

Rogue Valley Gals Bounce Eugene, Albany, Lakeview in Oregon Softball Tournament

Klamath Falls—Rogue Valley racked up two triumphs in the Oregon Women's Softball tournament here Saturday to be one of four teams remaining in contention for the 1956 championship.

The girls from the Rogue country went an extra inning to whip Albany 4 to 2 yesterday morning and capitalized on a big sixth inning to bounce Eugene from the running 7 to 3 in the afternoon.

The two victories sent the Rogue team against Oakridge last night. Winner of that game is to scrap at 2 p.m. today against the loser in last night's Oswego-Salem encounter.

The club which wins this afternoon's brush will meet the Oswego-Salem Saturday night winner in this evening's finals. Evening action is billed for 7 o'clock with another game to follow if needed in the double elimination contention.

Oakridge, loser Friday night to Oswego's defending champs, ousted Klamath Falls yesterday morning 5 to 1.

Rogue Valley combined a single by Bernice Bigham three bases on balls and a fielder's option in the eighth for two runs to beat Albany. Eugene pitching wildness paid off for Rogue Valley in yesterday afternoon's affair. Bigham whacked the only hit of the six-run inning but there were six bases on balls and four wild pitches. A passed ball figured in the run-ming.

Bigham had two hits in four times up against Eugene. Ellen Callaghan hit her second homer of the tournament in the fourth inning. Doris Hickson pitched a three-hitter in notching her second tournament triumph.

Klamath Falls—Doris Hickson hurled the first no-hitter of this year's titular struggle and three records were blasted Friday as Rogue Valley kept its hopes alive in the Oregon state women's softball tournament at Klamath Falls.

The RV gals crushed Lakeview 30 to 1 to advance to Saturday rivalry in the double elimination competition.

Score of the game was highest in tournament history. Rogue Valley's hits, 19 of them, established a new high and Lakeview committed 18 errors, most to be entered in tourney record books.

Victory by the Rogue club was scored in the bracket of opening round losers and eliminated Lakeview from the tourney. Albany ousted the Red Britton All-Stars of Klamath county and won the right to face Rogue Valley on Saturday.

Defending titlist Oswego and Salem were assured of being on hand for Sunday contention in the tourney by posting Friday night wins to move on in the winner's bracket as Saturday night rivals. Oswego topped Oakridge 3 to 0 and Salem out-fought Klamath Falls Basinettes 3 to 2.

Earlier Friday Oakridge, Oswego and Klamath Falls had scored their second wins against no losses in the tourney while Roseburg, the other opening night winner, bowed to Salem 4 to 3. Oakridge tripped Forest Grove 5 to 0 as Jackie Rice threw a one-hit shutout and KF beat Orenco 5 to 3.

Tuttle Homers Twice
Forest Grove then put Roseburg out of the tourney 6 to 1 and Eugene eliminated Orenco 12 to 5.

Diane Tuttle hit homers her first two times up against Lakeview and had one other safe blow in five times up. Hickson, Pat Barron and Bernice Bigham also had roundtrippers. Barron and Jean Matine hit three for six, Arlene Hoffman two for three, Bigham two for five and Hickson two for six.

Rogue Valley piled nine of its markers into the sixth inning and eight into the second. The gals scored in every inning.

The one run was yielded to the Lake county club in the opening inning. Dixie Dodson was safe on an error which got her two second base. She went to third on an infield out and crossed home after the catch of Betty Morris' fly.

Hickson struck out five batters and walked just one in her no-hitter.

1955 Victors Defeated in Coastal Golf
Astoria—(U.P.)—Dusty Woods, Mike Ierulli and Ted Fleskes, defending champions, were defeated Saturday at the 46th annual Oregon Coast golf championships.

Woods, McMinnville golfer seeking his third straight Coast crown, bogeyed the 18th hole and lost one-up to Bill Aubry, 17, Corvallis.

Aubry was joined in the under-40 semi-finals Saturday by Ralph Dichter, Astoria, medalist; Dick Twiss, 20, The Dalles; and Harry Weston, Portland.

Dichter birdied five of the first seven holes on the back nine to defeat Jeff Stockton, Seattle, 4 and 2. Twiss was three over-par but won from G. B. Nichols, Portland, 3 and 2. Weston was two under par to beat Dr. Blair Henningsgaard, Astoria, 2 up.

Fields Victor
Ierulli, Oswego, lost to Ken Fields, Yakima, 2 and 1, in the contest for men 40-to-50. Fields, 1954 champion, finished two under par. Ierulli was even par.

Joining Fields in the semifinals were Dr. Ed Palmrose, medalist, Astoria, who defeated Al Campbell, Forest Hills, 3 and 2; Andy Vetch, Portland, who won from Jim Wee, Portland, 2 and 1; and Lou Tobin, Tualatin, who parred the 19th hole to edge out Bill Palmberg, Astoria.

Ralph Finch, Astoria, defeated Fleskes, Oswego, 2 and 1 in Fleskes' bid for a third straight senior crown.

Lillian Schassen, The Dalles, and June Robinson, 15, Tillamook, made the women's finals.

Dodgers Propose Baseball Day
Brooklyn, N. Y.—(U.P.)—The "save the minors" campaign moved into high gear as the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers furnished the acceleration with a proposal for a "National Baseball Day" next June that would net more than $300,000.

The majors Friday announced a program whereby the two big leagues would consider spending up to that much to keep the minors in operation. The Dodgers submitted their plan and it was discussed in detail by both major leagues at their meetings Friday.

The plan calls for every player in the majors to participate in games with minor league teams in 20 selected minor league cities next June. The cities would be selected at the minor league meetings this coming December.

AMERICANS WIN
Vancouver, B. C.—(U.P.)—Noel Brown of Los Angeles blasted Don Fontana of Toronto, Ont., 6-0, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3, to win the Canadian Men's singles tennis championship on Saturday.

Third-seeded Jean Laird of Modesto, Calif., came from behind to win the Ladies Singles title against top-seeded Linda Vail of Oakland, Calif., 4-6, 7-5, 8-6.

About 11,600 books were published in the United States in 1955. Four-fifths were new, the rest reprints.

BASEBALL
Bevos Win 5th From Fading Solons, 5-2
Portland, Ore.—(U.P.)—The Portland Bevos racked up their fifth straight win over the fast-fading Sacramento Solons here Saturday as Bob Alexander effectively scattered 10 hits in recording a 5-2 win for Portland. It was the afternoon game of a day-night double header scheduled for Saturday between the two clubs.

The Solons led off the scoring in the afternoon game with a single tally in the second but then failed to score again until the ninth while Portland was crowding five markers across the plate in the interim.

Portland went ahead in the third with a pair as Alexander singled, Dick Young walked and Luis Marquez singled in the first tally. Bob Borkowski's single to right scored the second Beaver run of the afternoon.

A double by Jack Littrell and a single by Sam Calderone accounted for the third Portland run in the sixth.

The Bevos rounded out their afternoon's production of runs in the eighth with two unearned counts.

After two Solon miscues had put a pair of Beavers on, Leo Thomas smacked out a double that scored both mates.

Vancouver, B. C.—(U.P.)—Len Neal's home run in the bottom half of the tenth inning gave the Vancouver Mounties a tight 5-4 Pacific Coast League decision over the Hollywood Stars and also gave them the series three games to two.

Neal's homer, his fourth of the season, climaxed a great comeback by the Mounties who were behind 4-0 after the first four innings.

They still trailed 4-3 at the bottom of the ninth when Dugres led off with an infield single and was sacrificed to second by pinch-hitter Jim Westlake. When Fred Marsh grounded out, Hollywood Manager Clay Hopper took out George O'Donnell and brought in left hander Luis Arroyo to pitch to the left handed hitting Johnny Jorgensen. Jorgy, however, foiled the strategy when he bunted safely along the third base line to score Dugres from third with the tying run.

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Gene Mauch clouted a grand slam home Saturday as the Los Angeles Angels took a 13-8 victory over the San Francisco Seals at Wrigley field.

Chick Pieretti was credited with the run, chalking up a 5-7 record for the season. The loser was starter Jerry Casale (12-9). The victory, garnered on eight unearned runs, gave the Angels a 4-1 series win.

San Francisco got two runs in the first inning. Ken Aspromonte scored on a double by Marty Keough, and Haywood Sullivan sacrificed to bring in Jerry Priddy, who was aboard with a single.

U.S. Netmen Lose Match To Mexico
Rye, N. Y.—(U.P.)—Mexico's peppery Davis Cup doubles team of Mario Llamas and Francisco Contreras upset young Sammy Giammalva of Houston, Tex., and Barry MacKay of Dayton, O., in five sets Saturday, sending the American zone tennis final into a extra day for decision.

The plucky Mexican pair, down two sets to one and apparently on the way out of the world-wide competition, pulled off a superb rally against the young Americans and triumphed in a two-and-one-half hour grind, 11-13, 6-4, 1-6, 8-6, 6-3.

The surprise victory by the two players who lost their opening singles matches Friday cut the U. S. lead to 2-1 in the series and marked the first time a Mexican cup team had scored a point against the U. S. on U. S. soil.

U. S. captain Billy Talbert promptly recalled the veteran Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Ham Richardson of Westfield, N. J., for Sunday's singles.

Richardson is paired against Llamas and Seixas against Contreras. The winning team meets Italy's European champions at Forest Hills Sept. 28-30.

MOEGLE SIGNS

PCC Opens Crucial Sessions Monday to Review Penalties
By SCOTT BAILIE
United Press Sports Writer
San Francisco—The harassed Pacific Coast conference battling to retain its gridiron prestige in the face of possible bolts by UCLA and Southern California, opens a crucial session in Portland, Ore., next Monday to review penalties and study new violations.

One of the biggest decisions to be reached before the session breaks up on Wednesday is whether seniors who have been declared ineligible at the two Los Angeles schools for taking illegal payoffs will be allowed into the lineup this fall.

No announcement of any kind will be made until after the Wednesday meeting of the PCC Presidents Council, which is the supreme court of the conference.

At the July gathering here, this high group announced it might consider "ameliorating" penalties against some seniors providing the coaches "who had failed to discharge their responsibilities to live up to the code" had been adequately dealt with.

Oregon State Game commission has stocked Willow lake with several thousand 8 to 14 inch rainbow trout and Fish lake with several thousand fingerlings in the past couple of weeks, management of the resorts at both lakes has reported.

Fishing has been very good at both lakes, it was stated. A good number of limit catches have been made in recent days at Fish like with trout brought in up to 25 and 26 inches in lake.

At Fish lake where the water level is down about three feet angling "has really been good," according to the resort management's report.

Shrine Gridders To Begin Twice-Per-Day Practices
Portland—The ninth annual Shriners' hospital all-star game—"Football's Finest Hour"—is only days away, and 48 husky gridders will begin bearing down Monday in twice-daily practice sessions here, getting ready for their August 18 date in big Multnomah stadium.

Coach Pete Susick, who guided Marshfield to the state prep title last fall, will direct his 24-man State squad through morning and afternoon drills at the University of Portland, while Coach Brad Ecklund of Gresham is doing the same with his Metropolitan all-stars at Lewis and Clark college.

The 48 State and Metropolitan all-stars represent the cream of last year's high school seniors throughout Oregon, and many of them are destined for even more acclaim on college grids in the future.

The rival coaches, both of whom adhere to the theory that a good offense is the best defense, admittedly will stress offense throughout the two weeks of practice, and both have personnel capable of scoring on the ground or through the air.

Won't Join Chorus
Susick, who has a record of two wins and no losses as a head coach in this pigskin classic, steadfastly refuses to join the chorus of Sta. supporters who are singing a song of optimism and predicting another victory over the Metros.

Susick pointed out that both squads are made up of all stars and reminded that "when players of this calibre oppose each other, it's practically impossible to establish a favorite."

Optimism of State backers is reflected in the advance sale of reserved seats, according to Deputy Police Chief Eugene W. Ferguson, the game's managing director. He said the ticket sale has "perked up considerably" the past few days and urged persons to get their orders in soon.

A highlight of the pre-game activities for players and coaches will be their traditional visit to the Shriners' hospital, where they spend hours visiting with the young patients and autographing their casts. It is a day eagerly awaited by the football-minded young patients.

Squads Listed
Members of the State squad are as follows: Bob Peterson,

Sandy Fraser and Dennis Baker, all of Marshfield high; Phil Sword, Ashland; Fred Pynes, St. Francis high of Eugene; Modesto Jimenez, Klamath Falls; Ted Henry and Dale Shumway of Prineville; Monte Holst, Medford; Gerald Rogers, McMinnville; Arnold Slaven, Grants Pass; Ken Mundt and Bruce Ridinger, Albany; Howard Waggoner, Coquille; John Wilcox, Gene Bates and Derald Swift, all of Vale; Dick Woolstenhulme, Roseburg; Ron Anderson, Bend; Dale Jones, South Salem high; Sam Haynes, Pendleton; LaMoyne Mapes, South Salem; Jerry Doman, Ontario, and Dave Powell of Eugene.

Dutch Kawasoe of Vale and Spike Leslie of Coquille are assistant State coaches.

Metropolitan squad members are as follows: Bob Wanker, West Linn; Marv Nelson and Bill Haller, Milwaukie; Paul Bernick and Russ Simons, Gresham; Ralph Perkins, Hillsboro; Greg Altenhofen, Beaverton; Gary Brown, Forest Grove; Marlin Marsh, St. Helens; Jack Michael, Hillsboro, and Pete Beer, Tom Geogades, Keith Harris, Howard Hogan, Berk Holman, Stewart Pillette, Doug Daniels, Ron Hesse, Chuck Rask, Tom Johnson, Herman McKinney and Bob McGill, all of Portland high schools.

Metro assistant coaches are Tom DeSylvia of Jefferson (Portland) and Doug Vickery of Washington (Portland).

It was Jerry Cade Night at Salem Friday night and the Salem lefty came through to sabotage an old baseball superstition.

Usually when a player is honored, he turns in a sad performance but Cade showed Salem fans just how much he appreciated the occasion.

After being presented with a bundle of gifts, Cade went out and blanked the Wenatchee Chiefs 2-0 to keep the Senators in solid second place in the Northwest league.

For Cade it was his ninth victory and fifth shutout of the year.
