

Washington Studs Capture Series From Medford Nine

Washington Cheney Studs romped out for three runs in the ninth inning at the fairgrounds here yesterday afternoon in a rally which earned them a series sweep in their "intramural" engagements with the Medford Cheney Studs.

The surge enabled the Seattle-Tacoma squad to add a 6 to 4 triumph to its 2 to 2 victory on Saturday night.

Medford never was behind until the final inning yesterday. It finished the eighth inning leading 4 to 3. Then Joe Budnich, manager of the 1955 northwest American Baseball congress champs, made a little speech with an indirect implication which proved prophetic.

Budnich told the crowd what fine fans they'd been, he introduced Ben Cheney of Cheney Forest Products, sponsor of both teams and he remarked that his club would come back and beat Medford again next year. It was just as if he had said, "This game isn't over yet and we're going to win it."

Fly Drops In
In the top of the ninth Pete Walski led off with a high fly which shortstop Twink Pederson either lost in the sun or misjudged. It dropped for a double. Tiring tosser Bob Selsor then walked Gary Moore. George Kritsonis followed with a bunt single which loaded the bases. George Grant cracked a fly which bounced over the right centerfield fence for an automatic double scoring the tying and tie-breaking runs.

Derald Wooton, who had been third base, switched assignments with Selsor and walked Luther Carr to load the bases again. He struck out Jack Brady but Monte Geiger lofted fly to center field and Don Jacobs, running for Kritsonis, tallied after the catch. Grant was not boxed off third base to end the inning.

In the bottom of the final canto Jim Steffen fouled out, Bill Martell skied to left field and John Kovenz struck out to end the inning and the game.

The Medfordites played errorless ball yesterday and made two double plays both shortstop Pederson to first baseman Jack Cooney. But they were able to get only seven hits off three Washington pitchers.

In the meantime the Seattle-Tacoma club collected nine bingles off Selsor including Geiger's solo homerun in the eighth inning. His mighty slam cleared both the inner and out fences back of right field.

Medford broke into the scoring in the first inning. Steffen got on base on an error and Bill Martell sacrificed him to second base. Kovenz two-baggered to bring in the run. The Washingtonians tied it up in the third inning. Walski hit a high fly ball to center which outfielder Kovenz couldn't find in the bright glare of the sun. He scored when Carr lined a single to left field.

The host Studs went back on top 3 to 1 with a pair of markers in their third inning turn. Cooney drew a free pass to the bases and stole second. He went to third on Jim Taylor's ground out. Pederson also walked and Selsor singled the Medford skipper home. Steffen got a base on balls to fill up the sacks. Martell groundered to second baseman Jim Yurina who mishandled the ball, allowing Cooney to cross the plate.

Hits Three Doubles

Walski slapped his second of three doubles in the fifth inning. Kritsonis singled him home. But Medford made up for it in the fifth inning when Frank Roelandt tripped to deep right field and scored on Cooney's safe smash.

With four safe blows in as many times up Walski was the leading leader yesterday. Kritsonis hit three for five and Geiger two for four. Selsor got two hits in four times up for Medford.

Kritsonis working four innings on the hill yielded four hits and four bases on balls and struck out three Medfordites. Mike McAuley who relieved the starting thrower gave up two hits, including Roelandt's triple and fanned two men. Gary Moore went the last four innings and virtually handcuffed the Medford nine. He permitted a lone hit, by Wooton who was caught trying to get to second base, gave one base on balls and struck out two. The nine other outs were on fly balls.

Selsor whiffed five and walked five.

Carr, Moore Homer
A three-run homer by smooth-patroling centerfielder Luther Carr, a two-run homer by outfielder Moore, sensational fielding catches by shortstop Grant for the Washington nine and first baseman Cooney for Medford, three double plays by the visitors and yeoman defensive work by Grant were highlights of the Saturday scramble.

No runs crossed the plate during the final 6½ innings of the game.

Carr, who hit three times in five times up, slammed his five-run homer in his first turn at bat. Grant led off the first frame with a single and Ron Dodge got a base on balls from pitcher Don White. Carr then laid into his second pitch from White and parked the ball over the right field barrier.

Homer Follows Two-Baser
Moore, best player in State-Seattle all-star game this spring and a talented pitcher as well as outfielder, hit for the circuit in the third inning. His clout followed a two-baser by Dick Binford. Rightfielder Jim Steffen had overrun Binford's fly ball. Binford got to third on an error.

Glendale regained the lone leadership in the Rogue Valley Baseball league yesterday and pushed Grants Pass back into a knot for second position with the Cheney Colts and Cave Junction.

The Millers won over GP on the five hit pitching of Bob Stokes. Score was 4 to 1. Cave Junction laced Eagle Point 12 to 2. The Colts rallied for 11 runs in the last two innings to overcome Butte Falls 15 to 6 and Camp White posted its second victory of the season, over Ashland 9 to 1.

Trailing 4 to 6 going into the eighth inning, the Cheney team unloaded for five runs in that canto and got six more in the ninth. Three bases on balls, two errors, a double by Ed Reinking and a triple by Doy Gatlin got the eighth stanza counters. In the ninth there were doubles by Reinking and Bob Serak, a single by Rector, two errors and base on balls. Serak stole home for the last run.

Heavy Hitters

Howard Morris tripled and doubled for the Colts in four times up. Reinking, Serak and Gatlin all had two for five. Bill Rodgers and Hank Davies slugged three for five each and Ed Ellis had two for five. Butte Falls outthit the Colts 12 to 11.

Camp White scored runs in the third inning of its game on singles by Gordy Thoreson, Larry Irwin and Dick Wooton. A double by Frank Revard and three-bagger by Jim McCabe. Three runs crossed in the fifth on a hit by Revard, a triple by Norm Loop, two errors and a fielder's option.

Revard hit two for four and Wooton two for five. The Whitebats played fine defensive ball with Irwin, John Drew and Tom Rodgers doing some great outfield patrolling and Thoreson, Loop and Revard shining in the infield.

Hardtop Car Drivers Led By Metzger

Bill Metzger, Roseburg, in R89 took main event honors Saturday night in hardtop auto racing at Valley View speedway and Lou Kurz, the leadfooted skipper of M7 won the semi-main event.

Bob Crawley in K66 won the trophy dash.

Metzger also took a heat race. Other heat winners were Mike Randall, George Smith and Bob Wilcox.

Allen Bausman was second in the main and Crowley third. Cars operated by Floyd McClanahan and Lee Skaggs tangled in the main event and both totalled out. There were two restarts in the race. Crawley flipped but returned to action. Drivers had spin out trouble and only six of 16 starters were on hand at the finish.

Don Harris was treated at the hospital for a nose injury suffered in the semi.

Doyce Lemley won the stock car chase and Chuck Smith was second.

In the first heat Cliff McGilvery was second and Ray Asher third. Harris followed George Smith in the second heat and Kurz was in the show spot. Bob Jenkins was runner-up in the third run and Bousman was next. McClanahan and Bernie Miller knotted for second.

Bogan, Weber Win in Pro-Am

Prineville — (U.P.) — Pete Bogan, assistant pro at Eastmoreland golf course in Portland, yesterday captured the Prineville Pro-Amateur golf title with a four-under par 64. The veteran golfer put together a pair of 32's to capture top honors in this rich tourney, sponsored by Fred Hudspeh of Prineville.

Bogan came in early, then spent the day sweating it out as the remainder of the field of 124 attempted to overtake him. Larry Lamberger, Portland Golf club, came the closest with a 65. Bruce Cudd, Portland, and Ron Weber, Prineville, had to go into a sudden death amateur diversion playoff that carried three holes before Weber took a birdie four on the third hole after darkness had enveloped the course.

Oregon Net Tilt Starts

Portland — (U.P.) — A troupe of California players is favored to walk off with just about everything but the net today as the Oregon tennis championships open at the Irvington club here.

Oregon's main hope of keeping one of the state titles at home, defending singles champion Emery Neale, will limit his action in the tourney to the junior veterans' division.

Thomas on OSC Staff

Corvallis — (U.P.) — Oregon State college officials have announced the signing of John Thomas as a member of the Beaver football coaching staff.

Thomas was a football and baseball star for the Beavers from 1949 through 1952 when he entered the service.

American Loop Stars Flash Power; NY, Reds Widen Gaps

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The American league's All-Stars flexed their muscles Sunday in a thunderous batting outburst that demonstrated why they're favored to beat the National league in Tuesday's classic.

With Ted Williams and Al Kaline showing the way, the AL's eight starters had a composite record of 26 hits in 52 tries for a .500 average in Sunday's game. The eight NL starters, meanwhile, collected only five hits in 27 tries for a .185 average.

Williams knocked in four runs with a homer, double and single in the first game and drove in the 1,500th run of his career in the nightcap as the Boston Red Sox downed the Baltimore Orioles, 9-0 and 8-4. All-star first baseman Mickey Vernon had two hits in six tries and drove in three runs while Baltimore's George Kell went four-for-eight and drove in four runs during the doubleheader.

Sullivan Goes Distance

Frank Sullivan, the only All-Star pitcher to go the distance Sunday, pitched a six-hitter for his eighth win in the first game. Kaline went three-for-five in each game and drove in a total of seven runs while Harvey Kuenn collected four hits in eight tries to lead the Detroit Tigers to 17-5 and 8-6 victories over the Chicago White Sox. The Tigers, who walloped 18 hits in each game, routed All-Star pitchers Jim Wilson and

Billy Pierce, snapping the latter's winning streak at eight games and handing him his third loss compared to 13 wins.

All-Star second baseman Nelson Fox did his best for the White Sox, collecting three hits in six tries for the day. The Sox, however, dropped 6½ games behind the first-place New York Yankees, who beat the Washington Senators, 8-2, for their 12th win in 14 games.

All-Stars Yogi Berra with two hits and Mickey Mantle with one contributed to the Yankee attack although the big blows were struck by Hank Bauer, who hit two homers, and Gil McDougald and Bill Skowron, who also homered. Johnny Kucks, an All-Star pitcher, picked up an 11th win in relief.

Redlegs Increase Lead

The Cleveland Indians rocked four pitchers for 17 hits and scored 11 runs in the seventh inning to crush the Kansas City Athletics, 17-3, in the other AL game. Early Wynn gained credit for his 10th victory behind the Cleveland attack which included a three-run homer by the red-hot Jim Busby.

In the National league, the Cincinnati Redlegs took a one and a half game hold on first place when they scored three runs on only one hit in the seventh inning to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2, and provide All-Star hurler Joe Nuxhall with his sixth victory.

Monte Irvin's ninth-inning grand slam homer enabled the Chicago Cubs to defeat the Milwaukee Braves, 10-6.

Willie Jones' three-run double in the sixth gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 3-2 verdict after Don Newcombe pitched a fourth-hitter to give the Brooklyn Dodgers a 9-2 triumph. Jack Meyer won his sixth game in the nightcap after Newcombe breezed to his 11th in the opener.

The New York Giants hit four homers in one inning and seven in all—both totals one short of major league records—in beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11-1, but the Bucs came back to win the second game, 5-2. Ronnie Kline was the winning pitcher in the nightcap when the Pirates scored their fifth victory in their last 22 games.

RV Gals Beat Roseburg 9

Rogue Valley girls softball team, coming from behind with two runs in the fifth inning, tipped the Roseburg Lumberjills at Eagle Point yesterday.

Singles by Diane Tuttle and Arlene Hoffman and a double by Doris Hickson got the two markers.

Roseburg tallied in the first inning on two hits, a walk and a flyout and in the fourth on a single, two bases on balls and an error.

Pat Barron's triple and a wild pitch accounted for an RV fourth-inning marker. The home club also scored in the sixth on a bases on balls, stolen base and error.

The Rogue Valley team plays the Basinettes at Klamath Falls next Sunday and goes to Reno, Nev., on July 21. Action with Eugene is set for July 28 and the next week RV enters the state tourney.

Castellani Giambra Vie

New York — (U.P.) — Sharp shooting Yogi Giambra of Buffalo, N.Y., is favored at 7-5 to beat middleweight contender Rocky Castellani of Cleveland Friday night in their TV-radio 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Giambra is unranked but he is favored because he won eight of his last nine bouts and lost only to Bobo Olson last Aug. 26, when Olson was still middleweight ruler.

In three bouts this year, 24-year-old Giambra outpointed Al Andres and took two decisions over Johnny Sullivan of England. Twenty-year-old Castellani, ranked ninth among contenders, had only two bouts this year. He lost a decision to top-ranking Gene Fullmer and outpointed Johnny Sullivan on Feb. 24.

Giambra, the better puncher, has 24 kayoes in his 44-4-1 record. Castellani has only 13 knockouts in his 61-8-2 list.

Open Taken By Sanders

Montreal — (U.P.) — Young Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., first amateur ever to win the Canadian Open championship, said today he definitely "won't turn pro because I can't afford to."

He won the title in a sudden death playoff Sunday with Dow Finsterwald, Bedford Heights, Ohio, pro.

The 22-year-old salesman shot a par four on the dramatic 16th hole which spelled defeat for his two closest rivals, Finsterwald and Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., pro.
