

HORN BROOK Drowned Boy's Funeral Held

By MRS. H. H. CHAPMAN
Hornbrook—Graveside funeral services were held Aug. 11 at the Henley-Hornbrook cemetery for Frederick Thomas Hearn, 17, who drowned Aug. 8 while swimming in Emigrant lake at Ashland. Frederick was a nephew of Mrs. William Sander of Hornbrook. He was born July 23, 1920, at Hill, the son of Lester and Freda Dailey Hearn, who now live in Ashland. Other survivors include his brother Jim, two sisters, Altha and Alice, all at home; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dailey, of Ashland, and several aunts and uncles.

The Little League All-Star game was played Aug. 11 at the city park in Yreka. Teams playing were the four Yreka teams vs. the four outside teams. The game resulted in a tie. All-Stars representing Hornbrook were Steve McMaster, Butch Hegler, Loren Howard Cummins and Lavran Paine Jr. The game, which was well attended, was followed by a picnic and the presentation of awards.

Mrs. John Shinar and Mrs. Fred Moore were hostesses Saturday evening for a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Frank Burkhardt Jr. The event took place at the home of Mrs. Burkhardt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sloan. Those attending were Mrs. Helen Cummins, Mrs. Marguerite Rines, Mrs. L. E. Brededa, Mrs. Ellen Wilson and Mrs. Maude Jacobsen of Copco. Mrs. Mary Shinar, Mrs. H. H. Chapman, Mrs. George Sloan, besides the honored guest and hostesses. Mrs. Burkhardt's husband is with the Marines in Japan, and she will remain with her parents until his return to the states.

Miss Dorothy Smith gave a dinner Saturday evening honoring her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, on their 30th wedding anniversary. The occasion also honored her grandmother, Mrs. Dora Marlahan's 81st birthday. Present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marlahan, Mrs. Dora Marlahan, Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Burton and son Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mulloy, Mr. and Mrs. Con Mulloy, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Veale, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Hovenden, all of Ft. Jones, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. John Cooney and daughter Doris of San Francisco, and the honored guests and hostesses.

A picnic high into the Siskiyou was enjoyed by a group of friends and relatives on Sunday. A caravan of six cars made the trip to Red Mountain Gap and Dutchman's Peak lookout, 35 miles northwest of Hill. Arriving at their destination, the men in the party played a few rounds of golf, while the women froze ice cream in a nearby snowbank. The return trip via the Beaver Creek road was one of excitement and suspense, as several of the cars lost their brakes, and one had a flat tire besides, and had to head for a stump in order to stop. All agreed it was "great fun," although in varying degrees of enthusiasm. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Cummins and their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schulte and Pam and Billy of Riverside, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Loren Cummins and Loren Howard and Jennifer, Mr. and Mrs. Henley Clawson, Lauran

Multnomah Jury Presents Report on Vice Investigations

Portland—U.P.—The Multnomah County Grand Jury yesterday afternoon presented to Circuit Judge Frank Lonergan its report on a two month probe into vice conditions here and came up with four principal recommendations.

The jury is winding up several weeks of investigation. Two weeks ago it returned a series of indictments.
Soundproof Room
The recommendations included:
1. That steps be taken to make the grand jury room soundproof and completely secure from all unauthorized listening whether intentional or accidental.

2. That any public officer called to testify concerning conduct of his office and who refuses to sign a waiver of immunity against subsequent criminal prosecution or furnish a net worth statement shall be removed from office.

3. That the 1937 Legislature study possible revision of Oregon law to authorize appointment of special grand juries.

4. That Oregon law be changed to provide for automatic suspension of any public officer who is under indictment until the charge against him has been tried and determined.

The jury heard testimony from more than 200 witnesses, many of whom appeared five or six times. It reported that every charge called to its attention was investigated carefully and that activities of all law enforcement agencies in the county were scrutinized carefully.

Revisions Necessary
It said, "Where the evidence and testimony of official misconduct was in our judgment sufficient to warrant trial an indictment was returned."
Judge Lonergan earlier refused to accept the report until certain revisions had been made. He did not identify the character of these revisions.

The grand jury investigation was headed by Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton. Those indicted in the marathon nine-week investigation included District Attorney William Langley of Multnomah county, Portland Police Chief Jim Purcell, several police officers, Teamster official Clyde Crosby, nightlife figure James Elkins and many others.
