsages and boutonnières made by the Central Point Garden club to the officers.

Past presidents present were Mr. Abbott, Sam Mallon, Mr. Glenn and Mr. Rupp, who is also past zone chairman. Past presidents of the auxiliary included Mrs. Kenneth Wald, Mrs. Rupp and Mrs. Les Gillman.

Table decorations were arranged by Mrs. Anderson in a pink and purple theme.

Dancing followed the installation.

Former Residents Visit in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nordwick and children, Brian and Karen, were guests last week of Mr. Nordwick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Nordwick, 919 Reddy avenue. The Nordwicks, formerly of Medford, now live in Madera, Calif.

The family continued north to Salem to visit relatives of Mrs. Nordwick and will return to Medford later this week, stopping en route in Roseburg.

Mr. Nordwick was on the staff of The Medford Mail Tribune before leaving for California.
