

Newk Records Eighth Victory in Row As Brooklyn Trims Bucs; Braves Win

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Don Newcombe moved within range of two National League records today in his brilliant bid to pitch the Brooklyn Dodgers to another pennant.

Big Newk notched his third straight shutout, his eighth consecutive victory and his 17th win of the year Tuesday night in overpowering the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0. The win enabled the Dodgers to stay within 1 1/2 games of the first-place Milwaukee Braves, who beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-1, in an afternoon game.

Newcombe needs one more shutout to tie the league mark of four in a row shared by Mordecai Brown, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Ed Reulbach, Bill Lee and Sal Maglie, and his string of 33 consecutive scoreless innings gives him a shot at the league mark of 46-1-3, set by Carl Hubbell in 1933.

Snider Hits 31st

Newcombe struck out six and walked two as the Dodgers scored their sixth victory without a defeat at their "home away from home" in Jersey City. Duke Snider provided the big right-hander with the only scoring he needed when he walloped his 31st homer with a mate aboard in the third inning.

Warren Spahn contributed a homer to the Braves' 12-hit attack and Hank Aaron hit two singles to stretch his batting streak to 24 consecutive games. Spahn, scoring his 11th win, limited the Cubs to eight hits.

The St. Louis Cardinals, meanwhile, knocked the Cincinnati Redlegs three games off the Braves' pace when they rallied in the late innings for an 8-4 triumph. Bobby Morgan's pinch single with the bases filled and two out in the eighth put the Cardinals ahead, 6-4, and they added two more runs in the ninth. Wally Moon paced the Redbirds' attack with five hits.

Southpaw Harvey Haddix and Curt Simmons each scored his sixth straight triumph as the Philadelphia Phillies beat the New York Giants, 4-3, and 3-1. Stan Lopata singled home the winning run in the ninth inning of the opener, which the Giants protested because of a reversed umpire's decision in the ninth, while Simmons fired a four-hitter. The sweep stretched the Phillies' winning streak to five games — a club high for the year.

Boxing Edge Yanks

Ted Williams walked with the bases filled to break up a brilliant pitching duel and give the Boston Red Sox a 1-0 decision over the New York Yankees in an 11-inning thriller. Relief pitcher Tommy Byrne walked Williams after two Yankee errors and a walk by Don Larsen filled the bases. Willard Nixon limited the Yankees to four hits to win his sixth decision.

The Cleveland Indians reduced the Yankees' first-place lead to seven games when they snapped a four-game losing streak with a 5-2 triumph over the Detroit Tigers. Hal Naragon went four-for-four and Preston Ward three-for-four, including a homer for each, to help Mike Garcia win his eighth game. Garcia lost his shutout in the ninth when Ray Boone hit a two-run homer. Frank Lary was the loser.

The Chicago White Sox scored a pair of 10-inning victories over the Kansas City Athletics, winning the opener, 5-4, when Jim Rivera tripled home Walt Dropp and taking the nightcap, 4-3 when Dropp singled home Nelson Fox. Ellis Kinder and Paul LaPalme were the winning pitchers.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE SPORTS

Maddox Now Second In SO Loop Batting

Three men who only recently joined the list of eligibles have taken over the batting leadership of the Southern Oregon Baseball league while Derald Wootton, Medford, tops the pitching list with the only unbeaten mark among the twirlers who have victories to their credit.

STUDS' GAMES CANCELLED

Medford Cheney Studs, non-league series scheduled for next Saturday and Sunday here against Beaverton has been cancelled. Beaverton asked yesterday that the games be called off because of the conflict with the Oregon state tourney of the American Amateur Baseball congress in which it is participating.

There will be no games at the fairgrounds ball park here this Saturday and Sunday but the Studs will take on their farm club, the Cheney Colts, next Tuesday evening. Tentative plans are for the clubs to switch pitching staffs.

Favorites Go On In Senior Golf

Portland — (U.P.) — Most of the favorites made it through the opening round of match play in the Oregon Senior golf tourney yesterday but medalist Al Remlinger, Hood River, was pressed to 19 holes by C. R. Sumner of Portland Golf club before he won.

In class AA play, medalist Dr. R. F. Fox of Riverside was eliminated when C. H. Manlove of Waverley scored a 3 and 1 triumph.

In class A play, defending champion Marty Leptich of Riverside scored a 6 and 5 win over Harley Eckles to advance along with Remlinger.

One of the top upsets in the class A field was a 1 up win by Harry Mackey, Bend, over Dr. E. G. Quesneberry, Corvallis.

No Pee Wee Play-Off Set

There will be no Medford play-off with Grants Pass for the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league pee wee championship. Alex McDonald, head coach for the Medford school system's summer baseball program, stated today.

Medford Wildcats defeated the Medford Tigers on Monday to knot with Central Point for the southern division mantle with eight wins and two losses each. Central Point's program is through for the summer preventing a play-off with the Wildcats.

McDonald said also that the Grants Pass league has been playing 13-year-old boys, who are ineligible according to SOJB rules. GP arranged a game between its championship team and all-stars.

The summer baseball instruction here ends on Friday with intramural games. Thursday will be contest day with sliding and throwing competition. Trophies will go to winners among the cubs, intermediates and pee wees and baseballs to sandblower victors.

Coleman Tops Shooters In 16-Yard Trap Event

Ray Coleman broke 97 targets and Martin Clogston 95 out of 100 at 16 yards in Sunday shooting at Medford Gun club and M. L. Spikes had 72 out of 75.

Coleman and Spikes broke 25 straight handicap birds. In doubles Charles Bendell had 22 for 24 and at skeet Clogston shot 47 out of 50 and Bert Peck 21 for 25.

Twenty-five shooters shattered 2,300 targets Sunday. Some all-yellow targets were used and more will be sprung at the next shoot on Aug. 19.

Quarter-Finals Gained by Quast

Seattle — (U.P.) — Anne Quast, pert University of Washington student, moved into the quarter finals of the Washington State Women's Amateur golf tourney today after downing Mrs. C. H. Fenema of Seattle, 8 and 5 yesterday.

In other action yesterday, Mrs. Ray Clark of Yakima advanced with a 3 and 2 win over Mrs. E. T. Pope, Seattle.

Legion Title Play Evened By Roseburg

Roseburg — (U.P.) — Roseburg pressed the American Legion baseball playoffs down to the wire last night as they scored a 13-inning 5-4 win over The Dalles to even up the best-of-five series at two games apiece.

Final game of the state finals is scheduled tonight at the Roseburg field when The Dalles attempts to come back and grab its second consecutive state title.

In last night's game, both clubs managed four runs in the nine inning distance, then had to go four additional frames before Roseburg pushed across a tally in the bottom of the 13th with two away.

Bill Oeding, in to relieve starter Dick Smith in the tenth for Roseburg, took the win. John Heldt worked ten for The Dalles before giving way to Bill Booth.

Both clubs tallied once in the first inning. The Dalles added two in the third and Roseburg tied it up again in the sixth.

Roseburg moved ahead in the seventh with a lone run only to have The Dalles match it in the eighth.

Sam Baker Joins 'Skins

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Sam Baker, former Oregon State star fullback, has rejoined the Washington Redskins after attempting to play Canadian pro football.

Baker reported to the Redskins' training camp at Occidental yesterday and immediately was assigned to play with the West against the East tomorrow night in the annual intrasquad game.

The fleet-footed back originally was signed with the Rams in 1952 but was traded to Washington. In the middle of his 1953 season with the Redskins, he was called into service and assigned to Ft. Ord. Following his recent discharge, he joined the Toronto Argonauts for the coming season but didn't like the change and negotiated his release to return to the Redskins.

PLAY-OFF SPOT COLTS' GOAL IN MIX WITH GP

Duane Sides, ex-Medford high school chucker, may be on the mound tonight when the Cheney Colts tussle the Grants Pass Merchants at the fairgrounds ball park here.

The engagement will be a Rogue Valley league counting baseball fracas. First pitch in the encounter is planned for 8 p.m.

Manager Harry Tonn said that Don LaBeau, who turned in a fine game at Cave Junction last Sunday, may be at third base tonight. Otherwise the lineup should be just about the same as Tonn has announced for past recent scuffles.

Gift Tallies Featured in NWL Tussles

By RAY ANDREWS

They gave away runs like the master of ceremonies hands out cash in a quiz show in the Northwest League last night.

The biggest harvest was at Kennewick where the Eugene Emeralds topped Tri-City 11-4 with 10 of the runs of the unearned variety.

Faced with such prosperity, Terry Loy tossed an eight-hitter and coasted home.

Salem also was in a generous mood and banded the Spokane Indians two gift markers. Bill Bottler, who pitched 5-hit ball, made them stand up for a 2-1 Spokane decision.

Ball Sifts Through

Spokane got one in the eighth when Joe Rossi crossed from third with two out on an error.

In the ninth, the Indians scored when Ron Jackson walked and came across as Frank Szekula left George Huffman's single to right sift through him.

Bottler received credit for his 12th win against 9 losses. Jerry Cade was the loser and is now 9-11. It was a tough one for Cade who fanned 12 hitters.

Bob Wilson's solo homer touched off a 3-run rally in the third to lead Yakima to a 4-2 decision over Wenatchee. Herb Anderson of the Chiefs hit a solo homer in the third for one of Wenatchee's two markers.

Chuck Lybeck of Wenatchee sparked in relief although in a losing cause. He entered in the fourth and pitched no-hit ball the rest of the way, fanning six hitters in the process.

Final Action Slated On PC Grid Penalties

Portland, Ore. — (U.P.) — Faculty representatives of the Pacific Coast conference met today with the presidents' council to take final action on penalties meted out to four member schools for illegal aid to athletes.

For the past two days, the faculty representatives have been reviewing the penalties and self-evaluation reports submitted by the nine schools.

Dean Released By Beaver Club

Portland — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers yesterday handed Jay Dean, former Oregon State star, his outright release. Dean had been on option to the Beavers farm club at Eugene in the Northwest league.

Dr. Glenn Seaborg, PCC spokesman and University of California representative, said the faculty representatives wanted to make sure that all the penalties were justified and that they provided "equitable treatment for all concerned."

Seaborg declined to say whether the self-evaluation reports from the schools disclosed any new violations. He also refused to say if there was any new information on the four schools already hit by the penalties.

Asked if the meetings were

Shrine Football Squad Members Visit Hospital

Portland — (U.P.) — The State and Metropolitan squads returned to their respective practice fields today admittedly more determined than ever to "shoot the works" in the 9th annual Shriners' hospital all-star football game Aug. 18 in Multnomah stadium.

Inspired by their two-hour visit yesterday afternoon to the Shriners' hospital here, the 24-man squads hustled through brisk workouts this morning and scheduled another session for this afternoon.

The players talked with young patients of the hospital, signed autographs on casts and answered questions on the fine points of playing football.

Although the hospital visit meant a holiday from practice, the state coaches, Pete Susick of State and Brad Eklund of Gresham, agreed that the experience would prove more valuable than any lessons that could be learned on the field.

Twice-a-day workouts will be the rule for both teams during the remainder of this week and probably for the early part of next week.

Football Clinic Next Wednesday

Portlander Scores Aqua Meet Upset

Detroit, Mich. — (U.P.) — A pair of Portland, Ore., swimmers pulled two of the major surprises here yesterday as the final trials for spots on the U.S. Olympic team opened a four-day run.

Carol Everett, Portland, defeated Wanda Werner, national free style champion from Washington, D.C., in one of the preliminary heats to take a long step toward an Olympic berth.

Carol McKelligon, Portland, finished third in a field of eight qualifiers for the 200-meter breast stroke finals.

Detroit — (U.P.) — Five finals were scheduled for today in the Olympic swimming and diving trials, and head Coach Robert Muir said he hoped they all turn out as well for U.S. chances as did Tuesday night's 100-meter finals in which Bill Woolsey, Dick Hanley and Reid Patterson won places on the team.

In Tuesday's only other final, the Ohio State trio of Don Harper, Glen Whitten and Bob Cloutworthy became the first members of the 46-person team by taking the top places in the three-meter springboard diving.

Today's finals are the women's three-meter springboard diving in the afternoon, and the men's 200-meter butterfly, women's 200-meter breaststroke in the evening session at the 50-meter, eight-lane Brennan Pool.
