

Church Rites Marry Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Oleen Josephson

A white arch decorated with laurel leaves and pastel gladiolus was the setting Saturday, August 11, for the 6 o'clock wedding of Miss Shirley Jean Johnson and Boyd Oleen Josephson at the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaVern R. Johnson, 120 Washington street. The bridegroom is the son of Bishop and Mrs. Oleen Josephson, Plymouth, Utah, and the bishop officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white French lace with pearls and sequins accenting the yoke and collar. Her fingertip veil fell from a white crown and she carried white Fujii chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Tower, Berkeley, Calif., the former Sherie Knudsen of Medford. Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Josephson, sister of the bridegroom from Plymouth, Miss Marilyn Czech, cousin of the bride from San Diego, and Miss Rosalie Johnson, sister of the bride. Flower girls were Kathy Josephson and Donna Johnson, sisters of the bridegroom and bride.

The attendants wore dresses of crystalline in pastel colors with matching flowers in their hair and carried white carnations. Garth Josephson was best man for his brother, Michael Tower, Berkeley, Jerry Bross and Paul Eckel ushered.

Mrs. A. C. Knudsen played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Pat Peninger who sang.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the 100 guests in the church recreation hall. Mrs. Carol Edwards, Miss Dixie Hinks and Miss Donna Nelson served the cake and punch. Miss Diane Travis was at the gift table. During the reception the guests were entertained by Emily and Kathie Josephson and Donna Johnson and Judy Alders, dancers.

The bride chose for her traveling attire a champagne print sheath with brown accessories. After a trip to the coast the couple will make their home in Soda Springs, Idaho, for the summer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson wore a navy blue sheath with pink accessories and pink carnations. Mrs. Josephson chose a pink and white sheath with white accessories and white carnations.

The bride attended Medford High school and Brigham Young university. She was employed as a secretary for the Taylors Insurance agency in Provo, Utah. During her senior year in high school, the former Miss Johnson was queen of Job's Daughters in Medford.

The bridegroom attended Plymouth High school and is a student at Brigham Young university where he is majoring in agriculture. During the summer he is employed by Morrison and Knudsen Construction company.

Two Californians Attend Festival; Honored at Party

Ashland—Mrs. Harvey Mudd, Beverly Hills, Calif., and Mrs. Geoffrey C. O'Connell, Los Angeles, planned to return south this morning after a week's visit in the valley. The two women came north to attend performances of the Oregon Shakespearean festival. They also visited historic Jacksonville, and made a trip to Crater Lake National park.

Saturday evening the two visitors, who make frequent trips to the valley, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther, Talent, for an evening party. A small group of close friends also attended.

Sister, Daughter Guests of Floreys

Mrs. Doryce McInturif left Tuesday for her home in Santa Paula, Calif., after spending a week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Florey, Old Stage road. Mrs. McInturif is a former Medford resident.

A current house guest of the Floreys is their daughter, Mrs. Jerry Wynn, of Los Angeles. She plans to spend ten days in the valley and return to her home Wednesday.

Travelers Arrive From Wisconsin

Mrs. Jeanne Liston and Mrs. Edith Muller of Milwaukee, Wis., are guests of Miss Elizabeth McKay, 316 Crater Lake avenue. The two visitors are making a tour of the southern and western states and spent Friday on a trip to Crater lake.

Mrs. Liston and Mrs. Muller are cousins of Miss McKay and Ralph A. McKay, Medford.

Visitors Here

Mrs. Bernard Van Horne and daughters, Lisa and Beatrice, arrived yesterday from Portland to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Topside, Old Stage road. Mrs. Van Horne is a niece of the Carpenters.

Mr. Van Horne, who is librarian for the city of Portland, will arrive later in the week.

Pianist From Copenhagen Attends Plays in Ashland

Ashland—Mrs. Ilse Meyer, Copenhagen, Denmark, was among the interesting visitors who attended the Oregon Shakespearean festival last week. Mrs. Meyer, a piano teacher in Copenhagen, is executive secretary of Music Teachers' association of Denmark and is also secretary of the Union of Scandinavian Music Teachers. The union takes in Norway, Sweden and Finland as well as Norway.

Howells Honored At Many Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Howell, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Getchell, 23 Ashland avenue, for the past several days, have been honored at a number of parties. Mr. Howell plans to leave today, with Mrs. Howell, the former Gloria Getchell, and their children, Pamela and Hugh, remaining until about September 1. The Howells are from Honolulu, T.H.

Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Littrell honored the visitors at a large cocktail supper party at their home on Greenway circle. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, 2451 Lyman avenue, were hosts for a dinner which honored the Howells and Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard gave a dinner for the couple at the Hubbard home, Fairview place.

Other parties were also given for the couple.

Medford Sojourners' club will meet Thursday, August 23, at the Pythian hall. All newcomers to Medford and vicinity who have lived here less than two years are invited to attend and become members. Refreshments will be served and after the business meeting bridge, canasta, and pinochle will be played.

Ceremony Weds Colleen Tiegs, Russell E. Roder

Miss Colleen Joy Tiegs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Tiegs, Talent, became the bride of Dr. Russell E. Roder, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Roder, Colorado Springs, Colo., in a ceremony held Saturday, August 11, at 2 o'clock at the Ashland Methodist church.

The Rev. G. H. Goodsell officiated at the wedding which was performed before members of the immediate families.

The bride wore a white faille suit. Her attendant was her sister, Miss Carolyn Tiegs. Ronald Tiegs, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride attended Boise High school and is a graduate of Southern Oregon college. She has been teaching at the McKay school in Beaverton, Ore. Dr. Roder, is a graduate of University of Iowa and the University of Oregon Dental school.

Wedding Plans Made by Couple

Brownsboro—Mr. and Mrs. Leland M. Charley, Brownsboro, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Charmayne Lea Charley, to Conrad Stewart, son of Mrs. Ruby Stewart, Eugene.

The wedding will be held September 8 at 11 o'clock in the morning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Goodson Nicholson. Dr. Nicholson, pastor of the Eugene Congregational church, will read the service.

The bride-elect was graduated from Eagle Point High school and attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of the university chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is now on the staff of the Eugene branch, First National bank.

Her fiancé was graduated from Eugene High school and later served in the United States Army, with duty in Korea. He is a member of the Eugene Fire department.
