Cincinnati, Brooklyn Pressure Braves; Detroit's Paul Foytack Fans 15; Loses

By United Press

The Cincinnati Redlegs and Brooklyn Dodgers each racked up another victory Saturday to keep the heat on the first-place Milwaukee Braves in the National League pennant chase.

The Redlegs broke out of a 3-3 tie with five runs in the ninth inning, three of them on rookie Frank Robinson's 24th homer of the season, to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-3. The Dodgers got steady seven-hit pitching from Sal Maglie to down the Chicago Cubs, 6-3, for their seventh straight win.

The second - place Redlegs thus moved up four games behind the Braves and the third-place Dodgers 4½ games behind as the Braves' night game against the Philadelphia Phillies was rained out.

Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati to gain his ninth victory, but gave up homers to Dale Long and Bob Clemente. Clemente's blow in the last of the eighth tied the score at 3-3 and set the stage for the Redlegs' winning rally.

Maglie fanned seven batters in gaining his fourth victory for the Dodgers and was backed by two-run homers by Sandy Amoros and Duke Snider. Ernie Banks hit his 23rd homer for the Cubs. Snider's homer was his 25th, tying him with Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati for the National League lead.

In another N. L. game, southpaw Vinegar Bend Mizell and relief pitcher Jim Konstanty of the St. Louis Cardinals combined to hold the New York Giants to five hits for a 3-2 victory. Mizell singled home what proved to be the winning run with two out in the top of the eighth, then ran into wildness in the last half and had to be rescued. It was the Giants' 16th loss in the last 18 games.

In the American League pitcher Paul Foytack of the Detroit Tigers set a new Tiger record with 15 strikeouts — and lost to Washington, 6-5. Foytack thus came close to Bob Feller's major-league record of 16 strikeouts set, incidentally, in a game that Feller lost to Detroit, 4-1, Oct. 2, 1938.

Lou Berberet led the Senators to victory with four runs batted in on a homer and a single. Jim Lemon also homered for Washington as reliever Chuck Stobbs got credit for his eighth victory.

The Boston Red Sox blasted 19 hits, including three each by Jackie Jensen and Pete Daley, to hand the Chicago White Sox their 17th loss in the last 20 games, 13-1. Willard Nixon breezed to his fourth win with eight - hit pitching, missing a shutout only when Chicago scored a ninth-inning run.

The Baltimore Orioles scoring six runs in the fifth inning against Mike Garcia, snapped the Cleveland Indians' seven-game winning streak, 8-6. The Indians nearly pulled the game out with four runs in the eighth and had the bases loaded with one out in the ninth when Billy Loes struck out Rocky Colavito and Earl Averill to end the game.

The New York Yankees were at Kansas City in a night game.

By DICK JEWETT
Mail Tribune Sports Editor

Many months back Clayton Hannon, sports editor of the Klamath Falls Herald and News, bemoaned the fact that Medford appeared to have the jump on the City of Pelicans in a bid for a berth in the Northwest League of Professional Baseball Clubs. That situation has reversed itself. Klamath Falls, with its potent Lakers independent club, now is considered a strong prospect to jon the NWL next season as its eighth member.

Current members of the league and loop officers are understood to favor Medford as eighth member because of larger population in its drawing area and for reasons of travel time and convenience. N.W.L. President Jim Fleishman at a recent session of the circuit even said Medford appeared to be the mostly likely eighth team.

However, Klamath, with its Lakers and aroused fan interest, which is better than Medford's actually seems nearer ready for a return to pro ball than does this metropolis of the Rogue valley. Efforts here last fall and winter to organize a Medford NWL team met with "on the street" enthusiasm but with little "solid" interest or response.

We understand it's still not too late for a Medford or Rogue valley group to gain adequate backing, show active interest and gain acceptance in the league. But with the greater enthusiasm now being displayed at Klamath, quick action is needed here—if there is to be action at all. Such a move will require good financial backing and the powers that be will have to do something about Medford's deplorable ball park situation. And interest will have to be much greater than that now being shown here for the fast variety of semi-pro ball being played.

KF TURNOUTS BIGGER

Livelier interest being shown at Klamath Falls in baseball, and resulting from its new independent Lakers, is borne out by attendance figures. The Lakers have drawn between 700 and 800 fans per game and as high as 1,700. Attendance at Cheney Studs games here has averaged much less. Top crowd of the season was around 550 for one of the Washington Studs encounters. Biggest crowd when the Cheney team met the colorful Drain Black Sox last week end was in the 400s.

BALL PARK REASON

What makes the difference between fan appeal in KF and Medford? The fact that Klamath has always been a hot sports community and that the town has its fastest team since the days of the old Far West league figure in answering the question. Then we suspect that the matter of ball parks has something to do with the degrees of baseball-mindedness.

The Lakers have fine facilities in the old Gem stadium which they lease from the city of KF. Medford has the unsightly and rundown fairgrounds park about which there has been a lot of talk and little action. The field may be okeh so far as its playing surface is concerned, but it is lacking in some conveniences for players and in comforts and atmosphere that will insure regular attendance by spectators. And for pro ball fans are needed as much as players.

IMMEDIATE NEED

There are long range plans for a new ball park in the fairgrounds area but something more mimediate is needed, not only with the idea of providing a home for a professional club but with the thought in mind of keeping fast semi-pro ball here. We venture that even the brand of semi-pro ball being played here won't last unless something is done to improve park facilities.

The present occupant of the fairgrounds park has taken some steps to improve the situation. But the Cheney Studs organization, which has made the only efforts to keep fast semi-pro baseball alive cannot be expected to shoulder the load in any major rehabilitation—nor is it obligated to do so on the county-owned property.

KF TO HOST STUDS

Klamath's Lakers in meeting and beating Yakima of the NWL, in playing the San Francisco Seals of the Coast league have brought pro clubs to their community this season. Negotiations by the Medford Studs with NWL members did not materialize. The Studs tests their strength against Klamath there on August 25 and 26.

Cheney Studs Blast Bend Loggers 18-7

Medford Cheney Studs burst out with their mightiest hitting onslaught of the Southern Oregon league baseball season Saturday and clubbed the Bend Loggers 18 to 7 in their series opener at Bend.

Every member of the Studs' starting combination got into the hitting act as the loop leaders clouted out 21 safe blows. Jerry Bettendorf blasted a bases-loaded homerun and Terry Maddox cracked a roundtripper for the Studs. Derald Wooton threw 10-hit ball for the Cheney nine, walking but two and striking out three. He served up homer balls twice to Chris Christianson, manager of the Loggers.

Bettendorfs' big swat came in the fourth frame when Medford collected three other hits and were helped in getting seven runs by two bases on balls and two Bend muffs. Jerry got three safeties in six trips to the plate and Maddox's homer was one of two raps in four official at bats.

Frank Roelandt socked three for five and Jack Cooney three for six including a double. Dick Toney had a two-bagger and two singles in seven times up. John Kovenz and Wooton slapped two for four and Bill Martell two for six. Twink Peterson whacked the other Cheney hit.

Bend called on three pitchers in its attempt to halt the Medford nine.

The two clubs played again last night and wind up their series this afternoon. Manager Jack Cooney was expected to name Bob Selsor to pitch and he may face Stan Dmochowsky or Fred Paine.

Miguel Berrios Defeats Anahuac

New York — (U.P.) — Feather weight Miguel Berrios of Puerto Rico was promised today another television fight on Aug. 22 at San Francisco for snapping the winning streak of Mexican Kid Anahuac at Madison Square garden on Friday.

His San Francisco opponent will be Flash Elorde of the Philippines, former challenger and currently fifth-ranking contender.

Lufkin, Tex. — (U.P.) —Funeral services were held Saturday for Ed Hawkins, a 21-year-old football star at the University of Texas who was killed in an automobile accident at Natchez, Miss., Thursday night.

Palmer Takes Four Stroke Lead in Open

Baltimore, Md.—(U.P.)—Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pt., shot his third stright sub-par round at Mount Pleasant Saturdy to take the 54-hole lead in the Eastern Open Golf tournament.

Palmer whipped around the near 7,000-yard Municipal layout in 69—three under par—to lead Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, by four strokes.

The 1954 National Amateur champion, now on his second swing around the professional circuit, had a total of 205 for the three rounds while Finsterwald trailed with 209. Palmer jumped to a commanding lead with an opening-round 70 and a second-round 66, along with today's 69.

Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., Bob Rosburg of San Francisco, and Jerry Kesselring of Toronto, Ont., trailed Palmer by six strokes with 211. Behind them came Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., and John Knight, the first round leader from Springfield, Ill., with 212.

Doug Ford, 1955 P.G.A. champion from Mahopac, N.Y., was in a four-way tie for eighth with Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg, Fla., Ken Towns of San Bruno, Calif., and Don Addington of Dallas, Tex., with 213.

Henry Williams, from Uscaloosa, Ala., had the lowest round of the day beating par by six strokes with a brilliant 66 featuring six birdies and no bogeys. His round equalled the 66 shot yesterday by Palmer and was one stroke belter than Frank Stranahan's 67 of today.

Stranahan, the defending champion, from Toledo, Ohio, however, is far back in the race with 218. Williams now has 215.

Jack Fleck, Davenport, Ia., the 1955 National Open champion, equalled Mount Pleasant's par 72 and was a stroke ahead of Stranahan with 217.

Central Point anticipates a rough customer in its efforts to retain undisputed first spot in the pee wee league southern division and Ashland and the Medford Wildcats tussle to gain a tie for second place Monday in make up games in the Southern Oregon Junior baseball circuit.

The Pointers vie at Lone Pine and could meet a stern challenge. Only last Thursday the CP nine had to go 11 innings, six extra frames, to squeak by the Pinors 1 to 0.

Regular season for the pee wee southern division ends Tuesday with Lone Pine at Ashland, Central Point at Eagle Point and the Medford Wildcats playing the Medford Tigers. Division champ will play the Grants Pass loop titlist for the Southern Oregon crown.

Other junior baseball this week has Ashland at Medford Monday in the Cub circuit and Ashland at Central Point Wednesday in the concluding Intermediate league ruckus of the season. Medford's cubs must win Monday or drop out of the running for the mantle. If they win, they still have an opportunity to knot with Grants Pass. Medford already has sewn up the intermediate pennant.

Tigers Second

Medford's Tigers took temporary lone hold on second in the pee wee loop Thursday with a 7 to 2 verdict over Eagle Point. Geren of EP allowed the Tigers only four hits but the Medford nine took advantage of some of his seven walks and of errors. Jerry Piland got two of the Medford safeties. Bob Quinney threw a five-hitter for the Tigers and struck out eight.

Lee Vincent tripled with two out in the 11th for Central Point and Don Pfaff followed with a single to break up the game with Lone Pine Thursday. The Pointers had earlier triples by Vincent and Pfaff with two out but their side was retired before they could score. In the third inning CP attempted to tally on a squeeze play but the bunt was a pop up which was turned into a double play. Lone Pine in the fourth panel had a runner put out going home.

In the Medford intramural pee wee baseball league the White Sox retained their lead but suffered their first loss on Wednesday, 7 to 4 at the hands of the Tigers. Teams have six more games, each, to play.

Drag Races Slated Today

Rogue river valley's enthusiasts of speed will gather at the Camp White strip today to watch Oregon and California drivers blaze in drag races conducted by Southern Oregon Timing association.

Contention on the quarter-mile strip will start with time trials at 10 a.m. First drags will be at 1 p.m.

The rivalry will be in a number of classes. National Hot Rod association rules will be in force. Regulations include four classes for strictly stock automobiles. Trophies will be awarded in all classes with top eliminator car and motorcycle to receive special trophies.

Spectators are advised to stay behind the ditch which borders the strip. There will be a concession stand in the area. Signs mark the route to the strip from the Y at the north edge of Medford.

No Judges May Be Used In Bout Monday Night

Portland — (U.P.) — Matchmaker Tommy Moyer asked the Portland Boxing commission Friday to dispense with the two judges and let the referee be sole judge of the winner of Monday night's fight between middleweights Ralph (Tiger) Jones and Jesse Turner.

Moyer said the request was made at the urging of Bobby Melnick, Jones' manager.

Melnick said he was prompted to ask for elimination of the judges as a result of a disputed decision in the Ernie Durando-Jimmy Martinez fight here recently.

In the past Portland fights have been judged by the referee and two ringside judges.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday, other days 5:30 previous day.

Tenmile Lakes Poisoning Will Start in August

Portland — (U.P.) — Rotenone poisoning of Tenmile lakes in Coos county will get underway next month.

The Oregon State Game commission finally decided to go ahead with plans to eliminate the stunted perch and catfish from the lakes and restock the waters with game fish of the trout and salmon families.

The decision was made at the third public hearing on the project. Up to now the commission has delayed any action because of vigorous protests of some residents of Coos county who felt the warm-water fish varieties should remain in the lakes.

The project was estimated to cost $150,000 of which 75 per cents will come from federal Dingell-Johnson funds.

The lakes will be restocked with silver salmon, cutthroat trout and fall-spawning rainbow trout.

The poisoning will begin next month in Eel lake which has a common outlet with Tenmile lakes. The Tenmile lakes and tributaries will be treated in the middle of July next year.
