

Babe Would Be Rooting For Mickey

New York—(U.P.)—If the Babe were alive today he'd be rooting for Mickey Mantle to break his record.

That was the message sent to Mantle today by Mrs. Babe Ruth on the eighth anniversary of her husband's death.

"You know how the Babe was," Mrs. Ruth continued. "He was jealous of no one."

"As for me, I wish Mickey the best of luck. It's kind of hard for me to talk about the Babe's home run record. You understand. The record has stood now for 29 years."

Mrs. Ruth gazed out the window of her apartment from where she could see the Hudson river below.

She talked of how she had visited the Babe's resting place Sunday at the Gate of Heaven cemetery in Valhalla, N.Y. She sighed a moment and then, a little reluctantly, returned to Mantle's chances of breaking Ruth's record of homers in one season.

Nothing Impossible

"Let's see now," she said, "Mickey would have to hit 19 home runs in the 41 games remaining to break the Babe's record. Well, nothing is impossible. Records are broken every day. But it will be quite difficult."

"I think the amount of walks he'll get will play a big part in whether Mickey breaks the record or not. The year Babe broke the record he was walked 136 times. So far, Mantle has gotten 91 walks, isn't that so?"

Told that she was correct, Mrs. Ruth went on:

"Why I remember seeing Babe walked purposely with the bases full even though it forced in a run. I've often heard Ty Cobb and other baseball men say, 'better four balls for one base than one ball for four bases.' Yet, I certainly think those pitchers won't make it any easier for Mickey. But batting both right and left-handed like he does, he has a wonderful chance."

Walt Hafer, Machen Vie

Portland—(U.P.)—California's young Eddie Machen goes after his 18th consecutive heavy-weight victory here tonight in a scheduled 10-rounder against Walt Hafer, a battle tested veteran from Passaic, N. J.

Machen, the nation's eighth-ranked heavyweight, has won 12 of his 15 fights by knock-outs. His victims included well-regarded Nino Valdes. Although Hafer has been predicting he would knock out Machen, the Redding, Calif., boy is favored to make it 16 straight.

Machen is expected to weigh in at 195 and Hafer 207.

Title Taken By Eugene

Mill City—(U.P.)—Eugene's Norm Willis blanked Oregon City on one hit last night as his teammates won their second straight state softball title with a 3-0 victory.

An infield single in the ninth by Bob Randall was the only blow off Willis, who was named the outstanding pitcher.

Dellinger Called Into Air Force

Eugene—(U.P.)—Bill Dellinger, University of Oregon distance running ace, has been called to duty by the Air Force Sept. 1 but will still be able to compete in the Olympic games this fall.

Dellinger, who recently was married, will serve two years as an officer. He will join the Olympic squad in Los Angeles in mid-October after reporting to the Portland air base for duty next month.

Dellinger and Jim Bailey plan to enter the British Columbia Olympic trials this week end at Vancouver.

Golfers Tee Off In Miller Open

Milwaukee—(U.P.)—Cary Middlecoff, the fidgety defending champion, and about 135 other top golfers teed off today in the $35,000 Miller Open on beautiful but rugged Tripoli course.

Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist, faced an array of pros like Sam Snead, PGA winner Jackie Burke and All-American victor Harrison in the 72-hole, four-day medal meet.

The winner will collect $6,000 and a station wagon.

Newport Net Tournay Enters Semi-Finals

Newport, R.I.—(U.P.)—The Newport Casino's invitation tennis tournament moved into the singles quarter-finals today with Hamilton Richardson of Westfield, N.J., and Ken Rosewall of Australia still favored to wind up in the finals on Sunday.

Richardson, the 22-year-old Oxford Rhodes scholar, takes on Mike Green of Miami Beach, Fla., in the quarter-finals today while Rosewall meets Grant Golden of Wilmette, Ill.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

MEDFORD HIGH STARTS RESERVE TICKET SALES FOR FOOTBALL SEASON

Reserve seat season tickets for Medford High school 1956 football games are now on sale at the senior high office.

Notice of the sale was mailed yesterday to all 1955 ticket holders. The seats these fans had last year will be held for them until Aug. 27. After that they will be on general sale.

Persons desiring the season tickets may call at the high school office between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays or from 8 a.m. until noon on Saturdays. Tickets also will be mailed on receipt of checks made out to Medford Senior High school.

Fans will see six Medford games on the local stadium turf this season and the price is a reasonable $9. That price holds for all seats in sections A, B and C of the newer grandstand.

High Interest

A slate of games which should hold high interest is billed for the Medford gridiron this fall. And the defending district champion Medford Black Tornado, in pre-season view, has the potential for an outstanding season in 1956. Both factors make the season ticket offering appealing.

The six home games come on consecutive week ends at the start of the season. Medford opens on Sept. 7 against Jefferson of Portland. The Demos are a new foe on the Tornado schedule. Milwaukee, which Medford tied last year, is on the Sept. 14 program.

Roseburg, longtime rival of the Tornado, comes here on Sept. 21. And on Sept. 28 Medford entertains a big football name in Oregon—Marshfield, the defending state champ. Crater, which Medford plays for the fourth time, is slated Oct. 5. The Comets are in Medford's A-1 district this season. Klamath Falls, one of the traditional Southern Oregon conference opponents, invades Medford on Oct. 12.

For the rest of the regular season the Tornado will be on the road, traveling to Eureka, Calif., Ashland and Grants Pass.

Pacific Flyway States Can Pick Identical Migratory Waterfowl Hunting Season

By RICHARD C. SIZEMORE
United Press Staff Writer
Washington—(U.P.)—Fall flights of wild ducks are expected to equal those of last year. The Interior department announced this today along with its new migratory waterfowl regulations for the coming season.

More than three of the dark species of geese may be included in the limit.

Additional restrictions on the daily bag and possession limit for Canada geese in certain designated areas of Arizona, California, Idaho, Oregon and Utah will again be in effect. In these areas the hunting season on Canada geese must end on Dec. 15.

The Klamath and Tule Lake refuge area in California will be treated as though it were in Oregon and will be given the same hunting season on waterfowl as Oregon selects.

Interior officials said this is to permit a uniform season both sides of a public waterfowl hunting area bisected by state boundaries.

The new hunting regulations govern the general length of the seasons, bag and possession limits and shooting hours.

Specific hunting dates will be selected by the states within the general limits of Oct. 1 to Jan. 15, 1957. They will be announced after states make their selections and the fish and wildlife service approves them.

Four Flyways

The regulations are posted for each of the nation's four flyways—Atlantic, Mississippi, Central and Pacific. The flyways are the migratory routes of the birds.

Season lengths and bag and possession limits are about the same as last year.

The Pacific flyway states may again select identical seasons on ducks and geese, except Ross' geese, of 80 consecutive full days, or two seasons aggregating 72 full days.

All states in the Pacific flyway will again have an option of choosing a seven-day bag and possession limit of ducks, or a bag limit of six daily with a possession limit of 12. In addition to this limit, hunters may also bag an additional three birds—pintails or widgeons, which are a menace to crops in the area.

Other Limits

The daily bag and possession limit on geese, except Ross' geese, in the Pacific flyway states will again be six, but not more than three of the dark species of geese may be included in the limit.

Additional restrictions on the daily bag and possession limit for Canada geese in certain designated areas of Arizona, California, Idaho, Oregon and Utah will again be in effect. In these areas the hunting season on Canada geese must end on Dec. 15.

'Skins Will Tussle Rams

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—The Washington Redskins meet the Los Angeles Rams in an exhibition pro football game at Memorial coliseum Friday night that should give the rival coaches an idea of how they will fare during the season.

The Rams, coached by Sid Gillman, are nine-point favorite to trip up Coach Joe Kuharich's Braves in the charity clash.

After enjoying a 62-7 romp over three armed forces teams in a single game last week, the Rams were told by Gillman, "the honeymoon is over." The squad knows it must be considerably more potent than against the service teams to get by the Redskins.

Smith Leads Links Final

Justin Smith Jr. will carry a 1 up lead into the final 18 holes of the 36-hole finals of the men's golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club.

Bob Rector and Smith are scheduled to complete their titular match on Saturday.

First 18 holes were contested yesterday. The action saw Rector pull up even after being 3 down at one stage of the match.

Smith was two under par to get his 3 up lead at the end of nine holes. He still held the edge after 11 greens but Rector won three holes in a row to catch up. Smith then took 16 and 17 for 2 up. Rector grabbed 18.

A medal count of 75 was posted by Smith for the Wednesday play. Rector had a 76.

Walks Thwart Mantle's Drive

New York—(U.P.)—Two walks—his 90th and 91st of the season—helped Wednesday to thwart Mickey Mantle's drive on Babe Ruth's home run record but the Yankee slugger gets another chance to shoot at Yankee stadium's inviting right field target today.

Mantle walked twice, popped to shortstop and singled to center field in four trips to the plate Wednesday as the Yankees beat the Red Sox, 6-4. The single stretched his hitting streak to nine games and he now leads Ruth's pace by 12 games with 42 homers in 113 games.

Yankee "jinx pitcher" Willard Nixon is slated to hurl for the Red Sox today but he's not too tough for Mickey. Mantle connected for homer No. 18 against him, May 29, at Yankee stadium.

LONGDEN WINS THREE

Del Mar, Calif.—(U.P.)—Johnny Longden, one of the oldest active riders, booted home three winners at Del Mar race track Wednesday to run his career total to 4,843 or 27 short of Sir Gordon Richards all-time record. Longden, like Richards, is English born.

Eugene Rally Nips Salem In NW Loop

By RAY ANDREWS
United Press Sports Writer
Eugene again handed the Salem Senators a costly defeat in last night's Northwest league play and this time the Emeralds did it the hard way.

Jerry Cade held the Emeralds hitless for 7 and 2/3 innings but Eugene rallied for four runs in the bottom of the ninth to nip Salem 4-3.

Carl Hutzler's infield single with two out in the eighth was the first Eugene hit. Cade then fanned John Keller for the third out.

However, he bumped into big trouble in the ninth with walks to Jerry Exley, Bob Gauthier and Manny Lacosta. Bill Eastburn's scratch single to third scored Exley. Cliff Dapper walked to force in another run.

Terry Loy, a pinch hitter, was safe on a bunt single scoring Lacosta with the tying run. The bunt came off Bill Walsh, Cade's relief. Walsh then walked Hutzler forcing in Eastburn with the winning run.

Russ Rossburg's double with the bases loaded in the eighth had produced Salem's three runs. The defeat left the Senators two games behind league-leading Yakima.

Wenatchee uncorked a four-run rally in the fifth inning of the first game to take Spokane 8-6 with Phil Marvier batting in four runs on a homer and a double.

In the nightcap, Bill Bottler spaced five hits to notch his 14th win of the year as Spokane took a 5-2 decision.

Jerry Jacobs of Lewiston scattered eight hits in pitching Lewiston to an 8-4 victory over Tri-City. He fanned 12 and walked five.

Lewiston tallied four earned runs in the second and Manager Hillis Layne added a solo homer in the sixth.

Livestock Owners Reminded of Laws

Salem—The state department of agriculture has called livestock owners' attention to state laws which require all cattle moved over Oregon highways or sold through public markets to be brand inspected by one of the 100 state brand inspectors.

Department officials said livestock owners have found an increasing number of livestock moved or slaughtered without brand inspection.

The department urged stockmen to contact the nearest livestock theft investigator. The investigator in the Medford area is Guy Hughes.

Bona fide farmers who slaughter livestock may move the carcasses on public roads under permits issued by department livestock inspectors and most sherrifs.

Shoemaker Closes Gap

Chicago—(U.P.)—Willie Shoemaker scored three victories at Washington Park Wednesday to move to within two triumphs of national riding champ Willie Hartack. Shoemaker now has 241 victories for the year to Hartack's 243. Hartack had two winners on the same program.

Aboard the 19-foot boat Marilyn were Dr. Thomas Monahan and Dr. J. M. Hoatson, of Grants Pass, Ore., and Lloyd Morrison, of Harbor, Ore., owner-master of the craft.

The Coast Guard Cutter C. G. Bonham found the boat after a six-day search.

It was reported missing in rough weather Thursday.

A Nichol's Worth of . . . Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington—(U.P.)—My friend, Bob Loftus, of the National Association of Home Builders, has nothing much against the Russians—except their cab drivers.

Bob has just returned from a long look at housing behind the big curtain.

"The cabbies over there would make a New York cab driver look like a small boy in a Buster Brown suit riding down 5th ave. on a tricycle," he said.

"There we were, on hand to prow around and talk to hod carriers and painters and the like and we did a lot of our prowling in cabs. It was sort of a home and home deal. The Russians looked at our work in America; we were invited to look at their construction. All those Red drivers do is run around with a heavy boot on the gas and a heavy thumb on the horn. It's conventional and nerve wracking."

Tour 12 Cities

Bob hit 12 cities in Russia, including Moscow, Leningrad, and Tbilisi, which was the late Josef Stalin's home town.

The former leader's villa is at Lake Riza, up in the hills, and now is a boarding house for Russian workers.

Loftus and his party attempted it by cab.

curve, honking horns like crazy," "hoping," as Bob put it, that there was nobody coming at us from the other side of the mountain.

The housing man who does, and always did, have a way with words, said the Russian hacker "cut things close."

A Game To All

"Russian pedestrians don't seem to worry," he said. "They seem to play it as a game—to see how close they can come to an oncoming fender without getting blood on the driver's windshield. For some reason, though, there are few bad traffic accidents."

The group traveled some 6,000 miles in the Soviet Union by plane, river boat and car.

The plane rides were interesting for the Americans. The Russians provided two planes, the Russian version of our DC-3s. Pilots were good. Most of the landings were on grass strips.

"The Russians feel that grass is safer to land on than concrete," Bob said. "And when we landed we had no seat belts. You could stand up, if you wanted to."

"We had no hops over six hours," he said. "We were served sliced cucumbers, tomatoes, caviar and jelly fish. Filling enough in bumpy weather."

Russian hostesses wear no official uniforms, the home building man said. He mentioned a couple of names, "Nina and Lucy," who "looked presentable" in street clothes.

Southern Plains Scorched by Heat

By UNITED PRESS
Hot weather scorched the Southern Plains today today with no relief in sight from a heat wave.

Temperatures in the upper 90s to the low 100s have been fairly common throughout the Southern Plains during at least the past two weeks.

Temperatures of 100 degrees or better were forecast today for parts of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Texas. Southeast Kansas and Oklahoma were expected to have maximum readings ranging from 100 to 110 degrees.

Some of the high readings reported Wednesday included Chanute, Kan., 109; Wichita, 103; Dallas, 105, and Fort Worth, 106.
