

Redlegs Sweep Twinbill From Chicago On Long Hitting, Workhorse Pitching

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Cincinnati's pennant platform, founded on the long ball and only a short rest for all pitchers, received a rousing vote today from 2,334 Democratic convention delegates who went out to the old ball game and saw the Redlegs bounce back to within 2½ games of the National league lead.

The delegates were part of a crowd of 15,874 fans who flocked out to Whiskey field in Chicago Wednesday and watched the Redlegs sweep a doubleheader from the Cubs, 4-3, in a 15-inning opener and 7-3 in the nightcap which was limited to six innings because of darkness.

Ed Bailey, Wally Post and Smoky Burgess each homered during the twin-bill, with Post's grand slam circuit proving the clincher in the nightcap.

Johnny Klippstein and Art Fowler, the two winning pitchers, both worked with only one day's rest.

Spahn Defeats Cards
Southpaw Warren Spahn of the league-leading Milwaukee Braves turned in a five-hit effort to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals for his 13th win of the season. Ray Katt put the Cards ahead with a third inning homer with the bases empty. But the Braves scored two runs in the fourth. Johnny Logan drove in another in the fifth and Danny O'Connell's single produced the final Milwaukee run in the seventh.

Johnny Antonelli turned in his best job of the year in hurling the New York Giants to a 1-0 decision over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Antonelli gave up only two hits and received all the margin he needed when Willie Mays blasted his 21st homer off Don Newcombe in the fourth inning.

Ronnie Kline's five-hit pitching, coupled with a four-run rally in the eighth inning, carried Pittsburgh to a 3-1 victory over Philadelphia. Jack Meyer of the Phils nursed a 1-0 lead until the eighth when the Pirates pushed across their four runs.

The runaway Yankees lengthened their American league lead to 10½ games with a 6-4 conquest over the Red Sox.

Yanks Break Tie
In beating Boston ace Tom Brewer for the sixth straight time, in his career, the Yanks broke a 3-3 tie with a three-run rally in the seventh inning. Hank Bauer singled home the tie-breaking run and Billy Martin followed with a two-run double.

Frank Lary held the Cleveland Indians to six scattered hits in defeating veteran Bob Lemon and leading the Detroit Tigers to a 1-0 win. The only run came in the eighth when Bill Tuttle singled and rode home on Harvey Kuenn's double.

Dick Donovan, a disappointment most of the season for the White Sox, limited the Athletics to two hits in a 10-0 romp. The White Sox shelled three Kansas City pitchers for 15 hits, including homers by Minnie Minoso, Sherm Lollar and Sam Esposito.

Vancouver Perks Up To Trounce Angels; Beavers Nick Seals

By JOHN McDONALD
United Press Sports Writer
The Los Angeles Angels can start hoisting the Pacific Coast league pennant over Wrigley Field—but there's still a rough battle ahead for the loop coal bin.

The Vancouver Mounties, determined to finish higher than eighth position, where they've wallowed all season, battered the league-leading Angels 14-4 last night, crashing out 16 hits and proving once again they're easily the most improved club in the league.

The sinking San Francisco Seals continued their tailspin toward the bottom losing in 11 innings to the Portland Beavers 4-3, leaving them in seventh place three games ahead of the Mounties.

In the other games, the Sacramento Solons swept a pair from the Hollywood Stars, 3-2 and 1-0 after nine frames of the scheduled seven-inning nightcap, and the Seattle Rainiers won their first start under new skipper Bill Brenner with a 9-4 pasting of San Diego.

The Mounties, desperately short of pitchers but showing champion power at the plate, have now won 11 of 16 games this month while the fading Seals have dropped 12 out of 14.

Jim Westlake and Jim Pisoni rapped homers and both drove in four runs to lead the Mountie onslaught yesterday trimming the Angels' lead to 11½ games over second-place Seattle.

Westlake bashed his round-tripper in the second with two aboard and the Canadians eventually scored seven times in the frame to put it away.

Arcata Drag Club To Vie Here Sunday

An Arcata, Calif., club is expected to be well represented Sunday when the Southern Oregon Timing association holds its third drag races of the season Sunday at West Camp White.

The club is to be entered in several events. Large delegations are expected also from Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Ashland and Redding, Calif.

Time trials will be at 10 a.m. with entries closing at noon and the first drags at 1 p.m. Entries, it is believed will exceed those of the two previous races. Trophies will go to first place winner in all classes and for top eliminators for autos and motorcycles.

No Charge
There will be no charge for admission of spectators. The drag strip is seven miles north of Medford off Crater lake highway.

Waivers releasing SOTA from liability are required of all contestants. Entrants under 21 years of age are required to have waivers made out by parents or guardians. A handwritten release witnessed by two persons other than parent or guardian is acceptable.

Information on the SOTA may be obtained by addressing communications to PO Box 101, Medford.

Junior Handicap Links Tourney Finals Reached

Gerry Gastineau Jr. will oppose Joe Anderson in the boys' final and Garner Hauptert will take on Chris Rasmussen in the pee wee finale of a junior handicap golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club.

Gastineau defeated Tony Monroe 5 and 4 and Anderson downed Pete Rasmussen by the same score in semi-finals. Hauptert subdued Ray Haysell 3 and 1 and Rasmussen beat Doug Olson to gain the title play.

Cheney Studs Await Coquille SOL Series

Medford Cheney Studs will pull out all stops and go all-out Saturday and Sunday at the fairgrounds baseball diamond here. A clear cut championship in the semi-pro Southern Oregon league is at stake.

The Studs are hosts to the Coquille Legends in their final three-game series of the SOL season. Games are at 1:45 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday.

Only one victory in the three games is claimed by the Cheney nine to claim lone possession of the title, which would be their first in the present SOL. A sweep of the series by Coquille would give Drain a first place deadlock with the Studs in the final standings. Drain's Black Sox have completed their loop slate with a 14-10 record while Medford's standing is 14-10.

Waterfowl Fall Flights Loom Good

Fall flight prospects are good as the 1956 waterfowl breeding season continues to shape up as one of the best in recent years.

Saskatchewan appears to be heading the duck production race with Alberta a close second and Manitoba in show position.

Southward flights of ducks and geese should keep hunters happy in all flyways.

These are observations from the August issue of the Ducks Unlimited "Duckological," prepared by chief naturalist Bert W. Cartwright.

The report reveals that mallards and pintails are now largely on the wing and most of the later-nesting species will have their young flying in "the next week or ten days." It also stresses the fact that new broods are still appearing on a daily basis and that some going nests are still to hatch.

In southern Alberta, where the drought conditions have intensified, the irrigation-fed projects of Ducks Unlimited are at full supply level and heavily populated by ducks and Canada Geese. Other parts of the foothills' province are unaffected by drought and production is average. Saskatchewan has done very well throughout the province and Manitoba is producing at average rate with many late broods.

Banding operations by Ducks Unlimited have enjoyed considerable success. A record total of more than 5,000 ducks were banded on the Kutawagan-Pel lake projects in the Wynyard district of eastern Saskatchewan. Operations are still in progress in southern Alberta, where some 1,400 ducks and 62 Canada Geese had been banded at last report.

Annual aerial survey of northern areas by Ducks Unlimited is scheduled to commence Aug. 27. Results will be available in the next issue of the Duckological.

J. Stinnette Touchdowns In West Win

Memphis, Tenn. (U.P.)—Halfback Billy Cannon, Baton Rouge, La., burst through for two first half touchdowns Wednesday night to pace the West to a 23-7 victory in the All-America high school football game.

A crowd of 9,162 saw Cannon and Texas quarterback Charles Milstead, Tyler, and Larry Dueitt, Corpus Christi, guide the West to its first win in eight starts.

The East, which had won six and tied one in this prep classic, couldn't get its attack rolling until late in the third quarter when Larry Biel, Center Line, Mich., took over at quarterback.

Bielat passed twice to end David Hudson, Pensacola, Fla., for 51 yards in an 80-yard drive that provided the East's only tally.

Halfback Cowboy Woodruff, Batesville, Miss., went over on the one-yard line for the score with nine minutes left.

Hudson kicked the extra point. Five Big Guns
Cannon, Dueitt, Milstead, fullback Nathan Smith, Torrance, Calif., and guard Mike Wright, Minneapolis, were the big guns for the West.

Cannon scored three and a half minutes after the opening whistle, climaxing a 56-yard drive. Cannon then kicked the extra point.

Milstead's interception of a pass by the East's Harvey White, Greenwood, S. C., set up the West's second touchdown. Cannon went over 12 plays later from the five.

Thirty-five seconds before the half ended, the West moved for another score. Milstead kicking a field goal from the 17 after Bob Hain, Davenport, Iowa, blocked an East punt.

The East had minus one yard rushing as the first quarter ended, largely because of two break-through tackles by Wright who dropped the East quarterback for 25-yard losses.

Jim Stinnette, Corvallis, Ore., scored the West's final touchdown in the third period after a 74-yard march, highlighted by Dueitt's passing and Smith's running.

Stoneham Indicates Bill Rigney's Job Safe

New York (U.P.)—Bill Rigney's job as manager of the New York Giants is safe for next season unless owner Horace Stoneham changes his mind.

As of today Rigney still is Stoneham's boy, even though the Giant manager has been under fire for letting the club vegetate through most of the season in last place.

"To the best of our thinking right now, Rigney will be back," said Stoneham Wednesday night. "He will manage the Giants in 1957."

Prep All-Star Grid Crews Polish for Saturday Fray

Portland (U.P.)—Intensive practice sessions were a thing of the past for the State and Metro all-star squads today and polishing sessions were all that remained before the kick-off for the 9th annual Shriners' hospital football classic Saturday night in Multnomah stadium.

Coach Pete Susick of Marshfield limited the Staters to running and passing drills at the University of Portland, while Coach Brad Ecklund of Gresham put his 24-man Metro squad through a final session at Lewis and Clark college.

There were indications at the State camp that Dale Shumway, 140-pound scabcat from Prineville, would see considerable action. The fleet 5-foot, 8-inch leather-lugger was impressive in yesterday's workout, and his speed is needed to match the swiftness of the Metro backs.

State supporters also had their hopes buoyed by the pass-catching of Ends Gene Bates of Vale, Ron Anderson of Bend and Dale Jones of South Salem. This trio of rangy wingmen—they average over 6-feet, 2-inches—put on great pass-receiving exhibitions, catching long and short tosses from Quarterbacks Sam Haynes of Pendleton and Sandy Fraser of Marshfield.

Susick revealed that on any tries for extra points, the kicker will be either Bates or Fraser.

Appointment of the following officials for the game were announced: Al Lightner of Salem, referee; Wayne Bartholemey of Portland, umpire; Dr. Allen H. Anderson of Corvallis, head line man; and George Emigh of Portland, field judge.
