

MEDFORD CHENEY STUDS DROP COQUILLE TO TAKE SO CHAMPIONSHIP

Frank Roelandt's Single In 12th Inning Drives Across Winning Run; White Wins

Medford Cheney Studs nipped the Coquille Loggers 3 to 2 in 12 innings here yesterday afternoon to claim their first championship in the "modern" Southern Oregon Baseball League.

Catcher Frank Roelandt singled home the winning run with one out in the third extra panel. Second Baseman Dick Toney, who had walked prior to a one-base infield blow by First Baseman Jack Cooney, crossed home with the tie-busting and title bring marker.

Yesterday's fracas was the first encounter of the final three-game series of the SOL season for the Studs. The victory assured the Studs of an unshared toga and put Drain, which had a chance to knot for the crown, in second place. Medford will collect the league trophy and another sponsored by the Coca Cola Bottling company of Medford and its manager, Wayne Jamison.

Game Today
Coquille and Medford had their second engagement of the week end last night and wind-up SOL play at 2 p.m. today at the fairgrounds.

The Loggers came to Medford with the idea of being spoilers in the Studs' bid for unshared laurels. And yesterday they came close to delaying the champs in that drive for a clear out mantle. Coquille shoved over its two runs in the fourth inning while Dick Stephens pitched four-hit ball over seven innings and shut out the Studs in that time.

Stephens yielded two safeties in the eighth inning when the Studs deadlocked the game and was tagged for another in the ninth. He gave way in the 10th canto to Dick Morana, who took the loss. Don White pitched the full 12 innings for the Studs and took the win although he was lifted for pinch-hitter Bob Selsor and Derald Wooton was warned to go to the hill had the game extended into 13 innings.

Marino Triples
For the two Coquille markers Roy Harrington singled, Herb Marino tripled and Chuck Humble sacrificed expertly to bring Marino home.

Roelandt also blasted the safety which enabled Medford to tie the game in the eighth. White helped out his cause with a single and with two out Cooney drew a base on balls. Roelandt slapped the pellet into right field for a hit which sent White home. Perry Stubblefield bobbled the ball in the outfield and that let Toney also score.

White threw nine-hit ball, ran up seven strikeouts and walked three batters in a fine afternoon. Along with seven hits for nine frames Stephens issued two walks and fanned six. Morana yielded two hits in three innings, walked three and whiffed two.

Roelandt Three for Five
Roelandt headed the Studs in hitting with three raps in five times while Martell socked two for four. Harrington paced Coquille swatting with three for four. Marino's three-baser and Joe Marchand's double for the Studs were the long blasts of the game.

Opportunities slipped by each club to end the game sooner. In the 10th the Loggers loaded the bases on a single by Humble, the double by Marchand and a base on balls to Vincent Miller. Ed Grossenbacher bounded the ball in a squeeze bunt try. Roelandt nabbed the ball and Humble slipped by and tagged the plate. Umpire Virg Swanson, however, ruled that Humble ran out of the base line and was out. Goodbrod then grounded out to retire the side.

Three walks, a sacrifice and a force play had three men on base for the Studs with two out in the 11th. A strikeout ended the chance.

MONTANA CHAMPION ENTRANT IN SOUTHERN OREGON GOLF TOURNEY HERE; FAST FIELD

Prestige of women's competition in the Southern Oregon Golf championships has received a boost with the entry of Mrs. Edean Anderson Ihlantfeldt, Seattle.

Mrs. Ihlantfeldt is a former Montana state champ and has been a standout in Pacific Northwest golf association play.

Participants in the championship flights in both men's and women's rivalry in the 28th annual Labor day holiday week end tournament at Rogue Valley Country club can expect to find themselves in fast company.

That's the outlook from the list of entries, which continued to pile up through last week for the tournament which formally opens on Aug. 29 and continues through Sept. 2.

Entries numbered 245 yesterday with 189 men and 56 women signed up. A total field of 224 men and 64 ladies is foreseen by RVCC tournament committee.

Four Former SO Champs
Names of four champions of past years presently head the list of registrations. They are Eddie Simmons and Sue DeVoe, Medford, Mrs. W. W. (Helen) Davies, Redding, Calif., formerly of Medford, and Bob Atkinson, Columbia - Edgewater, Portland. Simmons has claimed six Southern Oregon diadems and Mrs. Davies captured the ladies' mantle seven times.

Atkinson has been Southern Oregon champ each of the three times he's entered and returns as defending champ this year. Miss DeVoe gained the women's top laurels in 1954.

Among other leading entries are Phil Getchell, Medford, 1955 SO medalist and 1954 match play runner-up, Justin Smith Jr., Medford, semi-finalist last year, Art Abrahamson, Everett, Wash., quarter-finalist in 1955, and Bob Prall, reigning Oregon Golf association medal play titlist. Getchell has been a Stanford university linksman and Smith, Abrahamson and Prall have been University of Oregon teammates.

Also signed up from the home course and rated as contenders are Bob Rector, Alan Holmes,

Browns Picked Over SF Pros

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The Cleveland Browns were installed as 14-point favorites to whip the San Francisco Forty Niners in the opening exhibition game of the season here Sunday at Kezar stadium.

A crowd of 35,000 is expected to watch the contest—and in the assemblage will be many of the top dignitaries here for the Republican National convention.

This will be the debut as head coach for Frankie Albert, who took over the Forty Niners during the winter. Albert, quarterback of the club for seven years, has indicated he will test out his rookies, and the emphasis will be on discovering talent rather than winning.

Halfback Is Hurt in Car

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Washington Redskins halfback Vic Janowicz suffered a head injury Saturday when a car in which he rode smashed into a telephone pole. He was taken to Hollywood Presbyterian hospital where his condition was described as "fair."

Dr. John Parry, team physician, said Janowicz was "improving right along" and was semi-conscious. The player is expected to be out of action for one to two months. He also suffered bruises.

Barbara Wagner, 21, a student nurse at Hollywood Presbyterian hospital, was the driver of the car, according to police. She suffered a possible skull fracture, internal injuries and a possible broken breastbone.

Youthful Flavor
Seattle entries are George Parsons and Roy Morgan, both well-known here, and Don Avery will come from Los Angeles. Morgan is a former Rogue Valley assistant pro, who has been reinstated as an amateur.

Jimmy Johnson, Eugene, first flight winner in 1955, will be back and Bob McKeivitt is an entry from Ocean Lake.

Sud Skipper Makes Grade

By JOHN McDONALD
Unit Press Sports Writer
Bill Brenner, outfielder turned pitcher turned manager, finally may have found his slot.

Brenner took over as skipper of the Seattle Rainiers Tuesday following the firing of Luke Sewell and now boasts a perfect 1000 record as a Pacific Coast league manager.

The Brenner-led Suds, suddenly reversing a tailspin that knocked them out of a pennant contention, made it three straight Friday night as they again socked the San Diego Padres 7-4.

It's a bit early to tell, but Brenner, who bounced around the minors for 15 years without ever quite making the grade as a player, may have found his niche as a pilot.

The Tumwater, Wash., native took over the Rainiers 12½ games behind league-leading Los Angeles. In three days he shaved the lead to 9½, with a big assist from Vancouver which clobbered the Angels three straight times.

East-West Shrine Clubs Draw Rest

Pendleton — (U.P.) — Members of the East and West squads in the Shrine's Class B football game got a day off from the two-day drills Saturday. Both clubs viewed the Class A State-Metro Shrine's hospital game in Portland.

Today the two teams will visit the Shrine's hospital for crippled children in Portland before returning to Pendleton to put the finishing touches to their plans for the East-West game in Round-Up stadium Aug. 25.

Difficulty
Kuenn, Sproul, head mentor

of the West team, admitted yesterday that he is having difficulty narrowing his squad down to a starting combination.

"We may have to go into the game with two starting line-ups," Sproul said.

He did single out two of his Siletz players as having an edge on starting berths, halfback George Thompson and quarterback Art Gregory.

Father's Day was founded in Spokane, Wash., by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd in 1910.
