Directors Discuss Therapy at Meeting

Dr. Harry K. Danielson, psychiatrist, discussed ways of making the most effective use of available time and pointed out some of the benefits of group therapy at a meeting of the Jackson County Child Guidance Clinic association board of directors Monday.

Dr. Danielson will divide his time between duties as district psychiatrist with the state board of health and private practice in Medford.

He said he hopes to establish group therapy at the clinic here. Dr. Danielson will be at the local clinic daily Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. He noted that only Jackson and Klamath counties in this district are using direct clinical services, but hopes to help Josephine and Douglas counties in setting up such services.

323 Persons May Be Tried for Part In Polish Revolt

London — (AP) — Communist Poland's public prosecutor indicated today that 323 persons may be brought to trial for their part in the workers "Bread and Freedom" uprising in Poznan.

He also disclosed in an interview with the official Polish news agency PAP that the death toll in the revolt which flared June 28 in the big industrial city reached 53. Warsaw previously had set the official toll at 38.

Marian Rybicki, prosecutor general of the Polish Peoples Republic, said that more than 300 persons were injured in the fighting and that 127 were still hospitalized.

The interview was broadcast by Radio Warsaw and monitored in London.

The uprising, touched off by workers' complaints against low working and living standards, finally was crushed by Polish army tanks and troops.

Rybicki admitted that some of the demands of the rioting workers were "largely justified." He said that investigations conducted into the disorders distinguished between workers who participated "under the influence of dissatisfaction at the fact that their largely-justified demands had not been settled" and "adventurers, criminal elements and provocateurs."

A joint government-Communist party commission was set up by the Red regime in Warsaw to investigate the riots and single out those responsible.

Rybicki said that certain groups were "inspired by sources which are alien and hostile to Poland." But he made no reference to the "American espionage agents" whom Warsaw and Moscow have blamed for igniting the rioting.
