

Governor, Wife
Guests at Parties

Governor and Mrs. Elmo Smith were honored at several events during a two-day visit to the valley last week.

They attended a dinner at Rogue Valley Country club Tuesday night for Republicans, and Wednesday noon were present for a luncheon at Omar's restaurant in Ashland.

Wednesday morning a small group was invited to the home of Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly Jr., on Barneburg road to meet Mrs. Smith during breakfast, and she then went to Ashland for a coffee hour at the home of Mrs. James H. Busch. Mrs. Busch was assisted by Mrs. Ben Lombard.

The governor's wife was also honored at a tea given at the Women's Civic clubhouse in Ashland. Mrs. Philip Stansbury was chairman for this, and about 80 Medford and Ashland women met the honored guest during the party.

Later Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Selby were hosts for a cocktail hour at their home on Walker avenue, inviting a large group of Ashland business and professional men and their wives to meet Governor and Mrs. Smith.

The Smiths were among the honored guests who attended the dinner and opening night festivities of the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Lithia park and the festival theater Wednesday night. They left for Salem Wednesday morning.

Chapman-McDonald Rites
Held in Methodist Church

An event of July 28 was the wedding of Miss Jeanette McDonald to Norman Chapman, the rites being held at First Methodist church in Medford. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald, 146 South Mountain avenue, Ashland, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Chapman, 343 Mae street, Medford.

Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb read the double-ring ceremony, and Mr. McDonald gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. R. A. Schuchard was at the organ and the bride's uncle, William Kershner, Seattle, sang. The altar candelabra held white tapers and baskets of white gladiolus and lavender. Ester Reed daisies decorated the church. Lavender and purple daisies decorated the church. Aisles. Mrs. Richard Chambers,

Ashland, and Miss Dixie Neat-hamer, Medford, lighted the candles.

For the ceremony the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle with bodice of delustrated satin embroidered in lace and pearls. The skirt ended in a chapel length train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a crown of lace and pearls and she carried a white orchid with stephanotis and bouvardia.

Mrs. Harry Berryman, aunt of the bride from Seattle, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids and matrons were Miss Sue Thorpe, Mrs. Charles Bonds and Mrs. Robert Myrick, Ashland, and Miss Gail Ashley, Eugene, sorority sister of the bride. Debbie and Diane Slapnicka, cousins of the bride from Seattle, were flower girls.

Mrs. Berryman wore a waltz length gown of lavender nylon designed princess style and her head covering was a short matching veil. She carried white spider chrysanthemums. The other attendants wore frocks of white nylon which matched Mrs. Berryman's gown in design, and white veils. Their bouquets were also chrysanthemums. The candelighters' pink frocks matched those worn by the bridesmaids and their head-dresses were of white carnations.

Best man was Donald Chapman, brother of the bridegroom and ushers were Burton Williams, Salem, Joe Antony, Jack Moad and Curt Holzgang, all Medford.

The reception which followed was in the church parlors. Mrs. Eldon Slapnicka, aunt of the bride from Seattle and Mrs. Garold Davis, Ashland, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. William Hubbs, another aunt of the bride from Seattle, and Mrs. Morris Stringer, Ashland, poured punch. Miss Sylvia Kain, Medford, sorority sister of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman made a trip to northern Oregon beaches for their honeymoon and will be at home at 1829 University street, Eugene, after August 6. For traveling the bride wore a white sheath dress with checked coat of navy blue and white and the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Ashland High school and has been attending Oregon State college where she is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority. Mr. Chapman, a graduate of Medford High school, attends the University of Oregon. He played football for Medford High school and is also on the university team.
