Use Remnants

9315 2-10

by Marian Martin

Sew your cherub two new outfits—both from ONE pattern! Vary the neckline for party time or lesson-learning—the sleeves according to her whim! Use remnants—contrast fabrics and colors! She'll adore the high midriff-effect, the full skirt!

Pattern 9315: Children's Sizes 2, 4, 6, 8, 10. Size 6 print dress takes 2 1/4 yards 35-inch fabric.

This easy-to-use pattern gives perfect fit. Complete, illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step.

Add a new touch to the all-time favorite of canned cling peaches and cottage cheese for a luncheon salad. Blend some nippy shredded cheddar cheese with the cottage cheese and top with 2 golden canned cling peach halves.

Chopped raw spinach and slivered toasted almonds mixed with creamy cottage cheese is most delicious. Serve in a luncheon salad with canned cling peach slices, whole cooked prunes and grapefruit sections.

Winners Announced For Show

"High Spirits," a watercolor of Arabian horses painted by Mrs. Blanche Johnson, Central Point, won first place by popular vote in the annual art show sponsored by Southern Oregon Society of Artists as part of the Jacksonville jubilee. The exhibit, held in the Jacksonville library, attracted about 500 visitors from all over Oregon and several other states.

Second place in the popular vote went to Mrs. Elizabeth Sheffield, Rogue River, for her oil painting of the old Wimer covered bridge. Mrs. Ada Andrews, Gold Hill, won third place for a still life entitled "Roses."

Other paintings which scored high in the voting were "Under the Cottonwoods," another work of Mrs. Johnson; "This Old House," a pastel by Mrs. Ruby Twedell, Medford; "Minthorn Bridge," another oil work of Mrs. Sheffield and "Mountain Reflections," an oil by Harry Marx, Medford.

Of special interest was an old painting of a spray of roses entered for exhibit only by Mrs. Pearl Whitney of Jacksonville. It was painted by Sadie DeBoy of Gold Hill when she was a student at the old St. Mary's academy in 1894 and for many years was stored away in a barn. Holes in the canvas are thought to have been made by the shot from a child's small gun. The artist died in 1896.

Among those who registered at the show were visitors from Illinois, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Arizona, Florida and New Jersey.

Clinton Smith was show chairman. Officers of the artists' group are Dr. E. O. Muhs, Camp White, president; Mrs. Andrews, Gold Hill, vice-president; Mrs. Gean Neece, Gold Hill, secretary and Mrs. Ann Brereton, Medford, publicity chairman.

Baptist Women At House Party

Mrs. Ethyl W. Brown, Mrs. S. D. Earhart and Mrs. Lucile Anderson, members of Eastwood Baptist church in Medford, were among more than 200 Oregon Baptist women registered for the annual house party of the Oregon Baptist convention on the Linfield college campus in McMinnville last week.

Speakers for the sessions were national and local Baptist women leaders and missionaries. Guests were housed in Linfield dormitories and meals were served in the college commons.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

Women Golfers Are Guests for Play, Luncheon

Women golfers of Rogue Valley Country club entertained women players from Reames Country club, Klamath Falls, Bayside club of Eureka and Arcata and Del Norte club of Crescent City, Calif., on August 2. Play was in the morning, with luncheon following.

Score prizes went to Mrs. Belle Schenk for a low gross score of 86; to Mrs. S. Tunny Bullis for a low net of 75; Mrs. Robert Sproat, Klamath Falls, for a low net of 77 and to Mrs. Morris Thorpe for a low gross of 85.

Mrs. S. A. Peter, Eureka, and Mrs. William Speer, Crescent City, tied for low net of 84.

Mrs. C. B. Collins announced that the next Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon tournament will be in Bend August 15, and those wishing to participate in it were asked to sign up by August 9.

George Harrington, club manager, spoke about plans being made for the annual Southern Oregon Golf tournament, saying entries must be made before August 15. Women golfers will help with the hole-in-one and putting contests which will be held in connection with the Labor day tournament. A buffet luncheon is planned for all members of the Women's Golf association, their guests, women contestants and all wives of contestants. Reservations should be made previous to that time. The luncheon will be on Saturday, Sept. 1, and will take the place of the regular September luncheon meeting.

CORN IN FOIL

Husk fresh corn or use frozen corn on the cob. Spread each ear with soft butter; sprinkle with salt. Wrap in foil; fold ends of foil under. Grill over or on hot coals, turning occasionally. Allow 10 minutes if fresh ears, 10 to 15 minutes if frozen. Or bake in a 375 degree oven for 30 minutes.

Here's what the well-dressed man about town is wearing for his leisure hours this season. The candy-striped shirt and bright solid shorts are of Avondale's perma-pressed cottons that are wrinkle-resistant and require little or no ironing. The outfit is designed by Alfred of New York.
