Robinson Brings In All Teams Runs as Dodgers Nip Braves

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press Sports Writer

There are increasing whispers that this is Jackie Robinson's last year with Brooklyn but if the 37-year-old veteran is bowing out, he's determined to give Dodger fans something to remember him by.

Most of all, perhaps, he is anxious to leave his mark with Jersey City's hyperbated "Dodger" fans, who keep booing him with a vehemence, the like of which he has never experienced since he broke into the majors 10 years ago.

Those Jersey City fans, whom he first alienated when he called them and their city "bush" earlier this season, roared him plenty Tuesday night, too, at Roosevelt stadium, the Dodgers' home-away-from-home, but he answered them back by blasting a two-run homer in the second inning and then singling home the winning run in the ninth to beat the Braves, 3-2.

Moves Dodgers Up

Robinson's game-winning hit, which came off Dave Jolly and scored Pee Wee Reese from second base, was a tremendous blow over center fielder Bill Bruton's head. It was doubly significant in that it moved the Dodgers within four games of the league-leading Braves again and that it came in the first game Robinson played for Brooklyn since July 14.

The second-place Redlegs also moved up on the Braves, climbing to within two games of Milwaukee by defeating the Giants, 7-3 in the nightcap of a two-night doubleheader after dropping the opener, 5-1.

Southpaw Joe Margoneri limited the Redlegs to five hits in the first game as Jackie Brandt led New York's 10-hit offensive with a homer and two singles. Roy McMillan and Ray Jablonski each homered for Cincinnati in the nightcap which was clinched with a five-run outburst in the fifth. Hal Jeffcoat was the winner although Herch Freeman relieved him in the eighth.

Monte Irvin put on a slugging show with his 11th homer, a double and two singles in the Cubs' 9-4 victory over the Phillies. Sam Jones, who had failed to win since June 17, stopped Philadelphia's four-game winning streak and picked up his fifth victory even though he needed help from Turk Lown in the seventh. Stan Lopata homered for the Phils.

Dickson Shuts Out Buccs

Knuckleballer Murry Dickson tossed a five-hitter for the Cardinals in sending the Pirates down for their sixth straight defeat, 7-0. Dickson allowed only one runner to reach third in registering his eighth triumph. The Cards got to George Munger for three runs in the first inning on Don Blasingame's double and singles by Wally Moon, Rip Repulski and Charley Peete. Pittsburgh's O'Brien twins, Johnny and Eddie, both saw duty as relievers.

Cleveland, still entertaining faint pennant hopes in the American league, chipped the Yankees' lead to a still substantial nine games in whipping the New Yorkers, 5-0, with the aid of Earl Wynn's three-hit pitching.

Wynn ended a Yankee winning streak of eight games over the Tribe in posting his 13th triumph. Johnny Kucks was the victim of a three-run rally in the second inning and suffered his sixth loss against 14 wins. Rocky Colavito homered for Cleveland.

CP Pee Wee Team Eyes GP Ruckus

Coach Bill Esselstyn of the Central Point pee wees today was negotiating for a game with Grants Pass which could determine the championship in Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league play.

The Pointers overwhelmed Eagle Point 24 to 2 yesterday in the final game of the regular pee wee southern division season to assure at least a tie for the division toga.

Actual settlement of the southern race was delayed by the postponement of the Medford Wildcats-Medford Tigers tussle. The two clubs were kept off their field yesterday by preparations for the annual Shrine circus. The game may be made up next Monday. A Wildcat win would knot the club with CP for the southern banner while a Tiger verdict would give the Pointers the crown alone.

Since the summer baseball program at Central Point ends this Friday and no chance seems possible for a play-off if the Wildcats earn a division tie, Esselstyn obtained the green light for a game with the Grants Pass northern division club. Should the 'Cats beat the Tigers next week, a Medford-Grants Pass ruckus might also be arranged.

In the other pee wee game played yesterday Ashland defeated Lone Pine 6 to 4.

Central Point picked up seven runs each in the first and third innings against Eagle Point on three hits and four bases on balls each time. Twenty-five plays got into the game for CP.

Eagle Point got two hits, both off Pat Pepper who was pitching his first game for Central Point.

Medford kept in the running for club honors by defeating Ashland 5 to 4 on Monday. The local club now has a chance to knot for the title in its game with Grants Pass next Monday. Ashland led Medford 4 to 0 going into the fourth inning. Medford got two markers in that frame and three in the fifth. Runs in the fifth came on singles by Ray Konopasek and Paul Moore, a fielder's option, a base on balls and an error.

SHORT SCORES: Central Point 24, Eagle Point 2, Ashland 5, Lone Pine 6, Grants Pass 7, Medford 5, Ashland 4, Wirth and Pond, McKinnis and P. Simpson.

Carter Choice Over Satterfield

Syracuse, N.Y.—U.P.—Harold Carter, 23-year-old heavyweight, isn't as highly-ranked as Bob Satterfield, 32, but the younger is favored at 8 1/2 to 5 for their 10-round fight tonight.

The ninth-ranked Carter apparently is the choice because of his victory over sixth-ranked Satterfield in Miami, March 21. Earlier in the week, Satterfield was favored in the bout, which ABC will televise and broadcast.

Rogue Valley Girls Enter State Tourney

Rogue Valley girls' softball team carries its 19-5 season record to Conger field at Klamath Falls on Thursday night vying in one of the two simultaneous openers of the Oregon State Women's Softball tournament.

The Rogue Valley nine opposes defending champ Oswego in one of the 6:45 p.m. starters. Oakridge will meet Red Britton's All-Stars of Klamath County in the other.

Thursday games at 8:30 p.m. will be Roseburg against Albany and Lakeview against the Klamath Falls Basinettes.

Winner between the RV girls and Oswego will play Eugene at 9 a.m. Friday. Loser goes against the Albany-Roseburg loser at 2 p.m. Friday. The tournament is double elimination.

Other Friday morning games

Softballers Have Action

Chris Drugg of Jacksonville opposes Medford Company A of the National Guard at Hawthorne park and Walt's Lithia Motors of Ashland plays McCulloch Chain Saw of Medford at McLoughlin Junior high field in 6:15 p.m. games today in Jackson County Softball association titular play-offs.

Loser of the Walt's-McCulloch tussle will be out of the double elimination play-off. Thursday action will bill the winner of the Walt's-Chain Saw mix with the loser of the Guard-Chris tiff. Game probably will be at Hawthorne diamond.

In Monday games Chris beat Lithia 8 to 5 and Guard nicked McCulloch 4 to 3.

Big 10 Group Plans Report On Findings

Chicago—U.P.—A Big Ten Conference committee charged with making "a critical self-appraisal" of recruiting and subsidies to athletes will report its findings during the week end at a meeting of league faculty representatives and athletic directors.

The committee, consisting of Leslie W. Scott of Michigan State; Verne Freeman, Purdue; H. O. Crisler, Michigan, and Ivan Williamson, Wisconsin, was named at the conference's winter meeting last December.

Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson, an ex-officio member of the committee, said the group has been investigating conference affairs for the past seven months.

Wilson said the appointment of the committee was the offshoot on various proposals on restricting recruiting and financial aids to athletes.

Present conference rules limit recruiting to correspondence and on-campus interviews, and requires academic requirements for grants-in-aid or scholarships.
