

Local Couple United in Presbyterian Wedding

In one of Medford's largest summer weddings, held Sunday, July 8 in First Presbyterian church, Miss Margaret Lucile Huson became the bride of Kenneth L. Brown. The Rev. Dr. D. Kirkland West read the single ring ceremony at four in the afternoon, with about 400 guests present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darell Huson, 45 Lindley street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Brown, 1203 Queen Anne avenue, Medford.

For her wedding the bride was gown in white lace and tulle over taffeta, fashioned with long sleeves and full, floor-length hooped skirt. Her veil fell from a cap encircled with pearls and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white rosebuds. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Miss Laura Mae Huson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of green net and lace, styled ballerina length, and carried a colonial style bouquet of yellow daisies and stephanotis with matching head-band.

Bridesmaids were Misses Joan Lawson, Spokane, Wash., and Jeanne Holmes, San Carlos, Calif., sorority sisters of the bride, and Miss Nancy Jennings, Medford. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the maid of honor, and their bouquets and headbands were of pink daisies and stephanotis.

The candles were lighted by Misses Donna Witter and Barbara Roach, sorority sister of the bride. They wore gowns of yellow net and lace with wristlets of green daisies.

Donna Wright was flower girl. She wore a white frock and a halo of green and white.

Darrel Brown served as best man for his brother, and Robert Rice, Portland; Vaughn

Schmeck, Klamath Falls; and Douglas O. Wall, fiance of Miss Laura Mae Huson, Seattle, were ushers.

The church was decorated with small bouquets of pink and white gladioli at the pew ends and white tapers which formed a background for large white baskets of pink and white gladioli.

Wedding music was provided by Dr. Byron Arnold, uncle of the bride, organist, and Mrs. Charles Champlin, soloist. Dr. Arnold is organist for St. Luke's Episcopal church at Monrovia, Calif.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Huson wore a gown of blue satin and lace with white accessories and white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of pink lace over taffeta with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

A reception in the garden at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mrs. John Laird and Mrs. Ray Huson completed cutting the wedding cake, and Miss Elizabeth Burr and Mrs. Victor Sether poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Lawrence Buonocone, Miss Lorraine Landrud, Mrs. Robert Stone and Mrs. Anthony Timmer poured punch.

Miss Landrud is a sorority sister of the bride from Portland, and was a princess in the May queen court of which the bride was queen this year. Mrs. Stone is a sister of the bridegroom's mother, from Sonora, Calif., and Mrs. Timmer is a sister of the bridegroom's father from Modesto, Calif.

Those who assisted included Misses Karen Culbertson, Sylvia Morris, Claudia Hoover, Shirley Hopkins, Sue Donna and Rosemary Doolen, Nancy Becken and Sharon Laing, and Mrs. Don Wright, Mrs. A. L. James, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Culbertson.

Miss Darelyn Huson, younger sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book at the reception. She wore a frock of white nylon with bouffant skirt.

Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mrs. Fred Phillips, Mrs. C. C. Sater, Mrs. Charles Clemens and Mrs. Ray Huson arranged the flowers for the church and the reception.

Miss Nancy Jennings caught the bride's bouquet as it was tossed from the front porch of the Huson home.

For her traveling attire the new Mrs. Brown chose an aqua suit with black accessories. The couple will be at home at 1002 Murray street after a wedding trip to Lake of the Woods, San Francisco, Reno and Lake Tahoe.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and Willamette university. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority, and was very active in college. Some of her honors include being named Betty Co-ed, May queen and president of the Associated Women students. She was also a member of the college orchestra and choir, and held offices in her sorority. She will be employed this fall as an intermediate vocal music instructor for the Medford school system.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Medford High school. He served a tour of duty with the U.S. Navy, and has attended Oregon State college and Southern Oregon college, where he will resume his studies this fall. He is currently employed by Medford Meat company.

Among the wedding guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ina Huson, Medford, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mary L. Parks, Oakdale, Calif. Other out of town guests included an aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Robert Stone, her son, Larry, and grandson, Stephen Davis, all of Sonora, Calif.; two other aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Anthony Timmers and Mrs. Roger Clark, and her daughter, Peggy, all of Modesto; Roy Huson, uncle of the bride from Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Owen Lee and sons, Ronald and Donald from San Jose, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Al Schmeck and son, Vaughn, from Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald of Roseburg; and Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Grgich

Drummond-Grgich Mass Read In Santa Barbara Mission

Father Basil read the Nuptial Mass in the Santa Barbara Mission June 23 at 9:30 a.m. in which Miss Susan Clare Drummond and George Michael Grgich repeated their wedding vows. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Drummond of Ross lane, Mr. Grgich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grgich of San Pedro, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace. Her shoulder tip veil of illusion was held by a thin pearl wreath. She carried a white mother-of-pearl Bible and a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a pearl choker.

Miss Mary Lou Wetzel from

Millmont, Pa., a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a princess style dotted Swiss dress in lemon and carried a bouquet of white daisies with yellow satin streamers.

Fred Grgich, from San Pedro, served as his brother's best man. Large bouquets of white stock decorated the mission where more than 70 people witnessed the Mass.

A reception was held at the Santa Barbara Woman's Club immediately following the ceremony. The Garden Room was decorated with bouquets of white and yellow daisies, baby breath and white stock.

A white wedding cake, decorated with fragile daisies, was served. Mrs. L. C. Oberlies, grandmother of the bride from Tacoma, Wash., poured the coffee.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller, aunt and uncle of the bride, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schafer, Sacramento; and Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Fairweather of Medford.

Following a wedding trip to Santo Rosarito Beach and Encenada, Mexico, the couple are at home at 1316 West Valerio, Santa Barbara.

The bride, who is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and National College, Evanston, Ill., is a teacher in the Santa Barbara City schools. Mr. Grgich is attending the University of California at Santa Barbara and is supervisor of delinquents at the Santa Barbara juvenile hall.

Red and white gladioli in bouquets and lighted candles decorated the church.

Mrs. Jack Ragsdale, sister-in-law of the bride, served as maid of honor. Best man was Jack Ragsdale, brother of the bride. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

After a wedding trip to Mt. Lassen National park, Calif., the couple are at home at 513 Palm street.

Visiting the Frank S. Shaw, 641 Pine street, recently were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Gleason and daughters, Linda, Susie, and July of Albany, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'ford Jr., and sons, Lynn, Gene and Steve of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams of Glens Ferry, Idaho, Mrs. Williams is a cousin of Mrs. Shaw; and another cousin, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Long and family; and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Boitano and son all of Portland.
