

HIGH SPEED DID THIS!—Canadian policeman examines overturned auto as the body of the driver, Curil Dewar, lies atop roof of house in Holland Landing, Ontario. The freak accident occurred when Dewar tried to take a corner at high speed. The car flipped over several times, flinging Dewar onto the roof, ending its run upside down on the front lawn.

Laughs of the Day . . .

Chorley, England — (U.P.)—A railroad clerk sold 83 excursion tickets to the North Wales resort of Llandudno. Half an hour later he made 83 refunds when the train roared through the station without stopping.

Long Beach, Calif. — (U.P.)—Mrs. Corinne Fields ran in panic after she turned on her washing machine and heard screams and yowls. Police came to her aid and removed a cat, wet, but apparently un-injured.

Gouveia, Portugal — (U.P.)—Maria Coelho, 46, sprang from his bed at the crack of dawn and rushed out to rescue his herd of sheep from wolves. Only after falling off a high wall did he realize he had no sheep and there were no wolves. A fractured jaw and several bumps and bruises were his penalties for a too vivid dream.

Miami, Fla. — (U.P.)—Judge Charles H. Snowden found Mrs. Minerva Stein, 50, guilty of squirting her neighbor with a garden hose after a squabble and said her punishment would be as "childish as her act." He ordered Mrs. Stein home to write 1,000 times, "I will not squirt my neighbor with a garden hose," and to return in a week so he could "grade" her homework.

Durban, South Africa — (U.P.)—A girl feeding goldfish in the pond at Natal university discovered two crocodiles swimming among the fish. Male students told police they dumped the reptiles in the pond because they were getting too big to keep as pets in the bathtub. "They kept jumping out," one student explained.

New York — (U.P.)—Irving Benowitz purchased a painting at an auction but had trouble taking his purchase with him. He attempted to pull the painting from the wall. The frame came but the painting remained; it was a mural with a frame hung over it. Mr. Benowitz got his money back—$5.50.

Education Seen Aid To Alcohol Problem

Washington — (U.P.)—A leading physiologist says the nation's "teachers and preachers" are better able to wipe out alcoholism than doctors. Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, head of the Department of Clinical Sciences of the University of Illinois, Monday night told the Institute of Scientific Studies for Prevention of Alcoholism: "No medical formula will ever effectively prevent this self-inflicted disease. Drinkers and potential drinkers must be educated to avoid the problem. There is no real cure." Ivy called alcoholism the nation's number four public health problem and said it is the only one that is "100 per cent preventable."

Siletz Indian Tribes Get Final Payment

Portland — (U.P.)—Members of the Siletz Indian tribes have received their final payment from the government, marking the end of federal trust over the tribal members. The Siletz tribe is the first of six in the nation slated for termination under act of Congress. Checks totaling $512,732.50 were mailed out to the 939 members of the tribe in the final payments. Holdings of the tribe have been liquidated by the government through sale of land over the past two years.

Creswell Farmer Due Thursday With Waifs

Portland — (U.P.)—Harry Holt, the Creswell farmer who doubles as an immigration expediter for Korean orphans, is scheduled to arrive here Thursday with another group of Korean waifs headed for adoption in American homes. Holt is to land in Portland early Thursday with 20 to 25 orphans. The Creswell farmer has adopted eight orphans brought to this country earlier himself. Somerville, Mass. — (U.P.)—Thomas H. Joy has eight children — and a newly earned bachelor of law degree from Boston college. Joy had interrupted his law studies to become an accountant but later decided he'd rather be a lawyer and went back to school.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

Parris Island — S/Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon, sentenced to nine months at hard labor, a bad conduct discharge, reduction to private and fined $270 for leading six Marine recruits to their deaths in a night swamp march, on fellow Marines who presented him with a check for $275: "I can't say enough for those people, honest to God. The Marine Corps is full of guys like that. That's what makes it a great outfit."

Galveston, Tex. — Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias, champion athlete who has fought a courageous three-year battle against cancer, to her husband before undergoing a tough three-hour surgical operation Monday night: "We're not leading the league yet. Guess we'll have to play it off."

Chicago — Novelist William Faulkner writing on the racial problem in Ebony magazine as if he were a Negro: "I would say that our race must adjust itself psychologically not to an indefinite continuation of a segregated society, but rather to a continuation as long as necessary of that inflexible unflagging inflexibility which, in the end, will make the white man sick and tired of fighting it."

Santa Monica, Calif. — Gladys Robinson, who won an uncontested divorce and estimated $2,000,000 from actor Edward G. Robinson, on her son, Edward Jr., who pleaded innocent to drunk driving in an adjoining courtroom: "He's my son and I'll always love him and stand by him. He's a great actor and his father's a great actor. They're the greatest."

Atlanta — Eugene Cook, attorney general of Georgia, on his proposal for a Southern drive to liquidate the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People: "There is not time for shadow boxing if we are to preserve sovereign dignity as states under a republican form of government."
Chicago — Former Agriculture Secretary Claude R. Wickard to the Democratic platform committee on parity for farmers: "Farmers and those who depend upon them cannot return to prosperity until they receive for their crops a fair return—100 per cent of parity."
