Anahuac Opposes Berrious Tonight

New York —(UP)— Featherweight Kid Anahuac of Mexico City risks a string of 15 straight victories in his New York debut tonight against stocky Miguel Berrios of Puerto Rico at Madison Square Garden.

Their bout will be televised and broadcast nationally over NBC network at 10 p.m. EDT.

Berrios, an aggressive body-punching specialist, is favored at 13-5 to win the 10-rounder because of his greater experience against "name" fighters.

Adm. Richard Byrd made the first flight over the South Pole on Nov. 29, 1929.

Braves Outdo Power Hitters of Redlegs, Dodgers at Own Game; Increase Lead to 5½

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves are beating the vaunted power hitters of the Cincinnati Redlegs and Brooklyn Dodgers at their own game.

Generally regarded as a team built around pitching, the Braves have rolled to 19 victories in 22 games since July 2 with a power-packed lineup that has averaged 6.7 runs a game. During the same period the Redlegs have averaged 4.4 runs while compiling a 12-11 record and the Dodgers have averaged 5.1 while winning 13 of 22 contests.

Hank Aaron, Joe Adcock, Ed Mathews and Bobby Thomson are the "big sticks" in the drive. This "fearsome foursome" has averaged a composite .331 for the 22 games while connecting for 29 homers and driving in 83 runs.

How They Stack Up

The 22-game breakdown on the four sluggers is as follows:

	AB	H	HR	RBI	Av.
Aaron	80	34	6	19	.425
Adcock	67	22	12	30	.328
Mathews	81	24	6	20	.296
Thomson	44	10	5	14	.227
Average	272	90	29	83	.331

Aaron knocked in four runs with his 15th homer and two singles and Thomson whacked his 16th round-tripper Thursday when the Braves routed the New York Giants, 11-0, to run their latest winning streak to five games and increase their first-place lead to 5½ games. Gene Conley was touched for nine hits but breezed behind a 16-hit assault to his fifth triumph.

Dodgers Sweep Series

The Dodgers, meanwhile, completed a sweep of their three-game series with the Redlegs with a 5-3 victory behind Roger Craig's six-hitter. Roy Campanella hit a three-run, fourth-inning homer for the Dodgers while Frank Robinson and Ted Kluszewski homered for the Redlegs. The victory moved the Dodgers to within a half-game of the Redlegs but they trail Milwaukee by six games.

Rookie Fred Waters and veteran Howie Pollet collaborated in a four-hitter to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-0 decision over the Chicago Cubs and the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 14-9, in other NL games.

Pollet saved Waters after the young right hander walked to help the Pirates score their third straight win with the aid of a throwing error by Sam Jones. Homers by Wally Moon, Ken Boyer and pitcher Herman Wehmeier enabled the Cardinals to kayo Robin Roberts.

Mickey Mantle's three hits led an 11-hit attack that gave the New York Yankees an 8-5 decision over the Chicago White Sox in the American League. Don Larsen limited the White Sox to one run in the last six innings to pick up his sixth win while Jack Harshman suffered his seventh loss.

Bob Lemon registered his 13th victory of the year and 194th of his career when Gene Woodling's sixth-inning homer gave the Cleveland Indians a 1-0 win over the Washington Senators. The game was halted in the seventh by rain but Woodling's homer was enough to give the Indians their sixth straight.

Ted Williams' two-run 10th-inning homer enabled the Boston Red Sox to beat the Kansas City Athletics, 5-3, as Ike Delock won his sixth in a row and eighth game of the year and homers by George Kell, Gus Triandos and Tito Francona paced the Baltimore Orioles to an 11-6 decision over Billy Hoeft in the other AL games.

Bilko-Meter Records 43rd Homer as Angel Nine Clips Portland

By JOHN McDONALD
United Press Sports Writer

Brawny Steve Bilko, back home in friendly Wrigley Field, took up the chase of the Pacific Coast League's 31-year-old home run record in earnest Friday and a glance at the "Bilko Meter" showed he stood better than a fighting chance of breaking it.

Bilko, variously dubbed "The Wrecker," "The Monster," "The Beast" — you pick it — swatted his 43rd Thursday as the Los Angeles Angels knocked over Portland 7-3.

Bill Glynn blasted two three-run homers for Seattle as the Rainiers stayed three games back by beating Hollywood 6-4 in 10 innings; Marty Geough broke up an eighth inning tie with a towering home run to give San Francisco an 8-5 triumph over San Diego; and Sacramento held off Vancouver 3-2 in the loops other battles.

Bilko's homer was a 400-foot thing of beauty that sailed over the center field screen and put the Angels out in front to stay. It left him 17 behind the record set by Tony Lazerri in 1925.

The late "Poosh 'em Up" set the mark with the old Salt Lake club during a 200-game season.

On The Way

If he maintains his present clip, the L.A. larruper's a cinch to shatter the mark. With 55 games to play Big Steve needs to average about one round-tripper every three games to turn the trick.

George Freese and Bob Speake also homered for the Angels as they picked up their fourth straight win. Strike-out artist Dick Drott (11-8) went the distance for the win, giving up six hits including a solo homer by Ed Mickelson.

In Seattle, Glynn's two circuit clouts drove in all six Seattle tallies. The second belt came after the Stars' Carlos Bernier had singled in the go-ahead run in the Hollywood half of the 10th frame.

Bud Podbielan, though nicked for 12 hits, picked up his 11th win against five defeats. Four of his wins have been against the Stars. Reliefer George O'Donnell, who took over in the eighth, suffered his third straight setback and now stands at 8-4.

More Homers

In San Diego, the Padres battled back to knot it up in the eighth only to see Keough's ninth inning homer put it out of reach. The Seals' Sal Taormina collected a pair of homers to drive in three runs.

Sacramento got five hit pitching from Cloyd Boyer and came from behind scoring all their runs in the fifth to edge the Mounties.

The Mounties had jumped out in front with a run in the first and another in the fifth on Jim Pisoni's 14th homer. Jake Crawford hit his sixth round-tripper to start off the Solons' fifth. They got their only two runs on a double by Wally Westlake driving one in and a sacrifice fly by Joe McNamara.

Boyer pitched his way out of a ninth inning jam when, with the tieing and go-ahead runs on base for the Mounties, he struck out Pisoni and Ron Jackson to wrap it up.

BRAVES SIGN PRESTON

Milwaukee, Wis. —(UP)— Harold Preston, an 18-year-old southpaw pitcher from Cincinnatus, N. Y., has been signed to a Class "B" contract by the Milwaukee Braves. He will report to Wellsville, N. Y. in the Pony league next season.

Cheney Studs Go To Bend For SO League Encounters

Medford Cheney Studs continue Southern Oregon league baseball action this week end needing only one victory to hang onto at least a tie for the loop leadership but determined to maintain at least the pace they have set since the initial SOL series of the season.

Saturday afternoon and night and Sunday afternoon scuffles against the cellar-occupying Bend club in the central Oregon town are billed this week for the Studs. Coquille is slated for three games at Drain in a tangle of third place clubs while second place Coos Bay-North Bend has a bye.

The Studs have not dropped an SOL series since their mid-June openers with Drain. They have taken each succeeding stand two games to one, getting revenge over Drain's Black Sox last week. In beating the Sox the Cheney contingent overcame a long standing jinx and the Studs' accomplishment could be a good omen for the future.

Bend Heads Batting

Medford, however, will be up against a Logger gang improved since the early season, despite its cellar position. Idle last week, Bend took over the team batting leadership and the series will mark the second in a row that Medford has faced the top hitting crew. Drain held that distinction until its Studs series last Saturday and Sunday. Bend's team mark is .263. Medford now follows with .243 and Drain is third with .235.

Another series triumph is practically a "must" for the Studs if they are to stay on top of the heap and a retain their bid for their first league crown. The teams are still tightly packed in the circuit and Bend, at the bottom, is only 2½ games away from Medford. The Loggers could conceivably overtake the Studs in the week end series. This 1956 campaign is still anybody's battle.

Manager Jack Cooney has indicated that his Stud squad should be intact for the central Oregon journey. He'll likely call upon Derald Wooten, Don White and Bob Selsor to pitch in that order.

Line-Up Listed

Frank Roelandt will handle the catching duties. Roelandt played through the Drain series with his thumb still guarded by a metal brace and did a great job despite the aching and throbbing of the injured digit. He suffered chipped bones in the early July tussles against the Washington Studs.

Cooney, himself, will likely be in his usual spot at first sack with Dick Toney at second, Bill Martell at third and Twink Pederson at shortstop. Terry Maddox and John Kovenz should be in outfield posts with Jerry Bettendorf or Wooton in the other.

Manager Chris Christian probably will name his pitchers from among Lowell Pearce, Fred Sandgren, Fred Paine and Stan Dmochowsky. Irv Roth or Larry Fivecoat may handle the catching.

Other possible starters are Ron Bowen, first base; Denny Lenaburg or Chuck Christenson, second base; Lenaburg or Christensen, third, and Fred Bennion, shortstop. In the outfield it may be among Jay Dinnel, Kim Bradshaw, Maury Rasmussen and Fivecoat or Roth.

Davis Team Plays Canada

Victoria, B. C. —(UP)— The United States was to try an experimental Davis Cup tennis team of Ham Richardson and Herb Flam against Canada's best today in the American Zone semi-finals on the long road to the challenge round against Australia.

The United States was favored—but not by too much—to win against the Canadians in the three-day best-of-five matches. In the singles openers Richardson, the battling Baton Rouge, La., Rhodes Scholar opposes Don Fontana and Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., takes on Bob Bedard. Flam's job was considered the tougher since Bedard is rated as Canada's top player.

The matches will be played on the grass courts of the Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton club.
