

Jones-Matthews Exchange Vows in Garden Setting

The garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Kellington, 87 Perrydale ave., was the scene of the wedding July 14 of Miss Kathleen Jones and Glenn Matthews. The Rev. George A. Trobaugh of the First Methodist church presided.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin R. Jones, 208 Hamilton street. She is employed as a medical technician at Emanuel hospital in Eugene. The bridegroom is presently attending the University of Oregon where he is completing work for a doctor's degree in music. Mrs. Kellington is the bride's aunt.

The bride wore a pale aqua afternoon dress with white accessories and a pale pink corsage. Mrs. Jerry Abbott was matron of honor, and Hugh Simpson was best man. The bride's father gave his daughter in marriage. David and Bruce Kellington, cousins of the bride, ushered.

Two baskets of regal lilies arranged by Mrs. Lena Roseberry, the bride's grandmother from Berkeley, Calif., were used as background for the bridal party. At a reception following the ceremony the bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake baked and decorated by her mother.

After a trip along the California coast and to San Francisco the couple will return to Portland to make their home.

Local Parties Honor Bride Elect

Miss Eleanor Bragg, fiancée of Thomas Spatz, was entertained at a party given by Mrs. Maurice Spatz, July 12 to introduce her to local friends of the family. More than 45 guests attended.

The table, covered with white lace and accented with silver, held a white tiered mock wedding cake fashioned of galettes designed by Mrs. Frank Farrell. The room was decorated with the assistance of Mrs. Harold Jordan who used flowers from the local gardens to fashion bouquets and flower arrangements. Tucked into some of the baskets and plants were eggshell doves, brought from Mexico by Mrs. Farrell.

Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. Walter Muirhead, and Mrs. Ward Spatz assisted with the serving.

Miss Bragg, a graduate of Northwestern university, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bragg, Thomas Bragg, a graduate of the University of Oregon, is superintendent of the family orchards. An August 4 wedding is planned.

July 19 Miss Bragg was again honored at a brunch given by Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson and Mrs. Walter Muirhead. The brunch, served at the Colony club, was a miscellaneous shower for the bride elect and some 30 friends attended.

Monthly Meeting
The Evans Valley Garden club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Goldt, West Evans Creek road. A dessert luncheon will be served. A guest speaker will discuss insecticides.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hess (Elsie and Roland Wolfe Photo)

June California Rites Told for Vogler-Hess

Miss Valera Ann Vogler became the bride of William Arthur Hess at a double ring ceremony June 24 in the Los Altos Methodist Community church in Los Altos, Calif.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vogler of Los Altos. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Hess, Medford.

The Rev. Charles Cox officiated at the 3 p.m. service that was held in the church decorated with baskets of white gladioli, green fern, and white tapers in candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white imported Swiss eyelid organza. Her shoulder length veil fell from a crown of satin and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of lilies of the valley, variegated ivy and stephanotis.

For something borrowed, the bride carried a lace and linen handkerchief which had been carried by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding. The handkerchief had been a gift from a friend who had originally brought it from France.

Miss Charleen Vogler of Lacrosse, Wash., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was of white flocked nylon over powder blue taffeta, satin binding accented the bodice. She carried white carnations and blue delphiniums.

Dave Relling, classmate of the bridegroom from Lodi, Calif., was best man. Ushering were C. C. Leonard of Medford, and James Coop of Oakland.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden at the Vogler home. Rose and pink asters and gladioli decorated the area, with the bride's table covered with white gladioli and ivy.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vogler wore a navy blue lace dress over taffeta accented with powder blue and navy accessories. Mrs. Hess wore pink lace over taffeta with navy blue accessories. Their corsages were cymbidium orchids.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Leonard, and Mrs. Virginia Wait, all of Medford; Mrs. K. Vogler, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vogler and family, all of Lacrosse, Wash., and Mrs. J. W. Cooper and daughter, Dale, and Mrs. Bea Whitehead, of Oakland, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seegmiller, grandparents of the bridegroom.

The bride chose for her traveling attire a silk suit of blue with white and navy accessories. After a trip to Santa Barbara, Calif., the couple are at home at 3053 Emerson, Palo Alto.

Miss Vogler attended San Jose State college, and is a graduate of Washington State college. She is employed as a department sales manager for Emporium in Stanford. Mr. Hess attended Willamette University and is a graduate of Washington State College school of veterinary medicine. He is employed by the Dr. Devine Animal Clinic in San Jose.

Swim Party and Supper Honors Vanderlindens
A swimming party and patio supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Milnes Monday evening honored Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Vanderlinden and children, Mark, Rebecca, Lane and Trudy Kay.

The Vanderlindens are moving soon to Camp Pendleton, Calif., where Mr. Vanderlinden will be stationed with the First Marine division.

Present at the party were Mrs. Carrie Milnes; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson and children, Donald and Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. George Watson; Mr. and Mrs. Vanderlinden and children; and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Milnes and children, Gregg and Vickie Lee.

Visits Here
Staff Sgt. Clarence Young, his wife, Virginia, and their two children, visited with the sergeant's mother, Mrs. Lillian Young, 257 Beatty street, and with Mrs. Young's father, Floyd Nielsen, Ashland, this month before leaving for Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., where he is stationed with the Air Force. Sergeant Young has just returned from Labrador, Goose Neck air base, after serving as a jet mechanic there for one year.

Mother and Daughter Leave For Germany
Mrs. Jack Coffeen, 106 Stewart avenue, and her mother, Mrs. Leona Helgeson of South Grace, left for New York Monday evening where they caught their ship to Germany Friday. The mother and daughter, who will be gone approximately one year, will stay with Pfc. Jack L. Coffeen, husband of Mrs. Coffeen, and Sgt. Jack Helgeson, son of Mrs. Helgeson.

Coffeen, who is with the infantry in the radar section, and Helgeson, who is with the Army engineers, are both stationed in Germany.

Visits Parents
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wagner, 112 Cottage st., have as their house guests their daughter, Mrs. J. S. Johnson, and her four children, from San Diego, Calif. Mrs. Johnson, who attended the Medford public schools, plans to spend two weeks here.

Refenbark Wedding Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Refenbark announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Ann, to Leonard C. Hudson of Crescent City. The wedding was performed at 1 p.m. July 18, by the Rev. G. A. Trobaugh at the Refenbark home, 1131 Pinecroft ave., Medford.

Present for the ceremony were immediate families of the couple. Mrs. Al Muse, Trail, was matron of honor, while the brother of the bridegroom, Kenneth, served as best man.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a trip to the Oregon coast.

Naval Officer Visits Here

Commander J. D. P. Hodapp Jr., officer-in-charge of Indian Island annex naval ammunition depot, Bangor, Wash., for the past three years, was an overnight guest with Mrs. Hodapp, at the home of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swan of Eagle Point, July 13.

Commander Hodapp, who has been assigned as naval advisor to Chinese National Defense college at Taipei, Taiwan (Formosa) leaves here for Washington, D.C., where he will receive two weeks temporary duty under the Chief of Naval Operations.

The Hodapps expect to sail from San Francisco August 23 on board the USS General Mann, arriving in Formosa September 9.

Dr. Balcomb Again Northwest Winner In Sermon Contest

For the second consecutive year Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb of the First Methodist Church, Medford, has been a winner in Methodist Bishop Grant's sermon contest for the Northwest. Dr. Balcomb's sermon, "When There Was No King," originally preached in Medford last January, was second among three chosen to be preached at the annual pastor's school to be held at the College of Puget Sound during the week of July 23. Dr. Balcomb will preach on the evening of Wednesday, July 25.

Returns Home From Convention
Miss Celia Clogston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clogston, 1840 Stage road, returned July 14 from the east after attending the Zeta Tau Alpha international convention in Springlake, N.J. June 18-24.

Miss Clogston, a delegate to the convention from the University of Oregon, visited with Miss Priscilla Zeif, formerly of Medford, who is president of the University of Colorado Zeta chapter, while there.

After spending some time in New York following the convention Miss Clogston, and a friend, Miss Pat Aringer of Springfield, Ore., visited in Washington, D.C., New Orleans, Long Beach, and San Francisco, before returning home. Miss Clogston will be a senior at the University of Oregon this fall.

Returns From Mexico Visit and Wedding
Miss Mildred Gail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Gail of Gold Hill, has returned home after a visit with friends in Mexico.

Miss Gail left Gold Hill in early June to be maid of honor at the wedding of her friend, Miss Catherine Hartneus, in San Francisco. Following the ceremony she drove with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hartneus and their son, Teter, to Ajijic, Mexico, approximately 36 miles from Guadalajara.

A sophomore in college, Miss Gail will return to the University of Washington this fall.

MEETING PLANNED
The Pythian Club will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Joe Cook, 124 King street with Mrs. Ida Ireland assisting.

FOOTLIGHTER REHEARSAL—Jerry McDougall and Noreen Kelly take a break during a rehearsal of the Footlighters' coming play "Late Love." Miss Kelly has the lead role and McDougall plays opposite her in the production. A special feature of the five day run July 24 through 28, will be the display of contemporary paintings in the theater lobby by local artists of the Academy of Creative Arts. Mrs. Max Winmer, president of the theater group, and Bill McCorkle, secretary of the academy, announced recently that works by seven local painters will be included in the exhibit. Playgoers can view them before and after the performances and during intermissions. (L. E. McMurray Photo)

Schmelzer-Garner Rites Held In First Presbyterian Church

Miss Shirley Eileen Schmelzer and John Robert Garner exchanged vows at the First Presbyterian church July 12 at 6 p.m. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the single ring ceremony witnessed by immediate families of the couple.

Miss Schmelzer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schmelzer, Route 1, Box 443-E, Medford. Mr. Garner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Garner, 226 Welch street.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace street length dress and a small hat of white violets. Her corsage was of pink roses. She also wore a pearl necklace, a gift from her brother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Harold Schmelzer, sister-in-law of the bride. Charles Garner, brother of the bridegroom served as best man.

A reception was given by the parents of the bride at their home following the ceremony. Pink and white gladioli and white daisies decorated the room where 55 guests congratulated the couple.

After a wedding trip through California and Nevada, the couple are at home at 219 Mistletree street.

Mrs. Pysher Here To Complete Plans For Convention

Mrs. Oma Pysher, Portland, state president of the Oregon Licensed Practical Nurses association, will arrive in Medford July 24 to assist in completing plans for the OLPNA convention that is to be held in the Jackson hotel October 3 and 4.

Mrs. Pysher will remain here for a few days to visit places around the valley. The association is expecting 200 to 300 persons here for the convention.

Fry diced chicken livers in deep-fat after they have been dipped in salt, flour and sugar.

Visitors Entertained By Friends

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Staples, former Medford residents, returned Monday evening for a visit with their many friends in the area. While here they were entertained by the Warren Olsons on Euclid avenue for dinner, Tuesday a luncheon at Mrs. Frank Perl's, 136 North Oakdale avenue, and that evening a dinner by the William Findleys of Old Stage road and the William M. McAllisters of Hillcrest road.

A luncheon by the Fred J. Carrs on Florence avenue, and a dinner party by Jerry P. Tobins, 1435 Euclid avenue, were given in honor of the guests on Wednesday. Thursday the couple were entertained at cocktails at the Hugh Colemans, 1806 East Main street with co-hosts the R. A. Miksches. Mrs. E. A. Littrell gave a tea Friday for the visitors during the afternoon with a dinner scheduled that evening at the Jack Crawford home on Main street.

The Staples, who were associated with the Hamlin Motor company in Medford, has previously planned to remain for a few more days. They were unexpectedly called to their home in Upton, Calif., for business reasons.

Holds Card Party
The Gettogether Club will hold a card party at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Moose Hall. The public is invited to attend.

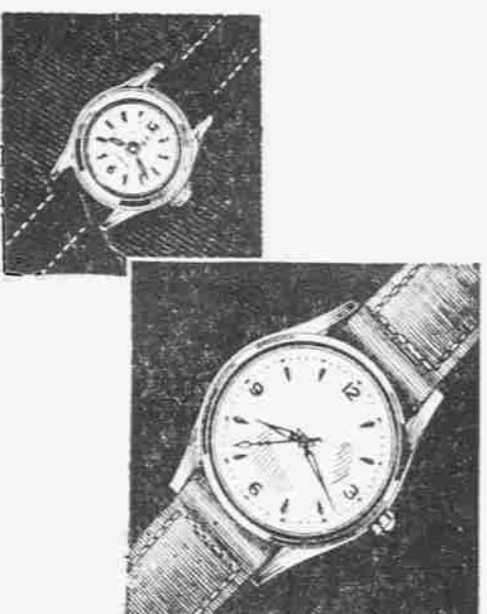

Pre-Moving SALE

- BASQUES values to $10 $500
- BRAS values to $3.50 $100
- GIRDLES values to $6.95 $100

Idah M. Wood
"Graduate Corsetiere"
"For Foundations of Dependable Quality and Value"
526 EAST MAIN
At Bert Pree's

WATCH FOR OUR OPENING DATE At JEAN HART'S

It's from Prophecy's Medford
Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths
New Shipment
just in time for a
Pear Harvest SPECIAL

Alsta Watches

- Lifetime Main Spring
- Concealed Crown
- Water Resistant
- Radion Hands and Dial

Men's $22.50
Women's $33.75

Prophecy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, OREGON
Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century

FUR STORAGE
NEW, MODERN VAULT
Cleaning, Glazing, Remodeling
Frances' Furs
Formerly Franca Dallaire
1100 Crater Lake Ave.
Telephone Remains 2-6526

WHY PAY MORE FOR... Quality printing Developing

Reg. or Size King
REPRINTS 5c
8 Exposure Roll...
39c
PENNYWISE 323 E. Main

Only 8 Days to SAVE on glamorous Gorham sterling

ALL ITEMS IN ALL PATTERNS SHOWN

Lawrence's SOUTHERN OREGON'S FINEST SILVERSMITHS!

Start or fill in your set NOW of Gorham Sterling flat silver at TODAY'S LOW PRICES. Anticipate the weddings, anniversary and birthday gifts that must be bought. Higher costs of services and supplies will increase the price of Gorham Sterling flat silver on August 1st.

All Orders, including mail and phone orders, received by July 30th will be filled at present low prices.

Pattern prices shown are for a six-piece place-setting; knife, fork, teaspoon, salad fork, soup spoon, spreader and include Federal Tax.

Buy On Our Budget Plan • No Carrying Charge

LAWRENCE'S
YOUR SILVER STORE
Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches Tool
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908