Costume Party Given by Couple

Members of Contemporary Book club and their husbands were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter for a party at their home, Topside, on the Old Stage road, last Saturday evening. It was a costume party, with guests dressed to represent the titles of books.

Prizes were awarded for guessing the book titles and for the best costumes. Mrs. Justin Smith and Richard W. Gray won prizes for recognizing the greatest number of titles. Dr. B. L. Lageson and Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson were awarded prizes for the most original costumes, and Mrs. Maurice Spatz and Otto Frohmayer won prizes for the best costumes.

Mrs. Raymond Miksche was awarded an impromptu prize for the most exotic costume, and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno won the couple's prize.

Traveler Returns From Trip Abroad

Mrs. Floyd Hart Jr., 23 North Berkly way, has returned from a five weeks trip to Europe. Mrs. Hart flew to Paris where she was met by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Agnar Larsen of Medford, who are visiting Mr. Larsen's family in Denmark.

Mrs. Hart motored with her parents through France, Denmark, Luxembourg, and Germany while there. During her stay with relatives in Denmark she celebrated her birthday and received many gifts of Danish porcelain and silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, who are spending seven months on the continent, will return to the United States in November.
