

Braves' Buhl Beats Dodgers Again; Milwaukee Pulls Close To Redlegs

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Bob Buhl, a guy with the "Indian sign" on Brooklyn, fixed things today so that the Milwaukee Braves were giving Cincinnati the high sign that they're about ready to take over first place again in the National league.

Buhl took care of matters this way: He defeated the Dodgers for the fifth straight time Thursday night, 2-0, scattering six hits and pitching the Braves to within four percentage points of the pace-setting Redlegs, who bowed to the Phillies, 7-4.

Buhl's fine performance over the Dodgers earned him his 10th victory of the campaign just before a thunderstorm washed out what was scheduled to be the second game of a two-night doubleheader.

Cut Redlegs' Lead
Big Joe Adcock got the Braves started with his 13th home run in the fourth inning off Roger Craig—his fifth off Dodger pitching—and Milwaukee added an insurance run in the fifth when Eddie Mathews singled home Danny O'Connell.

Milwaukee's victory cut a full game off Cincinnati's lead, the Redlegs falling victim to a five-run rally by the Phillies in the ninth inning. Trailing Art Fowler 3-2 until the ninth, the Phils fashioned their outburst with a two-run double by Marv Blaylock and a two-run single by Elmer Valo. Southpaw Harvey Haddix, nicked for a two-run homer by Ed Bailey in the second inning, was credited with his seventh triumph.

Long Pounds Homer
Pittsburgh moved into fourth place by sweeping a doubleheader from Chicago, 2-1 and 5-4. Ronnie Kline posted his eighth victory in the opener as Bill Virdon homered for one run and Dal Long and Jack Shepard each doubled for the other. Ernie Banks' 22nd home run accounted for the Cubs' lone run. Long's first home run in more than a month broke a 4-all tie in the eighth inning of the nightcap and gained reliever Elroy Face his seventh triumph. Long also tripled with the bases full of loser Sam Jones in the third inning to drive in four runs in the finale.

Al Dark and Don Liddle, two ex-giants, teamed up to lead the Cardinals to a 5-3 decision over New York. Dark's sacrifice fly drove in the winning run while Liddle, who relieved starter Tom Poholsky, was credited with the victory. Stan Musial, Hank Thompson and Willie Mays each hit homers.

Yanks Extend Lead
In the American league, the Yankees lengthened their lead to 7½ games — largest margin of the year — in beating the Indians, 9-5, while the Red Sox defeated the second-place White Sox, 3-1.

Hank Bauer, who learned he was the father of an eight-pound, nine-ounce boy shortly after the game, delivered a pinch homer with the bases full, the first grand slam wallop of his career, to help Johnny Kucks nail down his 12th victory. Bauer's blow came off reliever Don Mossie and offset a three-run homer by Al Smith in the fourth.

Jim Piersall's two-run homer in the ninth inning gave the Red Sox their victory over the White Sox. Piersall's blow came off Jack Harshman, who had homered himself in the eighth to put Chicago ahead. Boston tied the score in the bottom of the eighth on Norm Zauchin's single and Billy Goodman's double. Leo Kieley was the winner in relief of Frank Sullivan.

Tigers Down Senators
Billy Hoelt pitched Detroit to a 4-2 victory over Washington with a neat four-hit effort. The Tigers hopped on loser Bob Wiesler for two runs in the first inning and then clinched matters with two more runs in the fourth. Jim Lemon homered for Washington.

Left hander Bill Wight of Baltimore turned in his first shutout of the year in blanking Kansas City, 4-0. Bob Nieman contributed a three-run homer off Art Ditmar for the Orioles, who snapped a four-game losing streak and took their 10th game in 12 meetings with the Athletics this season.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—NINE

Studs Have Coquille Scuffles This Week; Taylor, Steffen Gone

Two Cheney Studs baseballers have left their homes in California and Arizona. But the return of two squad members and the acquisition yesterday of a new infielder should make up for the loss as the Medford semi-pro contingent fights this week end to keep its place at the front of the Southern Oregon league race.

Outfielder and pitcher Terry Maddox and infielder Dick Toney are due back for the Studs' Saturday and Sunday three-game series at Coquille. Player Manager Jack Cooney and Business Manager Bill Askwith have negotiated the services of third baseman Jerry Bettendorf, ex-Drain player.

Outfielder Jim Steffen has left for his home in California and all-around player Jim Taylor has returned to Flagstaff, Ariz. Both left for personal reasons.

Medford was idle in the league last week end. The Studs maintained their knot for first place but did change company. Previously they shared the lead with Drain. Now Coquille and Coos Bay-North Bend are tied with the Studs.

First Half Ends
This week Medford plays Saturday afternoon and night and Sunday afternoon at Coquille. Bend is at North Bend for similar action. Drain has a bye.

Any one of the three leaders could have lone hold on first spot after this week end. And the fact that the Studs and Coquille are meeting each other means that one will be bounced from first place spot.

Saturday and Sunday conflicts wind up the first half of the season.
Manager Cooney said that he likely will call on Bob Selsor, Don White and Derald Wooton for pitching in the Logger series. He did not specify the order in which they may appear.

Whether Frank Roelandt will be able to handle the catching duties is a question. A home in his thumb was chipped last Sunday when the digit was struck by a ball. Roelandt may be able to wield a bat but the injury may hamper his throwing. He likely will go to Coquille but Tiger Bob Smith could get the backstop assignment.
Three From Bend
Cooney probably will be at

Hill Climb For Cyclists This Sunday

Rogue River Ramblers motorcycle club of Medford will host Sunday, July 15, for hill climb competition on the Don Mentzer ranch just off Mud Springs rd.

The event is scheduled for 2 p.m.
A trophy will be presented to the fastest rider.
Many local riders who have not tried climbing rivalry before are expected to turn out. The contest also should bring out a few riders with several years experience.

The hill has been worked over for this event. Riders will be sent off on a time schedule as the hill is long, is fairly steep and has a couple of dips.

Signs and arrows will direct riders and others interested from the Texaco station at Phoenix to the climb site. Signs will indicate the way to Pioneer rd. and arrows will point the direction. The climb will be an inter-club competition with riders expected from out of this area.
