

Milwaukee Keeps First Place Margin as Burdette Pitches Third Victory Over Redlegs

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

A pitcher for every occasion—that's Fred Haney's formula for keeping the Milwaukee Braves on top in the torrid National league pennant race.

Bob Buhl is the key man with six straight victories over the Dodgers and Lew Burdette's No. 1 boy when it comes to handling the slugger Cincinnati Redlegs. Burdette did it for the third time without a loss Sunday when he beat the Redlegs, 8-2, and enabled the Braves to hold their 1½ game first-place lead.

Burdette, raising his record to 14-7, pitched a five-hitter as the Braves raised their season's edge over the Redlegs to 8-4. They've beaten the Redlegs eight of their last 10 meetings during which they've allowed Cincinnati slugger a total of 28 runs—or just 2.8 per game.

The Braves backed Burdette with an eight-hit attack that included two-run singles by Bill Bruton and Bobby Thompson. The assault kayped 16-game winner Brooks Lawrence in 5 2-3 innings and handed him his fifth loss in his last seven decisions. Dodgers Keep Pace

The second-place Dodgers kept pace with the Braves when they walked four homers in routing Robin Roberts and beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-3. Carl Furillo hit two round-trippers and Randy Jackson and Peeewe Reese one each as Roger Craig received credit for his 11th win. The loss was Roberts' 12th compared to 14 victories.

Jim King knocked in three runs with a homer and a bases-filled single to lead the Chicago Cubs to a 6-2 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals and the teams then battled to a scoreless deadlock in the second game of their doubleheader. Stan Musial doubled in the sixth inning of the opener to the Mel Ott's National league mark of 1,071. Extra base hits but it wasn't enough to deprive Bob Rush of his 11th victory. Herman Wehmeier and Jim Davis both matched shutout pitching until the nightcap was halted by darkness after nine innings.

Bill Virdon's two-run, fourth-inning triple gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 victory over the New York Giants and the Bucs then pounded out 17 hits to complete a sweep of the doubleheader with an 11-3 decision. Fred Waters received credit for his second victory and contributed a three-run triple to the Pirates' biggest attack of the campaign. Vern Law picked up his fifth triumph in the opener. Mickey Homers Again

Mickey Mantle slammed his 41st homer to go 13 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace as the New York Yankees beat the Baltimore Orioles, 6-2 and 5-2, to increase their American league lead to 8½ games. Mantle, who knocked in three runs in the opener, scored the decisive run of the nightcap on a single by Bill Skowron. Don Larsen and Bob Turley were the winning pitchers.

The second-place Cleveland Indians beat the Kansas City Athletics, 6-3, when Rocky Colavito smashed a three-run homer in the eighth inning. Herb Score struck out 14 batters to raise his season total to 182 and record his 12th victory. Bobby Avila also homered for the Indians.

The Washington Senators made it nine wins in 13 games with the third-place Boston Red Sox when they beat them, 8-2, with the aid of Jim Lemon's 20th homer. Bud Byerly picked up his first American league win as the Senators rapped four Red Sox pitchers for 14 hits.

Billy Hoefl fanned six and pitched an eight-hitter to give the Detroit Tigers a 5-2 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. Frank Bolling's three-run homer was the difference as Billy Pierce suffered his fifth loss against 17 wins.

Lemley Nabs Main Event

Wayne Lemley drove to victory Saturday night in the hard-top main event of auto races at Valley View speedway.

It was a fence busting affair with Cecil James placing second and Waymon Core third. Two California skippered cars went through the south fence.

Stock main was won by Chuck Davis and the hardtop semi-main by Lou Kurz who also took a heat race. Lemley also took a heat along with the main. Hard-top trophy race was won by Crock Hunter and the stock trophy by Doyle Lemley. James captured one heat.

Rusty Phillips followed Kurz in the semi-main and Joe Ellison took third.

Camp White Crew Spills Glendale 8-5 in RV Loop

Drew and Nelson got singles. There were two walks and a fielder's option in the game. In the five-run eighth for Glendale, B. Woolton homered, Monty Bates doubled and Bob George, John Snelling and Tooly singled. A fielder's choice and error figured in the innings.

Woolton hit three times in four times at bat for Camp White. Marris hit three for five and Burns socked two for five with his homer and triple. Snelling got two hits and George and Bates two for Glendale.

Camp White's confident baseball aggregation pulled the upset of the Rogue Valley league season yesterday and stayed in the running for a berth in the season end play-offs.

The Whitters, holding the Millers scoreless for seven straight innings, defeated the league leading Glendale crew 8 to 5. That held them in fifth place with Ashland and the two clubs are still in the scrap for a tie for fourth place in the loop.

Ashland helped its cause by defeating Eagle Point 6 to 1 yesterday while Cave Junction, helped by four home runs, pounded Butte Falls 29 to 4 to move back into second place tie with Butte Falls.

Glendale's lead over Cave Junction and Grants Pass was cut to one game by the loss to Camp White.

The Whitters had all their runs Sunday before Glendale finally dented the home rubber in the eighth inning. Bob Nelson limited the Millers to only five hits in the first seven innings as the leaders went scoreless.

Camp White picked up two runs in the opening inning on a double by Eldon Francis, a two-bagger by Dick Wooton, a base on balls and a ground out. A single by Chuck Marris, two walks and an error gave CW a run in the second inning. In the seventh Camp White got five scores, Jack Burns homered with two men on base. Francis, John

Rizzuto Replaces Frisch on Show
New York—(U.P.)—Shortstop Phil Rizzuto of the New York Yankees will replace ailing Frank Frisch on a television interview show following tonight's game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Giants. The show will serve as an audition for a Baltimore station, which hopes to interest Rizzuto in a broadcasting career next season.

Flycaster Has Perfect Score
San Francisco—(U.P.)—Clem Forcade, a St. Louis, Mo., rod and reel expert, won the woffly accuracy contest at the 48th annual National Fly and Plug Casting tournament Sunday with an unprecedented and perfect 600x600 score.

In the initial competition, Forcade tied with five other experts with 100x100 scores. In ensuing castoffs, the other competitors dropped out one by one until the end of the sixth round when the St. Louis expert alone had a perfect score.

Marion Garber, 1955 all-round distance and accuracy champion from Toledo, Ohio, successfully defended his title in the final day of casting Sunday which ended the five-day event.

Casper Rigamer, of Metairie, La., won the all-accuracy championship which is determined by scores in the wet and dry fly casting events and the ½-ounce and ¾-ounce accuracy plug competition. Rigamer cast 99 in each event for a 396x400 score which set a new National Association record.

DOG RACING OPENS
Portland—(U.P.)—Dog racing in Portland opens at the Portland Meadows race track tonight and is scheduled to continue through Oregon State fair early next month.

Sugar Ray Tells Break With IBC

New York—(U.P.)—Sugar Ray Robinson claimed a national break with the International Boxing Club today and said his middleweight title defense against Gene Fullmer would be made in California next month under independent promotion.

But Managing Director Harry Markson of the IBC declared: "Robinson's not walking out on us. He's actually walking out on Fullmer. He's afraid to defend against Gene and he's done everything possible to get out of the match."

Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, became top contender on May 25 by winning a lop-sided decision over Charles Humez of France.

Promoter Jim Norris of the IBC has been negotiating the Robinson-Fullmer match for several weeks. Norris' efforts were intensified after Aug. 3, when physicians ruled out the Archie Moore-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title fight for Sept. 25 because of Patterson's fractured right hand.

Since the Robinson-Fullmer match ranks next to the heavyweight title fight as an attraction, Norris wanted to substitute it at Yankee Stadium, Sept. 25. But last Thursday the promoter declared, "We've reached a road block because of Robinson's demands for a big guarantee from the theatre-television money."

However, Robinson put the shoe on the other foot today when he told his "definite and permanent" break with the IBC "because Norris wants all the money."

Sugar Ray, 35, made the announcement at this training camp at nearby Greenwood Lake, N.Y., where he has been conditioning for three weeks and sparring for four days.

The 160-pound champion said he expected to close "before tomorrow night" for a defense against Fullmer at Los Angeles or San Francisco, Sept. 24 or 25. Bill Kyne would be the promoter at San Francisco, or Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eaton could stage the show in Los Angeles, if they straightened out "certain difficulties" with the California Boxing commission.

Bill Dellinger Married Sunday

Cheney Club Near SOL Diadem; Studs, Colts Vie Here Tuesday

Cheney Studs-Colts game at the fairgrounds ball park here. Both men are on the Studs' hurling staff. Managers Jack Cooney of the Studs and Harry Toon of the Colts indicated previously that they would pool their squads to make an interesting affair of it for fans. It was not known this morning just how the combined squads would be redivided.

Game time will be 8 p.m. Since Catchers Frank Roelandt and Tiger Bob Smith of the Studs are on vacations, Howard Morris and Doy Gatlin of the Colts likely will be opposing catchers. Smith is not to appear with the Studs in their series next week. He is entering military service soon.

Return of Twink Pederson, Studs' shortstop, who hurt his knee in the Coos Bay-North Bend series last week end has been announced. All players on hand on both rosters are expected to see service. The Colts are a farm club of the Studs.

RV Girls, Reno Split

Eagle Point — Rogue Valley girls' softball team wound up its season Saturday night by dividing with Sierra Sports, Reno, Nev. here.

Sierra won the opener 14 to 9 and Rogue Valley the finale 7 to 6. The split gave the RV nine a record of 23 wins and eight losses for the season.

Reno picked up five runs in the first inning and seven in the fifth in the opener. Pat Barron had three hits in four times up for Rogue Valley. Bernice Bigham slammed a triple, and Pat Schroeder a double for the home team. Holland hit two for three for Sierra and Helen Wolgamott socked a triple.

Barron had a two for three swatting mark for the second game giving her five for seven for the evening.

Richardson Net Winner

South Orange, N.J.—(U.P.)—Australia is generally recognized as the top breeding ground for young tennis players, but don't try to sell that argument to Hamilton Richardson.

The freckle-faced Rhodes scholar from Louisiana turned into a real "Aussie killer" during his march to the Eastern Grass Courts championships, which he climaxed Sunday by defeating Neale Fraser, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2, in the title round.

Before meeting the southpaw-swinging Fraser, Richardson polished off Roy Emerson, Ken Rosewall and Ashley Cooper in successive rounds. All four of these players are ranked just back of Wimbledon champion Lew Hoad in the Australian national rankings.

In the women's final, Althea Gibson of New York turned back former National Champion Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-1, 6-3.

Harris Captures Title in Skeet

Reno, Nev.—(U.P.)—Titus Harris Jr., of Galveston, Tex., won the high all-around title in the 1956 National Skeet tournament Saturday.

Harris defeated Ed Calhoun of Salisbury, Md., and Andy Laird of Stockton, Calif., in a shoot-off after the three tied at 542x550.

Jack Horner, 18-year-old San Francisco college student, won the all-gauge skeet title at 250 straight. He also teamed with 18-year-old Judy Allen of Oakland, Calif., to win the two-man team crown at 496x500.

Bruise on Wrist Sidelines Kell

New York—(U.P.)—George Kell of the Baltimore Orioles suffered a severe bruise of the right wrist when hit by a pitched ball Sunday in the first game of a doubleheader with the New York Yankees. The veteran third baseman will be sidelined two or three days.

BABE RUTH AREA VICTOR

Stockton, Calif.—(U.P.)—Huntington Park, Calif., won the Babe Ruth Pacific Southwest regional championship with a 6-0 victory over Reno, Nev., Sunday and will represent the region in the "World Series" at Portland, next week end.

Oregon City, Eugene Win

Mill City—(U.P.)—Eugene and Oregon City scored second-round victories yesterday in the state softball tournament here. Eugene blanked Springfield 6-0 while Oregon City edged Mill City 2-1.

Corvallis dropped a 1-0 decision to Salem and Sheridan lost to Klamath Falls 6-2 in losers' bracket games. Corvallis and Sheridan were knocked out of the tourney.

B Gridders Start Drills

Kroll, Hagge Annex "World" Links Togas

Chicago—(U.P.)—Carole Jo Kessler of Sutherlin, Ore., shot an 89 yesterday to finish with 323 which was 14 strokes off the pace set by Annie Richardson of Columbus, O., in the women's amateur "World" golf tourney.

Chicago—(U.P.)—Ted Kroll turned on the yellow light with three holes to play, but his initial acceleration put him so far in front he picked up golf's biggest single prize, $50,000 cash, for a victory in Tam O'Shanter's "World" tournament.

"I started to play cautiously on the 16th hole," Kroll said after his final round. "I knew that I could bogie the hole. I didn't want to, make five. I knew I was 15 under and that 12 under was the best score ahead of me, so I was playing to come in and beat that."

Even coasting he scored a final round 66, six under par, and registered 273, 15 under par, for the 72 holes to spread-eagle his challengers and win by three strokes over Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., who had a final 67 for 276.

The win for Kroll, four-times wounded in World War II who gained his first major tourney victory, might be worth as much as $150,000. In addition to the cash prize, the tourney sponsor offered a contract calling for a minimum of $50,000 for exhibitions at $1,000 per appearance and possibly providing for 100 shows.

Jerry Luedee Foe Of Willie Troy

New York—(U.P.)—Jolting Jerry Luedee, middleweight dynamer of New Haven, Conn., seeks a reversal against somewhat fragile Willie Troy of Washington, D.C., tonight in their return 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

Their bout over a Dumont network, is the only television fight this week because of the Democratic convention at Chicago.

BOWLING WOMEN'S CLASSIC LEAGUE

Women's Classic league will hold its first meeting of the new season on Tuesday, Aug. 14, at the Girls' Community club at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Fred Beck, president, said that attendance of all league members and all interested new bowlers is important. Rules and regulations for 1956-1957 play will be discussed and voted upon.

TAKES SWIM TITLE

Kelowna, B.C.—(U.P.)—The Vancouver, B.C., amateur swimming club walked off with an easy aggregate point victory Saturday as the Canadian northwest swimming championships wound up at Kelowna, B.C. The Vancouver club totaled up a comfortable 411 points, well ahead of its nearest competitor, the Everett, Wash., YMCA with 196.
