Missionaries To Give Talk and Show Film Sunday

A missionary program featuring a 40 minute motion picture recently filmed in India concerning the conversion of a Brahman, with a report about the current Indian affairs, will be given at the Medford Assembly of God church, 1108 West Main, Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. and Mrs. John Wright, missionaries appointed to India, will take part in the service, presenting musical numbers and data concerning India.

The Wrights will be teaching the next five years at Bangalore in a national seminary operated by the National Assemblies of God in India. Mr. Wright has taught public school the past three years in the Sacramento area of California, formerly being associated with the Monte Vista Christian school at Watsonville, Calif. Prior to this they were active in church work in Iowa, Oregon and northern California. Mr. Wright having received his ministerial training at Southern California Bible college, Costa Mesa, and Glad Tidings Bible institute, San Francisco.

Mr. Wright took his teachers' training, graduating from Sierra college and Sacramento State college, receiving California State Teaching credentials. After study at the San Francisco Academy of Aeronautics and training in handling aircraft, he received a private pilot's license. Mrs. Wright studied at North Central Bible institute and did evangelistic work in the west central district of the United States.

During the next few weeks the Wrights will be speaking by invitation in churches and to community groups in this area. They hope to arrive in India in 1956 to begin teaching duties.

The public is invited to attend the film and talk.

REV. DAVE SHARP
Guest Speaker

Rev. Dave Sharp To Speak This Evening

Adopting the slogan, "Let's Nominate Christ... First," the young people of the First Church of the Nazarene, Holly and First, are making Friday, Saturday and Sunday the climax of a convention in which a deeper spiritual life with Christ is the object.

To help them, speaker and evangelist, the Rev. Dave Sharp of Pasadena, Calif., will speak tonight at 7:30 on "What to Do With Life's Brevity."

Special music will be an instrumental ensemble by Mary, Ruth and Mel Stehl.

Saturday evening service designated as a "Singspiration Pep Rally" will be held featuring Leon Branson and his accordian, a duet by Rev. Mr. Sharp and Mel Johnson, and Beverly Cummings, soprano. The subject of Mr. Sharp's message will be "Living the Rest of your Life."

Regular services will be held Sunday which will be the last meetings of the campaign.

Youth Rally To Be Held in Portland August 27 and 28

Youth from the Christian Church of the Northwest will meet at the Portland Central Christian church Aug. 27 and 28 for the annual Northwest Youth Rally. This rally is sponsored by the young people of the Central Christian church.

The session will feature discussion panels which will be conducted by business men and representatives of the three Pacific Coast Bible colleges.

Young people from Seattle to Klamath Falls will be attending the rally. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Central Christian church in Portland.

Quakers Attend Newberg Meeting Aug. 16-21

Several Quakers from the local Friends church are attending the 64th Oregon Yearly meeting of Friends at Newberg, Ore., which started yesterday. Those attending include: the Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Roberts and family, Mrs. Eunice Jones, Dr. Wayne Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Langston.

The meeting will last through Aug. 21. Quakers from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Bolivia, S.A., are attending the sessions.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

The Men's Fellowship of the First Baptist church will meet Monday at the home of Don Miner, route 1, box 358, Jacksonville-Phoenix rd. Transportation leaves the church at 6:30. Admission: one cantaloupe; the committee will furnish the rest of the dessert supper. The Rev. Al Kantor will speak.

Savings Bond Sales In County Are $74,482

Sales of United States E and H Savings bonds in Jackson county last month totaled $74,482, compared to $82,300 for July in 1955, according to County Savings Bonds Committee Chairman Morris Leonard Sr.

E and H Bond sales in Oregon for July totaled $2,619,312. Leonard said. The total was slightly lower than in July, 1955, but higher than any other recent year. Combined sales of E and H Bonds in the state last month were $3,192,977.

Unitarians Hold Special Meeting; No Sunday Service

The Unitarian Fellowship will not hold regular Sunday services Aug. 19. Instead there will be a special meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Labor temple, South Grape st. The Rev. Stephen H. Fritchman will speak on "The Answer Is With You."

Rev. Mr. Fritchman is minister of the First Unitarian church in Los Angeles. He was national executive director of youth activities for the American Unitarian association for nine years prior to his present assignment.

During 1942-1947 he was editor of the Christian Register, the Unitarian church's official publication in United States and Canada.

The public is invited to attend the Thursday meeting.

Gold Hill WSCS Has Guest Speaker for Friday Meeting

By Mrs. Sam Elliot
Gold Hill—Miss Grace Gail spoke of her week at Camp Magruder at the Womens Society of Christian service last Friday afternoon at the Methodist church. Miss Gail was one of four young women who attended the 13th annual School of Missions from the Eugene district of the Methodist WSCS.

Mrs. Melvin Burnett served refreshments during which the group sat informally around the table and learned from Miss Gail how interesting and alive a week at a mission school can be.

After reviewing the week for those present, questions were asked and answered. A variety of leaflets were distributed which described the many phases of work the WSCS does around the world. It was noted that in Belgian Congo the word for the name of the society was "Kipendano," which means "The great love for one another."

Devotionals were led by Mrs. Fred Jones. The theme for the meeting was "How Great is the Kingdom."

RETURN HOME

Young people who attended the Advent Christian Youth camp at Troutdale, Ore., have returned home. Local young people who attended the camp held with the Annual Campmeeting of the churches of the Conference, were Marjorie Potter, Jim Clark, Judy Heine, and Jim and Beverly Potter.

G. E. Walston, pastor, attended the conference during the same period.

MISS LEOTA McCULLOUGH
Convention Delegate

Miss McCullough To Conventio

Miss Leota McCullough, 29 North Keeneway dr., will leave Saturday morning for Springfield, Ill., where she will represent the youth of southern Oregon at the bi-annual International Youth convention of the Church of God.

Miss McCullough, who has been chosen to be hostess at one of the conferences, will attend the four-day meeting from Aug. 23 to 26. The convention theme is, "One Lord, One Faith, One Task."

She will be accompanied by her father, Glenn McCullough, to Illinois. This is the second convention for Miss McCullough as she attended the one in Portland two years ago.

YOUTH CAMP

The Senior Youth camp for the Community church at Trail will be held at Lake of the Woods Aug. 20 through 25.

Services in New Location

Elder Robert M. Seely will officiate at the first service of the Re-organized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Sunday in their newly purchased church at Tenth and Ivy sts. in Medford. Mr. Seely, president of the southern Oregon district, will speak at 11 a.m.

Grants Pass and Crescent City missions will also officiate in the opening service. Immediately following the morning service a potluck dinner will be held, sponsored by the Re-La-Da-Sa Women's group of Medford.

The midweek prayer service will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

ELDER ROBERT M. SEELY
First Service Speaker

Kantors To Speak At First Baptist

All Sunday school departments of the First Baptist church will hear of the missionary work of the Rev. and Mrs. Al Kantor, who work with migrant laborers in California under the Gospel Missionary fellowship Sunday.

Mr. Kantor will have a portion of the opening worship in the pre-school and primary groups, while Mrs. Kantor will speak to the rest of the Sunday school in a combined worship service at 9:45.

The Kantors will also have part in other services of the day. They will speak to the combined Baptist Youth Leagues at 6:30 p.m., and have charge of the evening service at 7:45, showing colored slides of the work in which they are engaged.

The missionary couple and their three children are supported in part by the Medford church. Mrs. Kantor, the former Miss Jean French, attended Medford schools and was a member of the local Baptist church.

The public is welcome to attend.
