

Larry Jansen on Spot Again Against Braves; Redlegs Lose Ground as Chicago Wins 4-2

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer
Curve-balling Larry Jansen who never ducked a tough assignment when he was with the New York Giants, will be on the spot again tonight when the Cincinnati Redlegs open another vital four-game series against the Milwaukee Braves.

In his first comeback start last Friday night, the lantern-jawed right hander pitched Cincinnati to an 8-1 triumph over the Braves.

Facing the 36-year-old Jansen tonight will be the Braves newest pitching "phenom," Taylor Phillips. Only 23, Phillips was still in knee pants when Jansen started his pro career in 1940, but he looked like a seasoned pitcher in beating the Redlegs with a seven-hitter last Monday night.

Burdette Shuts Out Cards
The Braves warmed up for this latest trip into the Rhineland by topping the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-0, Thursday night on Lew Burdette's five-hitter. The Dodgers remained three games back of Milwaukee by edging the Giants, 10-9, on Duke Snider's 13th inning homer, while the Redlegs dropped 3 1/2 games off the pace by falling before the Cubs, 4-2, in a day game.

Burdette aided his own cause against the Cardinals by knocking in two runs during a five-run burst in the opening inning. Stan Musial collected three of the five hits off Burdette, including a double which enabled him to set a new National League career record of 1,072 extra-base hits.

Snider's game-winning homer off Dick Littlefield was his 33rd of the season but his first off a southpaw. It came only two minutes before New York's 12:50 a.m. curfew. The Giants had tied the score at 9-9 in the sixth inning on a three-run, pinch-homer by Hank Thompson. Willie Mays also hit a three-run homer for the suddenly-aroused Giants.

Sam Jones struck out 13 Cincinnati batters while his Chicago mates racked Brooks Lawrence for 12 hits. The Cubs broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh with a two-run rally, highlighted by Solly Drake's key double. Nixon Stops Yanks

In the American League, the Red Sox halted the Yankees, 2-1, behind Willard Nixon's neat two-hitter; Rocky Colavito's first major league grand-slam homer helped the Indians edge the Tigers 5-4, and Minnie Minoso's timely hitting enabled the White Sox to down the Athletics, 6-5. The Orioles and Senators were not scheduled.

Jackie Jensen's two-run homer in the sixth inning provided the Red Sox with their margin. Nixon held the Yankees hitless until the eighth inning.

Al Rosen followed up Colavito's four-ply blast with a bases-empty homer in the third inning that enabled the Indians to fight off the Tigers. Herb Milwaukee—(U.P.)—Little Jackie Burke Jr., the PGA and Masters champion, and Ed Furgol, led the way into the second round of the par-smashing $35,000 Miller Open Golf tournament today on Tripoli Golf course.

Burke and Furgol both blasted seven-under-par 31-32—63s in the first round Thursday, to break by one stroke the course record set by Tripoli pro Hank Gardner two years ago.

Altogether 44 golfers fired under par in showery weather on the first round of the four-day, 72-hole medal meet. Defending champion Cary Middlecoff's 67 gained him only a 12-way tie for eighth.

Stocky Jim Turnesa of Spring Valley, N.Y., and Gene Litter of Singing Hills, Calif., fired record-tying 64s and Babe Lichardus of Hillside, N.J., a terrific driver, came in with 65.

Boston Net Officials Take Adventist Entry
Portland—(U.P.)—Jim Hodgkins, veteran Portland tennis player, said today his entry in the annual Boston tournament had been accepted after all despite the fact that he cannot play on Saturday because of religious beliefs.

Hodgkins, a Seventh-Day Adventist, earlier had been turned down along with Dr. J. Andrew Crane of Oakland and Crane's son, Mike. Last year Hodgkins and Dr. Crane reached the quarter-finals of the senior division and Crane and his son took a surprising victory in the father and son division final.

Score picked up his 13th victory, although he needed relief help from Early Wynn in the seventh.

MINOSOs singled home the tying run in the fifth inning against the A's and then knocked in the winning run with a seventh-inning triple. Larry Doby also got into the act with his 16th homer.

DISCUSS GAME PLANS—Denny Baker (right) all-back from Marshfield high of Coos Bay, talks over Shrine All-Star football game plans with Monte Holst, Medford guard. The two will see duty for State against the Metropolitan team on Saturday night, Aug. 18, in Multnomah stadium at Portland.

COACHES LIST LIKELY STAR GAME STARTERS
Portland—(U.P.)—State and Metro coaches today announced their probable starting lineups for the 9th annual Shriners' hospital all-star football game at Multnomah stadium here Saturday night and also said the teams had elected their co-captains.

Two members of last year's state championship Marshfield high team were elected to co-captain the State squad. They are Bob Peterson, center, and Sandy Fraser, quarterback. Metro players picked Paul Bernick, Gresham guard, and Tom Johnson, Washington fullback, as their co-captains.

The starting State team will have a weight advantage of about 17 pounds in the backfield. But the opposing forward walls will average about the same—State, 193 pounds and Metro, 192. State's backfield will average 188 3/4 against Metro's 171 1/5.

With Fraser in the backfield to start the game will be Halfbacks Dennis Baker of Marshfield and Jerry Doman of Ontario, and Fullback Bruce Ridinger of Albany.

In the State starting line will be Rick Woolstenhulme of Roseburg and Gene Bates of Vale, ends; John Wilcox of Vale and Howard Waggoner of Coquille, tackles; Peterson, center; Ted Henry, Prineville and Ken Mundt of Albany, guards.

In the Metro starting backfield will be Quarterback Bill Haller, Milwaukie; Halfbacks Herman McKinney, Washington and Rod Simonsen, Cleveland, and Fullback Tom Johnson, Washington.

Metro linemen picked to start are Russ Simonsen of Gresham and Greg Altenhofen of Beaverton, ends; Howard Hogan of Jefferson and Pete Beer of Central Catholic, tackles; Marv Nelson of Milwaukie, center; and Bernick and Keith Harris of Jefferson, guards.

In Thursday's finale against the Red Sox at New York, the Yankee strong boy's latest hitting streak was halted at nine games when he flied out four times in four at bats. He now needs 19 homers in the Yankees' remaining 40 games to surpass Ruth's record.

Mounties Make It 3 In Row Over Angels

By JOHN McDONALD
United Press Sports Writer
The tallied Vancouver Mounties who before the all-star game break killed off Seattle's flickering pennant hopes, have turned their torrid bats against the league-leading Los Angeles Angels in their drive to end the Pacific Coast League season out of eighth place.

The Mounties made it three in a row against the Angels Thursday night as they swept a twin bill 13-4 and 5-3. It was the homerun, the Angels' favorite weapon, that turned the trick for the Canadians as Ron Jackson's two-run blast in the opener provided the eventual winning run, and the Mounties came up with three round-trippers in the nightcap.

The Seattle Rainier's climbed to within 10 games of the league leaders as they edged San Diego 4-3, the San Francisco Seals swept into sixth place with a double victory over Portland 5-1 and 10-4 and Sacramento made it three straight over Hollywood with a 9-4 win.

Scantlebury Wins
The Mounties battered Dave Hillman, the Cherokees' big winner, in the seven-inning first game as they buried the Angels under a 16 hit attack. Jackson drove in three of the runs with his homer and a pair of singles, and Charlie Beamon limited the Angels to eight hits for the win.

In the nightcap, Wally Westlake, Kal Segrist and Jackson homered.
Seattle made it two straight under new manager Bill Brenner as Pat Scantlebury won his first PCL game. Scantlebury

(1-1), acquired from the Cincinnati Redlegs in the deal that sent Larry Jansen up, gave up eight hits, struck out five and walked two.
Bill Glynn's homer in the third with Leo Righetti aboard got the Suds their first two runs and Al Federoff and Bob Usher singled home the other two in the fifth.

Seals Snap Losing Streak
At San Francisco, hot-and-cold Jerry Casale (13-11) pitched a six-hitter as the Seals snapped a six-game losing binge in the opener. And in the second game, the Seals used a pair of big innings, a five-run sixth and a four-run eighth to sink the Beavers.

Ageless Jerry Priddy got the Seals in front to stay with a three-run homer in the sixth, his first as a Seal.
Sacramento's Cloyd Boyer racked up his eighth win and helped his cause with a two-run homer. The Solons belted 12 hits off four Hollywood chucks, the last of them Paul Pettit, one-time Pittsburgh bonus baby, who turned to the outfield when his arm went dead. It was the first mound stint of the year for Pettit.
