Illinois Auditor's Questionable Use Of Money Studied

Springfield, Ill. — (U.P.) — An investigation into the Illinois state auditor's questionable use of about $500,000 in state checks threatened today to have possible effects on this fall's presidential election.

Gov. William G. Stratton waited today for Illinois Auditor Orville E. Hodge to comply with his "request" for doubling the auditor's surety bond of $50,000 within 20 days.

Looks For Replacement
Stratton was reported already looking for a suitable replacement to take over Hodge's duties. The auditor's office is under investigation by state, county and federal officials because of charges involving questionable use of about $500,000 worth of state checks.

The troubles arising within the Republican state administration raised the possibility that Stratton may have serious difficulty winning the state's electoral votes for President Eisenhower this fall.

Democrats are sitting tight as the investigations are carried out. But Illinois Democratic Chairman James Ronan called the charges against Hodge "a very good campaign issue."

Stratton also told Hodge to get off the Republican ballot or face a party supported candidate in the November election. Stratton himself, is a candidate for reelection.

Honeymoon Trip Appears Certain

New Haven, Conn. — (U.P.) — The planned honeymoon flight of Marilyn Monroe and Arthur Miller to Europe on Friday appeared certain today.

The actress and the playwright had been subpoenaed to testify July 23 in a negligent homicide case but it appeared today that the court would permit the newlyweds to make a deposition in the case instead of appearing in person.

The couple returned to Miller's home in Roxbury from New York Tuesday night and found the subpoena under the door. It had been left there by private investigator Guy Magliaro. Connecticut law does not require that a subpoena be served personally.

The Millers were subpoenaed to appear in Justice Court at Roxbury to testify about the death of reporter Mara Sherbatoff, New York correspondent for the French magazine Paris Match.

Miss Sherbatoff was killed June 29 when the car in which she was following the Millers' car to Roxbury for a news conference, smashed into a tree. Miller stopped his car to give aid. The couple was married later that night.

BAD UMPIRE DECISION?
Pendleton, Ind. — (U.P.) — The Reflector, inmate publication of the Indiana Reformatory, chose to ignore a big story, a riot at the prison July 1 in which nine persons were injured. The closest it came to commenting on the riot was a sports item saying a baseball game was interrupted on that day "due to unforeseen circumstances."

Dead line Sunday classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.
