

Braves Win Close One Again To Up Lead in National to 3 1/2

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

There is no better way to win a national than by one run.

That's Manager Fred Haney's motto, and he has shown it by leading the Kansas City Athletics to a 17-14 mark in the National League today. The Athletics' lead in the National League is now 3 1/2 games over the Cincinnati Reds, who were defeated by the Athletics 1-0 today.

The Athletics' victory was a close one, as they won by a 1-0 record in one-run decisions compared to the Cincinnati Reds' 17-14 mark in the National League today. The Athletics' lead in the National League is now 3 1/2 games over the Cincinnati Reds, who were defeated by the Athletics 1-0 today.

John's first 15-game winner of the current season and matched his 1935 victory total when the Chicago White Sox pounded out an 11-5 verdict over the American League-leading New York Yankees. Larry Doby led the White Sox' 14-hit assault with a single, double and homer that drove in four runs. Tom Sturdivant was the loser.

The Cleveland Indians erupted to win 8-1 against the Yankees when they walloped the Washington Senators 11-0. Mike Garcia pitched a three-hitter for his third shutout of the year against the Senators. Rocks Cozart drove in three runs with a triple and two singles.

Mickey Vernon's two-run, bottom-inning homer enabled the Boston Red Sox to slide the Kansas City Athletics 3-2 for their third straight win. Relief pitcher Ike Delock received credit for his seventh win while Wally Burette suffered his first major league defeat after two triumphs.

Truples by Willie Miranda and Dick Williams paced the Baltimore Orioles to an 11-5 victory after the Detroit Tigers won the opener of the 10-night doubleheader 9-7 with the aid of homers by Al Kaline, Frank Horner and Charles Maxwell. The Orioles' win snapped a five-game losing streak.

The Dodgers opened a key home stand with a narrow 1-0 extra base blow that gave them a 10-5 decision over the second-place Red Sox. Sam Amos knocked in five runs with two triples and a double and Duke Snider hit his 22nd and 23rd homers as the Dodgers kayped homeless Johnny Klippstein. Sam Maglie pitched 14 hits but went the distance for his third triumph.

The Philadelphia Phillies routed Vinegar Bend Mizell in a six-run, sixth-inning rally to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 7-3. Curt Simmons delivered a two-run double in the big rally and beat the Redbirds for the third time this season although touched for 12 hits. Catcher Andy Seminick also delivered a bases-filled single in the six-run upturn.

Roberto Clemente knocked in four runs with a homer triple and sacrifice fly as the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Chicago Cubs 6-2. Bonnie Kline pitched up his fifth win although he needed help from Howie Pollet in the eighth while Bob Rush suffered his fourth loss against eight victories.

Billy Pierce became the major league's 100th pitcher to win 100 games today when he defeated the Cincinnati Reds 1-0.

SLIDES THROUGH FLAMES—Bud McRae does the "Slide for Life" through flaming gasoline. McRae, famous Hollywood stunt man is one of the many stars of the "Tournament of Thrills" show slated for Thursday night, 8 p.m., at the Sheriff's posse grounds here. More than twenty other spectacular events make up the two-hour show. It will visit Medford for a one night stand as part of a nationwide tour. The Junior Chamber of Commerce announced that refreshments will be available at a concession booth on the grounds.

Tournament of Thrills Thursday Night at Posse Grounds Track

The "Tournament of Thrills" will be in Medford for a one night stand on Thursday, July 26.

Movie and television stuntmen will be seen in person starting at 8 p.m. at the sheriff's posse grounds on Stage rd. northwest of Medford.

Pitt Will Shun Pitt Bids in Future To Sugar Bowl

Pittsburgh — (UP)—It took the University of Pittsburgh 18 hard years to get into a post-season football classic — but only a stroke of the pen to keep the Panthers from future participation in the Sugar Bowl game.

The Panthers broke the color line in last season's New Orleans game, but today removed themselves from future participation because of a Louisiana law barring interracial athletics.

"No University of Pittsburgh team will participate in any athletic event in which any one of its students would be disbanded who is otherwise eligible under the rules of this university or of the conference of which it is a member," Dr. Edward H. Litchfield, university chancellor, declared.

"As an educational institution," Dr. Litchfield said, "we recognize only the criteria of academic and athletic competence in determining who shall represent the university in intercollegiate athletics."

Pitt, which hadn't received a bowl bid since 1936, touched off a bitter controversy last year by announcing that Negro fullback Bobby Griet, of Massillon, Ohio, would play in the Sugar Bowl against Georgia Tech.

Zamora, Spain — (UP)— 23 passengers were killed and 25 injured Tuesday when a bus en route from Benavente to Monbuency ran off the highway at a sharp curve.

Burke Downs Kroll In PGA Final Tiff

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

Canter, Mass. — (UP)—Jackie Burke credited his putter, chipping and ability to play in the afternoon "like a good race horse coming down the stretch" for his victory over battle-scarred Ted Kroll for the PGA golf championship.

In winning 32-year-old Burke became the second man in history ever to win the Masters and PGA tournaments—two of the most prized titles in golf—in the same year. Only Sam Snead, who was eliminated in the PGA quarter-finals by Kroll on Sunday, ever did it before back in 1939.

Burke, one of the greatest putters in the game, had to come from behind to beat the 37-year-old Kroll, just as he had to fight back to whip Ed Furgol, the 1934 U.S. Open champion, in the semi-finals on Monday. Against Furgol he fought back from being five down to win out, 1 up in 37 holes.

Came From Behind

Against Kroll, he came from a three-down deficit because his putting failed him for the first 19 holes, as he missed five putts from five feet or less—one of them from 18 inches.

But then he got his putter back on good behavior and fired five birdies at Kroll in six holes to take command.

"I was trying to set Ted 2-up," Jackie said. "For I figured if I could do that I could match him the rest of the way."

And Burke, a Marine sergeant in World War II, did just that. Once he gained his 2-up lead on the 27th hole, he matched Kroll, who was an Army sergeant in that war, stroke for stroke for seven holes before he closed him out 3 and 2 on the 34th green.

It was fitting that Burke's victory came on a par three hole for those short ones had been his dish throughout the five-day tournament.

Birdies On 4th

On one of them, the 190-yard fourth, he carded five birdies and two pars in the seven rounds of match play it took him to win his second major title of the year.

That string of birdies on the afternoon nine put Burke out in four under par 32 and when he closed it out he maintained that edge over regulation figures, being four under par for 34 holes.

Kroll didn't crack. Trying for his first major tournament triumph after 10 years on the pro trail, he just ran out of gas, the same as he did at Rochester, N.Y., last month in the U.S. Open. In that one, he had to finish in even par for the last three holes to beat out Carry Middlecoff, but he triple-bogied the 16th to blow his chance.

He didn't triple-bogie Tuesday but he just couldn't match those Burke birdies.

Challenge Made By Amos Lincoln

Portland — (UP)—Denny Williams, manager of Portland heavyweight Amos Lincoln, said here today he had sent telegrams to the camps of both Pat McMurtry and Eddie Machen, challenging the two fighters to a bout with Lincoln.

Lincoln has won 33 of his 37 bouts, 16 by knockout, but has not been up against any top name boxers in his young career.

Williams said he had agreed to a winner-take-all purse division if either McMurtry or Machen would agree to meet Lincoln.

McMurtry took a unanimous decision over Ezzard Charles his last time out and Machen is the ninth ranked heavyweight in the country.

Archie Moore Choice In Bout With Parker

Toronto, Ont. — (UP)—Archie Moore, Ontario's favorite 145 to win the biggest gamble of his career tonight against tall James J. Parker in a bizzare 15-round heavyweight fight that promises a record Canadian gate of $150,000.

Moore, 39, the light heavyweight champion and number one contender for the vacant heavyweight crown, is guaranteed $45,000 for the fight at Maple Leaf Baseball stadium; but a defeat or serious ring injury would knock him out of a sure shot at the heavy crown in September.

Parker, 28, is an unranked heavy contender; but the tall Toronto blaster is a dangerous puncher who has knocked out 23 of his 37 opponents. He claims the Canadian and British empire titles.

Trouble Expected

"I expect trouble with Parker tonight," mustachioed Moore said today. "And for that reason I'm going to hit him harder than I ever hit any man before."

Ashlanders Subdue CP In PW Loop

Central Point's lead in the southern division play wee baseball circuit was cut to one game yesterday as the Pointers fell victim to Ashland 10 to 1 and the Medford Tigers and Medford Wildcats both scored victories.

The Tigers topped Lone Pine 4 to 1 and the Wildcats beat Eagle Point 9 to 4.

Ashland previously had defeated Central Point but had to forfeit the game because of an ineligible player.

Yesterday Richard Wilson tossed his third straight two-hitter for the Lidbia team. He walked one and fanned nine. Ashland got seven runs in the fifth inning on two bases on balls, four hits and three errors. Wilson helped his cause along with a homer with two men on base.

Bob Quinney threw a two-hitter for the Tigers. Jerry Piland, Quinney and Larry Hammack each got two hits for Medford. Hammack getting a triple.

Eagle Pointers hit the ball hard against Mike Glines of the Wildcats but Cat catches of line drives helped limit the EP hits to seven, the same number Medford got off Eagle pitcher Gerren. Wilson of the Wildcats snagged a liner at first base and stepped on the bag for a double play ending the game.

Logart Favored Over Jed Black

Chicago — (UP)— Isaac Logart risks his ranking as the world's third best welterweight pugilist against Army veteran Jed Black tonight, and the Cuban winner said he wanted the bout strictly to "keep busy and earn a little money."

Logart was a outside-four to one favorite for the television brawl, but he declared that Black who has lost only two of 32 pro fights, was a "tough boy."

Barber Twins Nab Sail Crown

Eugene — (UP)— The Barber twins, Merritt and Manning, better known for their exploits on the gridiron while running from the halfback slots at the University of Oregon, yesterday added the Pacific Coast Lightning class sailboat championship to their accomplishments.

The Barber entry Hakili-Poo-O finished with 62 points in the two days competition at Fern Ridge Reservoir here.
