Theta Rho Girls' Club Institutes Charter Here

Omicron chapter of Theta Rho Girls' club of Oregon was instituted in Medford Saturday, August 4, at ceremonies held in Medford IOOF hall. Theta Rho is an organization for girls and young women sponsored by the Rebekah lodge.

The group is actually a revival of Theta Rho here since Omicron chapter was organized and operated for several years in the late 1930's and early 1940's.

Fourteen girls were initiated Saturday afternoon at a special meeting in the lodge hall. Beta Sigma of Theta Rho Girls conducted the initiation, assisted by members of Beta Chi club, Central Point. The Ashland members were accompanied by their advisor, Mrs. Elna May Gibson.

The institution was conducted by Mrs. Isabelle Hall, Waldport, vice-chairman of the joint youth committee, jurisdiction of Oregon, of the IOOF and Rebekah lodges. She was assisted by Mrs. Stella LeManquis, Ashland, Southern Oregon representative of the youth committee, as instituting marshal, and Miss Caroline Leaders of Olive Rebekah lodge, Medford, as musician.

Mrs. J. D. Brummond, noble grand of Olive Rebekah lodge, gave the address of welcome and the response was by Miss Gladys Barger, Beta Tau club, Grants Pass.

Installation of officers for Omicron club was conducted by Miss Virginia Callahan, Myrtle Creek, president of Theta Rho assembly in Oregon. She was assisted by Mrs. R. L. Winn, Ashland, who served as marshal. Mrs. Winn is a charter member of the original Omicron club.

Miss Pat Gibson of the Ashland chapter was installing chaplain, and Miss Leaders again served as musician.

Taking office for the Medford club were Miss Lou Ann Thomasson, president; Miss Kathryn Stewart, vice-president; Miss Joyce Gilinsky, secretary; Miss Barbara Burton, treasurer; Miss Beverly Tosh, chaplain; Miss Sharon Knight, marshal; Miss Charlene Schrader, warden; Miss Patricia Peck, conductor; Miss Virginia Thomasson, inside guardian; Miss Annice Black, outside guardian; Miss Sharon Thomas, right supporter to president; Miss Bette Cline, right supporter to vice president; Miss Barbara Beer and Miss Phyllis Williams, heralds.

Mrs. Jesse Thomasson was presented her commission as advisor of Omicron chapter, and Mrs. Riley Applegate was commissioned assistant advisor.

Harley Looney, Portland, chairman of the joint youth committee, addressed the assembly. He spoke on the history and purpose of Theta Rho club. Other members of the committee present were Mrs. Hall, vice-chairman; Mrs. Looney, Mrs. LeManquis and William H. Thompson, Portland.

Distinguished guests included Robert Massey, Salem, past master of the IOOF lodge in Oregon; Wilford Beard, Salem, grand warden; George Naderman, Salem, past grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment.

Several gifts were presented to the new group. Medford FL club presented an altar cloth, Table Rock encampment a pair of gavel, Beta Sigma chapter gave its sister group a pair of candle holders and the joint youth committee presented a basket tray. The Theta Rho assembly gave the new group a guest book, and Mrs. LeManquis presented the girls a visitors' register.

Lodge Sponsors Square Dancing For Children

Medford lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose has planned a series of square dance instructions for all children in this area, from fifth grade through junior high ages. The series will begin Thursday night, September 13; hours are 7 to 8 p.m.

Dancing will be at the Moose hall, located at 11 Newtown st. Moose lodge officers believe that "this wholesome recreation will be well accepted by the children and their parents."

There is no charge for the children.

Registration of the children is being accepted now, and it is suggested that they sign up early, inasmuch as the first series will be limited to the first 120 youngsters to register. They may call 3-3171 during the day, or 3-3475 to register or for further information may write Square Dance, 222 West Sixth street, Medford.

A program of music was given during the evening. Miss Pat Gibson, Miss Neva Thompson and Miss Ruth Monckton, a trio of Ashland members, sang and Miss Linda Abel, Grants Pass, played accordion numbers.

Following the evening ceremony refreshments were served by Mrs. John Daniel and Mrs. Donald M. Ivie. The floral arrangements which decorated the hall were the work of Mrs. F. A. Daugherty.

The new group will have its first meeting Monday, August 13, at the Odd Fellows hall at 7 p.m.

Pretty Dessert
For a picture pretty dessert that tastes as good as it looks, place a bright carnation or similar flower in the center of a cake plate and surround with gle perfect roses in the center of a cake plate and surround with snowy white wedges of cheese case. Place springs of fresh mint between the wedges and around the edge of the plate.

Fancy Biscuits
Before popping packaged baking powder biscuits into the oven, try topping them with shredded onions, poppy seeds or caraway. The flavors will bake right into the biscuits. Wedges of hot coffee cake, served in place of bread or rolls, add a special touch to a favorite summer fruit salad plate.
