Reception Honors Newlywed Couple

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Anhorn were honored at a reception Sunday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anhorn, Beall lane. Mr. and Mrs. Anhorn were married June 3 at Coeur d'Alene, Ida. Mrs. Anhorn is the former LaVerne Rebbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rebbe, Everett, Wash. Mr. Anhorn is an airman first-class in the United States Air Force.

Serving the tiered cake was Mrs. Harold Holloway, Medford and Mrs. Melvin Anhorn, Medford, presided at the punch bowl. Calling during the afternoon were friends and relatives. The house was decorated with gladioli.

Airman and Mrs. Anhorn arrived Friday from his base at Payne Air Force Base at Everett, Wash. They are spending two weeks here visiting his family and friends. Airman Anhorn, who has been in the U.S. Air Force nearly six years, reports August 8 on the east coast for a year's tour of duty in Iceland.

Medford Couple Now in Europe For Long Stay

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Haskins, Medford couple who sailed July 19 on the Queen Mary for an extended tour of Europe, spent last week in London and were scheduled to arrive in Holland this morning. Stops in Belgium, a tour of Germany including a trip on the Rhine river by steamer, and tours of Switzerland, Italy and France are on the itinerary of the couple for August.

The Haskins left here June 23 by car and made stops in Lakeview, Ore., Albion, Ida., Ravalli, Wyo., and Grand Island, Neb., on their way to New York. In Albion the Haskins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Heisel, formerly of Singing Pines ranch near Rogue River.

In Peoria, Ill., the travelers spent some time with Mrs. Haskins' sister, Mrs. Albert W. Schram, whose husband, a frequent visitor in Medford, died about the time the Haskins left for Illinois.

At Peoria the Haskins took the new Rocket train to Chicago, and the Commodore to New York City. In New York the travelers attended a concert at Radio City Music hall. Attending the same concert were Mrs. Clarence Meeker, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Heatherington and Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Dierdorf of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskins will be away until fall.

Englishwoman Becomes Bride Of U.S. Airman

Miss Laura Ann Joanas Smedley of Liverpool, England, became the bride of Robert L. Helmick, Rochester, Minn., in a ceremony held Wednesday, July 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swartz, Old Stage road. Mrs. Swartz and the bride are sisters.

The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated, and only immediate family members attended. The bride wore a navy blue afternoon dress with white trim and blue accessories. Mrs. Swartz, who attended her sister, was dressed in white.

Mr. Swartz served as best man for Mr. Helmick.

Mr. Helmick and his bride will make their home in Rochester where the bridegroom airman first class in the United States Air Force, is stationed. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Minor Helmick of Massontown, Penn.

The bride, a native of Liverpool, attended school in that city and for several years was employed in the Liverpool post office. She came to the United States in May of 1955 and has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Swartz.

The bridegroom, a graduate of the Mapleton High school in Pennsylvania, served in the United States Army for more than three years and then joined the United States Air Force. He was stationed in Liverpool for a time, and met his bride in that city.

Annual Tea Set By Presbyterians

Women's association of First Presbyterian church has set Tuesday, August 14, as the date of the annual August silver tea. The tea will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, 222 Valley View drive, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

It is announced that plans are being made to present a program of music which will be of more than ordinary interest.

All women of the church are invited to attend, and to take their friends as guests. Each year funds raised by the tea are used to purchase the so-called miracle drugs and medical equipment for home and foreign mission hospitals.
