

Valdes Hurls Bevos to 6-0 Win; Bilko Slaps Homers 40 and 41

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Portland's Bevo Valdes Saturday blanked the Hollywood Stars for the second time this year, 6-0, holding the losers to six hits.

Valdes (13-7) went the distance for the win which gave the sixth-place Bevers the series, three games to two. Bob Purkey (6-2) was charged with the loss.

Jack Littrell led off Portland's scoring in the second inning when he hit his 10th home run of the year over the left field fence. It was his third homer, however, in the last three games.

Portland logged five more runs in the seventh frame. Singles by Ed Basinski and Valdes and a walk by Tom Saffell led the bases. A run was forced in when Dick Young was hit in the back by a pitched ball and a three-run double by Luis Marquez cleared the bases. Marquez scored on an error.

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Bulky Steve Bilko walloped his 40th and 41st home runs of the season Saturday to lead Los Angeles to a 4-2 victory over San Francisco.

Big Steve blasted number 40 into the rightfield bleachers in the fourth frame to put the Angels out in front 1-0. He connected again in the eighth this time belting one over the left field fence at the foul line. The second round-tripper came with Gayle Wade on base.

The Angels got their other run in the eighth when Casey Wise got life on Max Surkont's error, went to third on Gene Mauch's single and came in as Wade forced Mauch at second.

The Seals, who dropped the series one game to three, battled back to knot the score in the fifth at 1-1 when Larry Dippio lashed a double and scored on a single by Gordy Windhorn.

They got their other run in the eighth when Marty Keough singled in pinch hitter Eddie Sadowski who had walked.

Bilko's blasts were his first of the series here, though he missed a homer by inches last night when he belted one against the right field wall. He now needs 19 to tie the PCL record of 60 set in 1925 by Tony (Poosh'em) up) Lazzeri with Salt Lake during a 200-game season. Bilko has 62 games yet to play.

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.) — A three-run homer by Rocky Colavito and a two-run homer by Dick Sisler sparked the San Diego Padres to an 11-5 win over the Vancouver Mounties in a Pacific Coast League contest at Lane field, Saturday.

The victory gave San Diego the series, 3-2.

San Diego scored four runs in the second on two doubles, two singles, a walk, a sacrifice fly and an infield hit.

Johnny Jorgensen hit his sixth homer of the season in the third inning for a Vancouver tally.

The Padres picked up two more runs in the third when Dick Sisler hit his ninth homer of the year, scoring behind Rocky Colavito, who had gotten aboard on a walk.

San Diego collected four more runs in the sixth. Colavito slammed out his three-run homer and Kazak and Sisler followed with successive doubles to make it 11-2.

Bucs Give 1st Loss To Brooks Lawrence

By United Press

Bob Clemente slammed a three-run home run in the ninth inning today to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs and hand Pitcher Brooks Lawrence his first defeat of the season after 13 wins.

Lawrence, the top hurler in the Major Leagues, had a 3-1 lead going into the ninth and had given up only three hits.

But Lee Walls and Frank Thomas connected for singles and Clemente walloped a pitch into the right-center field corner of the bleachers for his fourth home of the year. Thomas had singled home the Pirates' first run.

In another National League day game, the St. Louis Cardinals crushed the Brooklyn Dodgers, 13-6, under a 20-hit attack that included homers by Hank Sauer, Stan Musial, and Hal Smith. Sandy Amoros and Rube Walker homered for the Dodgers.

In the only American League day game played, the Boston

Red Sox banged out 14 hits to beat Detroit, 9-3, for Frank Sullivan's ninth victory. Ted Williams drove in four of the Sox runs. It was Sullivan's 11th straight win over the Tigers.

Kansas City at New York in the A.L. and New York at Chicago in the N.L. were rained out.

In a day game at Milwaukee, the Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia Phillies were tied, 5-5, at the end of 12 innings.

Ed Mathews, Bob Rosell, and Johnny Logan had hit homers for the Braves. Going into the 13th inning, relief pitcher Bob Miller of the Phils and Lou Sleather of the Braves were dueling.

Cleveland beat Baltimore, 4-3, in the first game of a two-night doubleheader on Vic Wertz' two-run home in the eighth inning.

In another A.L. night game, Chicago led Washington, 3-2, after 2 1/2 innings.

Portland Beavers Pull Triple Play

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Dick Smith scored the winning run on Carlos Bemier's fourth single Friday night as Hollywood nipped Portland, 5-4, to even their series at two games each.

Bob Garber (4-1) emerged the winner, and Bob Darnell (10-7), who went the distance, was tabbed for the loss.

Portland pulled a triple play in the third inning and in the fourth came through with four runs to take a 3-2 lead.

The Stars bounced back to tie the game in the fifth when Jacobs, after singling and being sacrificed to second, scored on a double by Danny Kravitz.

The Stars put the game on ice in the eighth with two runs, the decisive tally being scored by Smith.

Anthony Stops Johnson in 10th

New York — (U.P.) — Slender Tony Anthony of New York, a so-called "tissue-paper pug," began maneuvering toward a light-heavyweight title shot because of the durability he displayed Friday night while stopping tough Tony Johnson in the 10th round at Madison Square Garden.

Instead of collapsing under head and body punishment as he had done four times previously in his career, 21-year-old Anthony came fighting back in a fashion to make the TV-radio bout lopsided until he scored a technical knockout at 1:36 of the tenth.

New Yorker Johnson weighed 175 pounds to Anthony's 170.

Ski Lift Project Ceremonies Today At Mt. Shasta

Mt. Shasta, Calif. — Start of work on the Mt. Shasta ski lift program will be observed here today at 11 a.m.

Leading political figures from this area will join with civic leader and representatives of public agencies in hour-long ceremonies at the foot of the mountain.

Mrs. Henry Rothe of Sacramento has been invited to take part in the ceremonies. She is the widow of Forest Supervisor John Everett Rothe, who lost his life in a forest fire about 20 years ago. The mountain road will bear his name.

State Senator Randolph Collier, Yreka, will be master of ceremonies while Superior Judge James M. Allen, also of Yreka, will be the principal speaker.

Plans call for casting of roses on the site from where 14 miles of road are to be rebuilt to where the first section of the lift will start.

The 26-foot wide road is to be completed late next year. The first lift is to be in use by late 1958 and the second one by late 1959. All buildings and facilities however, are not scheduled for completion until the fall of 1960.

Michael Allen Wins Marathon

Culver City, Calif. — (U.P.) — Army distance runner Michael Allen, of Ft. Lewis, Wash., captured the ninth annual Western Hemisphere Marathon here "by racing over the 26-mile course in 2 hours, 40 minutes and 49 seconds.

He broke the tape only two seconds ahead of Sy Villa, of the East Los Angeles Olympians. Donald Wyman, of the San Diego Track and Field association, was third with a time of 3:02.27.

Only eight of the 21 starters finished the race. Robert Cons, of the Culver City Athletic club, who set the present hemisphere record of 2:32.46, dropped out of the race at 25 miles because of heat prostration.

Monty Victory Rally Sparked

By JOHN McDONALD
United Press Sports Writer

In a day of power baseball, the big inning and the home run, shrewd old Lefty O'Doul, dean of Pacific Coast league managers, will still beat you with brains and brazen base running if you give him an inch.

O'Doul's Vancouver Mounties loaded the bases in the ninth Friday night with the score knotted at 3-3. Lefty flashed the steal sign and Angelo Dages sped across the plate on the front end of the triple steal.

Three More Runs

The Mounties went on to score three more runs in the frame

Anne Quast Defeats Lesser for Golf Title

Hungtington, W. Va. — (U.P.) — Medalist Anne Quast, finishing as hot as her record-breaking start, defeated defending champion Pat Lesser, 4-3, Saturday to win the 56th Women's Western Amateur Golf tournament.

The 18-year-old University of Washington sophomore, youngest girl ever to win the tournament, gained revenge for three previous defeats by Miss Lesser, who also won the National Amateur last year.

Miss Quast, of Everett, Wash., went ahead to stay on the 210-yard 25th hole on the scheduled 36-hole match when she sank a 10-foot putt for a birdie two.

Hot putting and cool nerve kept her ahead of her 22-year-old Seattle, Wash., opponent the rest of the way.

The match closed on the 27th

Colt Breaks Record Set By Swaps

Inglewood, Calif. — (U.P.) Count of Honor, a colt that made his first start at the races only five weeks ago, raced to an easy win by a better than three lengths Saturday in the $87,250 Westerner at Hollywood park for his fifth straight victory.

The son of Count Fleet not only ran in a mile and a quarter race for the first time in his brief career but his time of 1:59-2/5 broke the mark for the stakes set last year by the great Swaps.

And Count of Honor had hardly crossed the finish line when the crowd of 50,000 fans immediately tabbed him as another Swaps. The record for the Westerner set last year was 2:00-3/5 by Swaps but it was a question whether Swaps won any more easily than Count of Honor did Saturday.

Social Climber, a stretch-rung son of Your Host, closed from far off the pace to finish second while Terrang was third and Count Chic was fourth in the field of 11 colts.

The nation's leading Stakes rider, Eddie Arcaro, flew here from New York to ride Count of Honor in the Westerner after Johnny Longden, who had ridden him to four straight wins, was suspended last week and Gene had to give up the mount.

Hank Aaron Gives Punch To Braves

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves get great pitching from just about anybody Fred Haney calls on, but it's Hank Aaron who gives them their day-to-day "punch."

Only 22 years old, the slender Aaron has developed into the "solid man" of the team Joe Adcock, Ed Mathews and Johnny Logan break out in rashes of hits at times but Aaron keeps driving toward what he believes will be his first National league batting title.

Aaron has been belting the ball at a .455 clip this month. In the last 21 games he has lifted his average from .293 to a league-leading .337 mark.

Hank was at it again Friday night when the Braves drubbed the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-0, behind Bob Buhl's two-hitter. Hank smashed a two-run homer and collected two other hits to drive in a total of four runs in pacing the Braves to their 10th win in 11 games.

and then held off a San Diego rally to turn back the Pads 7-5.

O'Doul has had to beat 'em on brains with his weak-hitting last-place Mounties most of the campaign. But don't give up on Lefty yet. With a revamped infield and steeper pitching the Mounties have now copped eight of their last 12 games. With Lefty "out-guessing 'em" they could pull themselves out of the PCL cellar yet.

Company A Subdues Yreka Guard; Softballers Bill Practice Tiffs

Jackson County Softball association teams have practice games this week and play-offs for the loop championship are planned for the following week, League Secretary Willard Barnum reported yesterday.

He said he intends to meet with team managers this week to discuss the play-off arrangements.

Under the play-off plan contemplated by Barnum, National Guard and McCulloch Chain Saw would meet in a two-out-of-three game series. Winner of that would meet Chris in a similar series. Winner of the second set of eliminations then would take on Walt's Lithia Motors in two of three.

Walt's finished at the top of the regular season standings without a loss, Chris finished second, McCulloch third and the Guard fourth.

Walt's and the Chain Saw gang will have practice engagements Monday at 6 p.m. at the senior high stadium. The Lithia nine will scrap Bill's 99 Chevron service and McCulloch will take on YMCA.

Medford's National Guard club, which represents Company A of the 18th Infantry regiment, defeated a Yreka Guard crew 11 to 9 at Yreka, Calif., Friday night. Two runs in the ninth inning broke a 9-all deadlock. Denny Burns singled. Then Jack Burns singled and the ball got away through center field for an error and both runs scored.

Pitcher Don Vessey held the Californians to three hits over the last five innings in a fine relief role. Luther Fisher, the Medford team's fastballer, started on the hill but had trouble, giving up five hits and four bases on balls in the first two innings as Yreka got four runs in each of the frames.

Jack Burns got two hits in two times up and Denny Burns, Ned Landers Bill Matejka, Dick Phillips and Fisher also slapped two hits apiece for the Medford Guard.

Indifference Of Olympic Group Hit

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — One time Olympic skating star Hayes Alan Jenkins, Friday blamed indifference of the American Olympic Committee for what he termed "woefully weak" preparation for the Olympic games.

Jenkins, holder of four world skating titles and an Olympic crown, was in Portland for appearances of the Holiday on Ice show in which he stars as a professional.

He branded a recent statement by Olympic President Avery Brundage, that amateurs even thinking of going professional should be barred from the Olympics, as "ridiculous and old-fashioned."

"I hate to see amateurs discouraged from continuing in their own sports because of a ridiculous ruling such as that," he said.

Jenkins said "I qualified for the last Olympics in March, nearly 11 months before the games. Not once, until we assembled in New York, did I ever get a letter, training instructions or so much as a 'hi' from the Olympic committee."

He added, "when you see the elaborate preparations made by other countries, it makes you wonder what our committee is doing."

The figure skating ace, who is a Phi Beta Kappa at Colorado College, will enter Harvard law school this fall.

Sportscribes Not Forced to Wear Tuxes

Toronto — (U.P.) — Promoter Jack Solomons Saturday denied he would force sports writers to wear tuxedos at the Archie Moore-James Parker fight here Wednesday night.

But writers who fail to turn out in sartorial splendor risk the curled lip and raised eyebrows of scorn if they don't conform.

Toronto sportswriters were not phased when told tactfully "it would be nice" if they donned white or black tuxedos, black bow ties and black cummerbunds for the 15-round heavyweight bout.

Sports scribes in the United States, however, were a mite flabbergasted.

New York writers at first guffawed at the "dress after six" order.

"It won't go six," said one.

"That's not what it means," explained another. "It means you gotta wear soup and fish at the ringside."

"Nertz!" said the other. English promoter Solomons, making his debut in Canada, hastened to assure the press corps that the dress for the fight was optional.

"I would be delighted if the sports writers and the fans in the first 15 rows would show up in dress clothes," he said.

"It would be like a first nighter at the opening of a play on Broadway or London if those in the 20 seats and writers were dressed in dinner jackets and evening gowns."

The scribes are expected to slip into their ringside seats in full fashion.

Smith, Brown Fry Rescheduled

New Orleans — (U.P.) — The world lightweight title fight between champion Wallace (Bud) Smith and Joe Brown, scheduled for Friday, Aug. 24 so as not to conflict with the All-Star football game in Chicago between the College All-Stars and the defending National Football League champion Cleveland Browns.

Toronto sportswriters were not phased when told tactfully "it would be nice" if they donned white or black tuxedos, black bow ties and black cummerbunds for the 15-round heavyweight bout.

Rock Will Cover Moore Fracas

Toronto — (U.P.) — Former heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano will "cover" the heavyweight fight between Archie Moore and James J. Parker next Wednesday for the Toronto Telegram. Marciano agreed to take the job Friday after obtaining clearance from his doctor to make the trip. The former champion has been laid up in recent weeks with a back injury.

Bob Miller Back With Tiger Club

Detroit — (U.P.) — Lefty Bob Miller, who celebrated his 21st birthday six days ago, was back with the parent Detroit Tigers Saturday. The six-one, 175-pound pitcher was sent to Charleston in the American association in June. Pitcher Duke Maas and infielder Buddy Hicks were sent to Charleston in Miller's place. Maas on 24-hour recall and Hicks on outright release.

Thirty of the states require physical examinations and blood tests before issuing marriage licenses.

Italy Near Cup Victory

Baastad, Sweden — (U.P.) — Italy needed only a victory in doubles Saturday to clinch the European zone Davis Cup tennis finals and the right to meet the winner of the American zone eliminations.

Singles victories by Nicola Pietrangeli and Giuseppe Merlo Friday gave Italy a commanding 2-0 lead in the best-of-five series. Italy is the defending zone champion. The series concludes with a doubles match today and a pair of singles matches tomorrow.

The winner of the match between the European and American zone champions will meet India, champion of the Eastern zone, and the winner of that match will challenge cup-holding Australia for the famous trophy in Australia, Dec. 26-28.
