

Mathews, Aaron Sparkle as Braves Retain Two-Game Lead over Dodgers

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Ed Mathews joined with the streaking Hank Aaron today to put the Milwaukee Braves' pennant express back in high gear.

Placed between Aaron and long-ball hitting Joe Adcock in Fred Haney's latest effort to snap him out of a season-long slump, Mathews has knocked in seven runs while homering in each of his last four games. The irrepressible Aaron, meanwhile, stretched his batting streak to a season's high of 22 consecutive games during which he's hit .424.

Mathews and Aaron drove in seven runs Sunday as the Braves drubbed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-1, and 5-0, to hold their two-game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers and stretch their margin to three games over the rained-out Cincinnati Redlegs. Chicago at New York also was rained out.

Mathews walloped a solo homer and Aaron a three-run round-tripper in the first game to help Gene Conley register his sixth victory and hand Ron Kline his 12th loss. In the nightcap, Mathews whacked a two-run homer and Aaron delivered a triple and single as Lew Burdette scored his fifth shutout and 13th win of the season. Aaron's four hits in seven tries raised his league-leading batting average to .345—20 points more than second place Stan Musial.

Three Straight For Braves

The victories stretched the Braves' newest spurt to three straight and gave them a 10-1 edge over the Pirates since Haney took over on June 16.

Duke Snider smashed three home runs to raise his season total to 30 and lead the Dodgers to 7-0 and 5-3 triumphs over the St. Louis Cardinals. Sal Maglie threw a four-hitter for his fifth win of the season and the 100th of his career in the first game while relief pitcher Ed Roebuck won his fourth game of the year in the nightcap. The world champions have won 14 of their last 17 games and 18 of 24 since Manager Walt Alton initiated his "give 'em hell" campaign on July 14.

In the American league, the New York Yankees suffered their sixth straight defeat when they bowed to the Detroit Tigers, 8-5, but held their seven-game lead when the second-place Cleveland Indians lost to the Boston Red Sox, 2-1.

Al Kaline's three-run homer helped the Tigers sweep the three-game series with the Yankees despite homers by Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron and Yogi Berra. Mantle's was his 37th of the campaign—equalling his previous high for a season and putting him 11 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record 1927 pace. Jim Bunning won his first game while Tom Sturdivant suffered his sixth loss.

Sox Sweep Indians

Ted Williams hit his 12th homer of the year in the sixth inning to give the Red Sox a sweep of their three-game set with the Indians. Dave Sisler went all the way in a game called after seven innings because of rain to score his fifth triumph and help hand Bob Lemon his ninth loss against 14 wins. The Red Sox now trail the Indians by only 1 1/2 games.

The Baltimore Orioles beat the Chicago White Sox for the first time at Comiskey park this year when they swept a doubleheader, 5-4 and 7-2. Bob Hale tripled and George Zuverink singled to drive in the decisive run in the 10th inning of the opener while Tito Francona's three-run, seventh-inning triple was the key blow in clinching the nightcap.

Pete Runnels had four singles and Clint Courtney two doubles and a single to lead the Washington Senators to a 10-4 decision over the Kansas City Athletics in the other AL game. Chuck Stobbs went all the way in 98-degree heat to win his 10th game. Roy Sievers, Hector Lopez and Vic Power homered.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE SPORTS

Cheney Studs, Sox Sweep SOL Series

A 12 to 7 verdict over the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks in a wide open skirmish yesterday enabled the Medford Cheney Studs to wrap up their first three game series sweep of the Southern Oregon Baseball league campaign. And the Studs' Derald Wootton was established as the SOL's leading chucker as the Medford diamonders continued their romp at the front of the pack in the circuit.

Medford's three triumphs and Drain's clean sweep over the Bend Loggers turned the SOL titular contention into a two-way chase. However, Drain, two tussles behind Medford in the standings, won't quite be able to catch the Studs who will have a bye next week end. The Black Sox oppose the Lumberjacks while the Cheney nine has non-league frays with Beaverton.

Five home runs were blasted in the ruckus yesterday as Medford added the victory to 14 to 4 and 12 to 4 decisions on Saturday. Four of the four-masters were by Studs as Wootton's mates provided the heavy hitting and runs which boosted him to his fifth league win against no losses. It was the first setback in six tussles for Jerry Bartow, the Jacks' winningest flinger.

Drain clubbed Bend 22 to 3 Saturday and 5 to 4 and 5 to 3 Sunday.

Jim Bailey Wins Mile

Vancouver, B.C.—(U.P.)—Jim Bailey, the man who carried the colors of University of Oregon to the first sub-4 minute mile in the United States, Saturday won the mile event at Vancouver's 70th annual Caledonian games with a time of 4:14.

Right behind Bailey was Bill Dellinger, the Springfield, Ore., teammate of Bailey and U.S. entry in the Olympics, with a time of 4:15.

Hunter Again Grabs Main

Continuing at the head of the field in his quest for the Valley View speedway season championship, Crook Hunter drove to another main event victory in hardtop racing Saturday night.

Fred Arnberg drove to triumph in the semi-main and Chuck Davis, Ashland fire chief skippered a Buick sedan 10 laps to take the stock car main event.

Wayne Lemley won the hardtop trophy dash and Cecil James the stock trophy run.

Heat Races

Hardtop heat races went to Lou Kurz, Monty Hall and LeRoy Sifers and James nabbed the stock car heat.

Crook Hunter finished in front of Allen Bousmand and Ken Curry in the 25 lap big race of the night in which 15 cars vied.

Neil Woodridge was taken to the hospital after his car went through the fence in the main race. In the hardtop trophy dash Johnny Woolverling's car went into the infield and hit other cars sending Ken Taylor to the hospital with a broken arm.

Gonzales Gains Top Pro Money

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales defeated Australia's Frank Sedgman Saturday for top prize money of $1,750 in the $7,500 Masters' Round-Robin Professional Tennis championships.

Gonzales took it 9-7, 3-6, 6-1 for his fifth straight tourney win without a loss.

Pancho Segura defeated old pro Jack Kramer, 6-0, 6-3, in the day's other singles round.

Solons Help Angels Up Bulge To 7 Games

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Angels extended their lead in the Pacific Coast League race to seven fat games today and it looked as if nothing short of a rash of broken arms could stop them from winning their first pennant in nine years.

Manager Bob Scheffing's Cherubs got an unexpected assist from Sacramento Sunday night, which trimmed Seattle twice in a double header by scores of 4-1 and 7-6 to drop the Rainiers back to seven games off the pace.

Before this nocturnal catastrophe overtook the defending pennant winners, Los Angeles had split a twin bill with arch-rival Hollywood. The Twinks, who hold a 10-8 lead over L.A. in this year's series, won the opener 6-5 and the Angels stormed back with a 9-4 victory.

Seals, Beavers Split

San Francisco and Portland also divided, the Beavers taking the opener 4-1 and the Seals the finale, 5-4. The standoff left San Francisco tied with Sacramento for fifth place. Vancouver and San Diego were idle.

Hollywood snatched the opener from Los Angeles in the ninth frame on a bases-loaded single by R. C. Stevens that broke a 5-5 tie. Marino Pieretti took the defeat, his eighth, while Bob Garber was credited with his sixth triumph.

The Angels cinched the nightcap by tacking a four-run blast in the seventh inning onto a one-run lead. The rally cost Ben Wade his 14th loss. Gene Fodge, helped by Bob Anderson, posted his 13th win.

Jake Crawford was the hero of Sacramento's conquest in Seattle. He belted a two run homer in the opener which sparked a four run rally in the fourth inning. Then in the seventh inning of the second game he singled in the winning run.

Watkins Takes Nightcap

Earl Harrist stifled the Rainiers with a three-hitter in the seven-inning first game. Bill Brenner, who usually is on the coaching lines, duled him all the way to get the loss.

Bud Watkins rescued Cloy Boyer from a six-run assault in to beat Butte Falls. John Drew tripled and Chuck Maars, Don Mintz, Dick Wootton and Neil Green singled in the frame. There were three walks and an error. Drew hit two for four and Green two for three for CW and Hank Tygart and Jim Zimmerlee three for five each for BF.

The Cheney Colts dropped from a tie for second into fourth place yesterday in Rogue Valley league baseball action but have a chance to knot for third on Wednesday when they play host to the Grants Pass Merchants here in a "moved up" loop engagement.

Glendale kept its distance out in front with a 13 to 5 win over Eagle Point. Cave Junction with an 8 to 1 victory over the Colts and Grants Pass with a 9 to 0 forfeit from Ashland stayed in a deadlock for second spot. Camp White defeated Butte Falls 8 to 5 to pull into a tie with Ashland for fifth spot.

The Colts were held to two hits by ex-Illinois Valley high pitcher Jim Eggers, who was credited with 10 strikeouts, gave five walks and hit one batter. His Outlaw teammates gave him runs enough to win on in the first inning—four counters on homers by Wayne and Les Saffer and Ron Maurer and a single by Larry Maurer.

Kay Kelley relieved Colt starting tosser Bruce Forette after four hits. Kelley held CJ to six hits, fanning six and walking two. He yielded a homer to Lou Maurer in the seventh inning.

The Colts got their one run in the fourth on a walk, ground-out, stolen base and error. Day Gatlin singled and Bob Serak doubled for the Colts hits.

Six runs in the third inning were enough for Camp White

Ibbotson Runs 4-Minute Mile

London—(U.P.)—Derek Ibbotson, 24, Royal Air Force runner, became the ninth man in the world to break the four-minute mile today when he won the Emsley Carr Memorial Mile Race at White City in three minutes, 59.4 seconds.
