

Dodgers Meet Braves 'Poisons'

Milwaukee Wins 8-6, Keeps Lead

By FRED DOWN

They're listed on the Milwaukee Braves roster as Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock but to the Brooklyn Dodgers they're just "Little and Big Poison."

"We could handle those Braves if we could only get those two guys out," is the way Dodger Captain Pee Wee Reese sums it up. "But they're just plain poison—they murder us every game."

It was that simple Monday night when the Braves opened their key series with the world champions by scoring an 8-6 victory that preserved their 2½ game National League lead over the Cincinnati Redlegs and pushed the third-place Dodgers five full games off the pace.

Aaron knocked in four runs with a single, double and his 16th homer of the campaign to raise his league-leading average to .342 while Adcock averaged a pair of runs with a homer and a double. Adcock, who is hitting .355 against the Dodgers for the season, has smashed eight homers in the last seven games against them. Ed Matthews also homered for the Braves.

Bob Buhl needed relief help from Ernie Johnson in the eighth inning but received credit for his sixth straight victory of the year over the Dodgers and raised his overall record to 14-4. Johnny Sain, Sal Maglie and Robin Roberts are the only other pitchers who have beaten the Dodgers six times in a season during the post-war period.

The second game of the four-game series is scheduled for tonight at Brooklyn's "home away from home" in Jersey City—where they are 4-0 for the year.

Bucs Lose Fifth Straight

The Redlegs completed a sweep of their five-game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates when they scored a 4-2 triumph. Gus Bell doubled home the two decisive runs in the third inning while Buster Freeman coming in to relieve Tony Acker and pick up his eighth win of the campaign.

Robin Roberts posted his 11th win over Harvey Haddox his ninth as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4 and 4-2, in the only other National League games. The Phillies supported Roberts with a seven-hit attack that included three by Del Ennis and a homer by Stan Lopata. Lopata also had two hits in the nightcap as Haddox fanned eight and pitched a one-hitter for seven innings. The victories enabled the Phillies to take over fifth place.

The New York Yankees opened up a 10-game lead in the American League when they walloped the second-place Cleveland Indians 13-6. Mickey Vernon pitched a one-hitter for seven innings. The victories enabled the Yankees to take over fifth place.

game ahead of Babe Ruth's record 1927 pace. Whitey Ford received credit for his 14th victory while Bob Lemon, routed in a seven-run second inning, lost his eighth decision.

Tigers Beat Sox

The victory was the Yankees' sixth straight and 27th in 33 games since they dropped a four-game series to the Chicago White Sox June 22-23-24.

Virgil Trucks pitched a three-hitter to give the Detroit Tigers a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox and Bob Nieman homered in the 10th inning as the Baltimore Orioles shaped the Kansas City Athletics, 4-3, in the other American League games.

Frank House and Jim Small collected three hits each as the Tigers beat Frank Sullivan for the first time in 12 decisions. Mickey Vernon homered to spoil Trucks' bid for a shutout.

Mike Fornieles won his third game for the Orioles, who remained in a fifth-place tie with the Tigers, each with a 44-33 mark.

Boyer Leads Coast Hurlers

San Francisco — P. — Cloyd Boyer of Sacramento, whose won-lost records is barely on the sunny side, was the earned run leader of the Pacific Coast League in games through Sunday. William J. Weiss, league statistician, disclosed today.

Boyer has won seven games while dropping six but has allowed the enemy only an average of 2.60 runs per game.

Larry Jansen of Seattle had a 2.57 ERA in compiling the best percentage on an 11-2 record, but had not pitched the minimum of 11½ innings to qualify for the earned run leadership.

Ernie Singleton, Seattle's workhorse veteran, was close behind Boyer in ERA with 2.62 while topping all pitchers in number of victories. Singleton had a splendid 15-5 record in working 168 frames in 22 games.

Dick Drott of Los Angeles kept the strikeout leadership with 150 while San Diego's Pete Mesa had walked 100, the most in the loop.

Veteran Bill Weir of Portland was the PCL's hardest worker, pitching 175 innings. He had a 10-10 record.

Reliever Bob Anderson of Los Angeles had been in the mound in 52 games while recording a 9-2 mark.

RVCC PRAISED

Dick Strite in his Eugene Register-Guard Highliner column has taken the Eugene Country club to task for something lacking in its hosting of the Northwest Open. At the same time he plays a high compliment to Rogue Valley Country club.

Strite says the apparent trouble at the Eugene course was overall lack of enthusiasm on the part of the membership. He adds:

"The Rogue Valley Country club can give us all a lesson in conducting a major golf tournament. The main reason for successes in the Southern Oregon and the OGA tournaments at Medford in the past has been the enthusiasm of the membership and their all-out effort in doing a tremendous job of hospitality."

RV Men NW Starters

Two Rogue Valley men, Leland Clark and Dr. L. Paul Walker, were official starters for the Northwest Open. Al Williams, Rogue Valley professional, was third high in earnings from that tourney with $469.25. The winnings included those from the amateur tussle. Don Sanford homered to left field to lead off the fifth inning. Clyde Smith walked and sneaked to second base. Isaacs was safe on an error and both runners advanced on a wild pitch. Smith came home after the catch of Don Wendt's fly to left field. Score was 6 to 3.

In the sixth Cliff McGinty smacked the ball into the infield, barely beat out the throw to first and went to second on the overthrown. Bob Smith hit a fly to left field.
