

SUE DeVOE COPS RVCC LINKS CHAMPIONSHIP

Sue DeVoe pulled away on the back stretch Saturday to win the women's golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club. She defeated Mrs. Maxine Hammond 4 and 3.

It was Sue's second club title. She won the championship in 1954. Mrs. W. W. Davies won the crown last year.

The two golfers were even at the turn of their 18-hole final on Saturday. Miss DeVoe won holes 10, 11 and 12 all with pars. The rivals halved on 13 and 14 and Sue took 15 to conclude the match.

The two ladies played the full 18 holes of the round and Miss DeVoe was five over par with an 81 for the circuit. She had a 42 going out and a 39 coming in. Mrs. Hammond carded 41-43 for 84.

The victory established Sue as the leading Rogue Valley candidate for women's honors in the Southern Oregon tournament here, Aug. 29 through Sept. 3.

Justin Smith Jr. won the men's championship of RVCC also Saturday with a 5 and 4 verdict over Bob Rector.

Roseburg 9 Unbeaten in Legion Tiff

Yakima, Wash. — (U.P.) — Twin Falls, Ida., defeated Tacoma 2-1 yesterday to remain in contention against Billings, Mont., and Roseburg, Ore., for the regional Junior Legion baseball crown.

Twin Falls meets Billings tonight with the winner playing Roseburg tomorrow night for the title. Roseburg is the only unbeaten team in the tournament.

The Oregon champs downed the strong Billings club 7-4 Saturday night after wins over Astoria and Twin Falls Friday.

Roseburg players dominated an all-star team picked Saturday night. Pitchers Allen and Dick Smith, infielders Ron Beamer, Allen Lindbloom and Larry Bissonette, and outfielders Bill Oerding and Danny Kinne all were named to the team.

Winslow, Arizona — (U.P.) — Smithfield, Utah, tonight will go against Beverly Hills, Calif., in the semi-final tilt of the Junior American Legion regional baseball tournament. The two teams, both downed once in the double elimination tourney, square off to settle which club will meet Phoenix for final regional honors Tuesday.

No Further Report On Fate of 3 Men

No further word has been received recently on the fate of two Grants Pass dentists and their guide who have been missing with their 17-foot outboard cruiser since Aug. 9.

The guide, Lloyd Morrison of Harbor, owner of the boat, is a brother of Mrs. Cash Davis, 618 West 2nd st., Medford. The dentists are Dr. Thomas A. Monahan and Dr. J. M. Hoatson.

The three left Brookings, Ore., on a fishing expedition and have been objects of widespread search since their departure. Coast Guard seaplanes and ships have joined in the search, which was reported all but abandoned early last week.

RED WILSON SPIKED
Chicago — (U.P.) — Catcher Red Wilson of the Detroit Tigers was spiked just above his left wrist Sunday while tagging out Larry Doby of the Chicago White Sox in the first game of a double-header. He was replaced by Frank House.

The U. S. Army employs 688,000 civilian workers throughout the world. They are in 1,200 occupations, ranging from laborer to research physicist and from file clerk to procurement specialist.

SAFEKEEPERS — They've really thought of everything at San Francisco's Cow Palace for the Republican convention even to picking good looking bank clerks to handle the delegates' money. Top to bottom are: Norma Delucchi, Jackie Hilton, Norma Petrlik and Janet Pavest.

The Medford Cheney Studs made a blazing finish to their championship season in the Southern Oregon Baseball league Sunday by blanking the Coquille Loggers 3 to 0 at the fairgrounds diamond.

Derald Wooton, backed by sharp support on the part of Medford fielders, turned in a one-hit chugging job to shut out the Loggers. It was his sixth triumph against no setbacks in the SOL and brought him the circuit's leading pitcher's trophy.

The Studs, who had annexed, unshared, the championship of the loop by beating Coquille Saturday afternoon, completed a three-game sweep by tripping the Loggers yesterday. They took the series opener 3 to 2 and won again Saturday night 13 to 8.

Medford's semi-pro nine, with the sweep concluded SOL play with 17 victories and seven losses. For the full season its record is 21 and 10. The studs wind up their 1956 campaign on the diamond with a non-league jaunt to Klamath Falls to meet the Lakers next Saturday and Sunday.

Coos Bay-North Bend took third place by itself in the SOL by taking two games of three in its final series at Bend. The Lumberjacks won 9 to 8 and 11 to 9 and Bend grabbed the Sunday conquer 22 to 11. Week end results put Coquille and Bend in the cellar.

his eight innings facing the Studs.

Presents Trophies
Following yesterday's game, Bill Askwith, the league president, and also business manager of the Studs presented the Coca Cola trophy to player manager Cooney and the SOL trophy to Frank Roelandt. The one trophy was the gift to the champions from Coca Cola Bottling company of Medford which is managed by Wayne Jamison.

Yesterday's fast, crowd pleaser was in sharp contrast to the wild Saturday night encounter which was marked by clusters of walks and errors, a six-run frame and three innings of three runs each time.

Coquille got a three-run lead in the first inning Saturday night on three hits and three misplays. Medford picked up a run each in the first and second stanzas on two hits each time and went ahead 5 to 3 on three scores in the third inning. There were two hits, four walks and an error in the inning. A hit and three walks helped Medford to two runs in the fourth panel and the score went to 13 to 3 on the six counters in the fifth inning. Medford got four hits in that turn at bat and there were four Coquille errors.

Dick Stephens, who pitched nine innings for Coquille Saturday afternoon, hurled 6 1/3 innings of relief in the night fust but couldn't save the game.

Toney Homers
While Wooton held the Loggers to a single safety, striking out 10 and walking only one, the Studs collected eight base hits off the offering of Coquille's twirler, Jim Lehl. One was a homerun by Dick Toney over the inner right field barrier in the fifth inning.

Two other hits drove in runners who had boarded the base paths on errors. In the first frame Cooney got on base on Herb Marino's muff at shortstop. He stole second and went to third base on a wild pitch. John Kovenz dumped a fly into short left field to bring the manager home. In the sixth canto Maddox got on base on a miscue by Ron Betnar who had taken over at short. The Medford outfielder got to second, then scampered to third on a passed ball. Jerry Bettendorf drove him home.

Only four Coquille men got on base in the fast 1 1/2-hour tussle, on the walk, a fielder's option, the hit and the only Stud error. Not a one of the runners reached second safely. Marino smashed the lone Logger bingle, a liner which second baseman Toney could barely tick with his glove.

Double Play Ends Game
Toney made a fine fielding play in the final inning and Bettendorf a spectacular one which he turned into a double play to end the contest and the loop slate. Ed Grossebacher, pinch hitting for Lehl, hit a sharp swat which was too well hit for Cooney to stop from his first base station. But Toney ran wide and deep to field the ball. He threw to first where Wooton had hustled from the mound. But Wooton, after the big try, couldn't hang onto the ball. Grossebacher was safe.

Wooton fanned Goodbrod for the first out. Then Joe Marchand blasted a low scorcher to right field. Bettendorf on a beauty of a stretch snared the ball at near ground level. He threw to Cooney at first to catch Grossebacher off the bag.

Pederson hit two for three for Medford yesterday, including a double and Toney had two for four. Lehl walked two men and recorded two strikeouts in

Westside 4-H Club Member Wins Fetes

Penny Sampert of the Westside 4-H club won three of the several classes of competition in the 4-H horse show held Sunday at the fairgrounds.

Miss Sampert topped the junior horsemanship class showing her finesse in saddling and riding a horse. Demonstrating her horse's ability to make quick turns simulating those made in herding stock, she also won the stock horse class.

Phone Disconnected As Lesson To Girl
Benton Harbor, Mich. — (U.P.) — When a subscriber called the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. to ask that his phone be disconnected for 30 days, Mrs. Grant Derfelt quickly asked whether he was taking a vacation.

"No, not a vacation; I'm going to be at home," the man answered.

"Nothing wrong with the service, I hope."

"No. The service is fine. I'm just getting tired of complaints."

"Complaints... what kind of complaints?" Mrs. Derfelt asked.

"Well, I'll tell you, I've got a teen-age daughter, and she's always and forever on the phone. We're on a party line and I just get tired of having other people on the line call me up and complain."

"I warned my daughter, but she wouldn't listen, so now I'm going to rip that phone right out for a month. Maybe this'll teach her."

Tax Law Revision Studied by Groups
Chicago — (U.P.) — It may please irate critics to know that special legislative commissions are working to develop improvements in state tax laws.

The Commerce Clearing House — a national reporting authority on taxes, announced that these groups were assigned to study 40 subjects including revisions of tax structures, relationship of federal state and local taxes and taxes generally.

Possible major overhauling jobs were studied in 14 states — Alabama, Florida, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Texas.

Recommendations of the commissions may be expected to bring new ideas on taxation that could become legislation, authorities said.

Man Fined, Jailed On Conduct Charge

Lee Orba Hoskins, 38, apt. 7, 249 South Riverside ave., was fined $50 and sentenced to 30 days in city jail today in police court when he pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct.

Paul Hughes Riggs, apt. 4, 249 South Riverside, Hoskins' landlord, reported to police Saturday afternoon that Hoskins was trying to swallow poison, police said.

Officers reported Hoskins was only slightly ill and that an ambulance was not necessary. Hoskins said family trouble was the

Wichita Cops Keep Youth From Oldsters

Wichita, Kan. — (U.P.) — Wichita police have started separating the boys from the men.

It's a case of giving juveniles a break. A new, separate building keeps youthful offenders from contact with older violators.

Dr. June Byers, 907 East Main st., said Hoskins had been poisoned but was only upset from taking some "Durex" tincture merthiolate.

Amid pastel colored walls and modern furnishings, juveniles and their parents come in for discussions with juvenile division officers without other adults being involved.
