Presbyterian Women Plan Annual Tea; Harpist to Play

One of the large events of this week will be the annual silver tea of Women's association of First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon. It will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, 222 Valley View drive, and will feature a program by a Eugene harpist and three local musicians.

Hours of the tea are from 2 to 5 o'clock and all women of the church, their friends and guests are invited to attend. The tea is given each year to raise funds to buy expensive "miracle drugs" and supplies for mission hospital work in this country and abroad.

Miss Sally Calkins is the harpist who will play for the tea. Miss Calkins is the daughter of Mrs. Windsor Calkins, instructor of harp at the University of Oregon who has played in Medford in years past. Miss Calkins studied this past year in Paris with Mlle. Henriette Renie. Mlle. Renie, who died last year, was considered the world's greatest harpist.

Background music will be provided by Miss Priscilla West, Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Miss Lisbeth Shields.

General chairman is Mrs. Stanley Lacy, and assisting chairmen are Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, who is in charge of the musical program, Mrs. William McAllister and Mrs. William Farrell.

Greeting guests at the door with Mrs. Durno will be Mrs. D. Kirkland West, wife of the pastor of the church, their daughters, Miss Priscilla and Miss Ellen West, and Mrs. Glenn Harrison, president of the Women's association, sponsoring organization.

Pouring during the afternoon will be Mrs. Hugh Collins, Mrs. Bert B. Lowry, Mrs. G. T. Haupt, Mrs. Glenn Taylor, Mrs. Bert R. Elliott and Mrs. Lester Harris.

Assisting as hostesses during the afternoon will be officers of the association and the chairman of the various circles. These will include Mrs. Jack Edson, Mrs. Aubrey Norris, Mrs. Jack Sides, Mrs. M. H. Parsons, Mrs. Scott Davis, Mrs. Raymond Hall, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. E. J. DeVoe, Mrs. George Osler, Mrs. Robert Stokes, Mrs. James Rowan, Mrs. Kenneth Cook, Mrs. Walter Roemer, Mrs. Ronald Cordon, Mrs. Charles W. Lemery and Mrs. Chandler Drew.

Several young women of the church of college age will also assist in serving and Mrs. Hazel Baker will be in charge of the guest book.

Myrtle Creek Reunion Planned
The annual Myrtle Creek reunion will be held Sunday, August 19, at Benton Lane, park at noon. A potluck meal will be served with coffee and ice cream furnished. The park is north of Eugene on the Corvallis highway. Each family is asked to bring its own dishes and silverware.

Henry F. English of Portland is president. Dan Cardwell of Eugene, vice-president, and Mrs. Eddie Burr of Portland is secretary-treasurer for the reunion. Those wishing to receive notice of each year's meeting may send their name and address to Mrs. Eddie Burr, 5042 Southwest Corbett, Portland.
