

Braves Whip Reds; Full Slate Today

The league-leading Milwaukee Braves beat the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, in the only major league game last night. The win increased Milwaukee's National league lead to two and one-half games over the Brooklyn Dodgers and three and one-half games over the third-place Redlegs.

Clark Meets Stacey in Senior Final

Medalist Marvin Clark and George Stacey will be foes this week in the finals for the men's senior club golf championship of Rogue Valley Country club. Clark, who is reigning Southwestern Oregon titleholder, overcame Bill Catey 1 up in a semi-final match. Stacey needed 19 holes to down William McAllister Sr.

Crater High Gridders to Draw Gear

Central Point—Football gear will be issued to Crater High lettermen on Wednesday, Aug. 22 at 7 p.m., head coach Leonard Warren has announced. He anticipates the return of 12 letter winners from the 1955 season.

Smith Calls Eagle Point Footballers

Eagle Point—Eagle Point high grid aspirants will draw equipment on Friday, Aug. 24, and Saturday, Aug. 25. Coach Stan Smith said that the footballers may get their harness on Friday evening or during the whole day Saturday.

Richards Asks 'Hold Fire'

Baltimore, Md.—(U.P.)—Baltimore boss Paul Richards, under fire for sending catcher Hal Smith to the Athletics on waivers, asked his critics to hold back their ammunition today because he has another deal with Kansas City coming up.

Gonzales Victor Over Spallotta

New York—(U.P.)—Middleweight Tony Gonzales used speed and body punches to win a unanimous decision over Fernando Spallotta at St. Nicholas arena in New York. The steady body attack began to show its effect in the third, and had Spallotta slowing in the fourth, although the Italian rallied in the seventh, Gonzales staggered Spallotta in the eighth and nearly felled him, but Spallotta rallied to last out the bout.

Joe Brown Lightweight Bout Choice

New York—(U.P.)—Joe Brown of New Orleans, 31, is favored at 9-5 to wrest the world lightweight title from Wallace (Bud) Smith at the New Orleans coliseum Friday night in the week's top fight.

It will be one of the three TV bouts slated this week despite the Republican convention at San Francisco. Last week the Democratic convention at Chicago curtailed TV fistfights to Monday night. The Smith-Brown TV-radio scrap goes over the NBC networks.

Challenger Brown is favored because he won a non-title decision over Smith of Cincinnati on May 2 and because Smith apparently is on the skids. The champ lost three straight non-title fights this year—on a decision to Larry Boardman, on a knockout to ex-welter champ Tony DeMarco, and on decision to Brown. Bud hasn't fought since the Brown defeat.

Six Straight Veteran Brown has six straight victories, including three this year—over Arthur Persley (KO 9), Smith and Eddie Brant (KO 3).

His 60-14-8 record plus two no-contests includes 26 knockouts. He is rated eighth among world contenders. Friday's fight is slated for 15 rounds.

At the San Francisco Gardens Wednesday night, featherweight contender Flash Elorde of the Philippines, No. 4, and Miguel Berrios of Puerto Rico, No. 10, met in a 10-rounder that should be action-packed. Elorde is favored at 8-5 because of his skill and somewhat harder punch.

Their bout will be televised and broadcast over ABC networks. Welterweight champion Johnny Saxton is slated for another tune-up bout with veteran Dom Williams at Worcester, Mass., Thursday night, in preparation for next month's title defense against ex-champ Carmen Basilio.

Solons Press Bevos With 4-3 Overtime Victory

By NEAL CORBETT United Press Sports Writer The Sacramento Solons came up with a pair of "big guns" Monday night in their battle to overtake Portland for fourth place in the Pacific Coast League—but they were a little slow getting into operation.

Al Heist finally got the range and blasted out a homer with two out in the bottom of the ninth to tie the score and send the game into extra innings. Danny Baich led off the tenth inning with one just like it to give the Solons a 4-3 victory over the Portland club.

The win moved the Solons to within a game and a half of the Beavers—and the upper division. Hollywood Gains In the other games, the league-leading Los Angeles Angels played their usual brand of ball and swamped San Diego 12-1, while Hollywood gained ground on second place Seattle by downing the Rainiers, 6-2. San Francisco and Vancouver were idle.

At Sacramento, Baich was credited with three of the Solons' four runs. Portland took the lead with two runs in the first frame and another in the second on Sam Calderone's eighth homer of the year. But Baich got two of them back in the fifth frame when he tripled with two men on. That set the stage for the tying and winning homers.

Los Angeles staged its usual "march of the monsters." During a 17 hit barrage by the Angels, Steve Bilko got four for five, including his 48th homer of the year, and Bob Speck slammed out his 22nd roundtripper.

Shutout Vanishes Dave Hillman won his 17th victory against five losses, but saw his shutout go up in smoke when relief hurler Bob Kerrigan—who had only one hit all season—came up with his second to score John Merson in the eighth inning.

Bob Purkey of Hollywood lost his shutout in the last inning as the Stars scored their first victory over Seattle in the current series. While Hollywood was racking up two runs in the first, two more in the second, one in the fifth and one in the eighth, Purkey was holding the second-place team to only two hits. But he gave up two singles and a double in the final frame as the Rainiers scored twice.

Elmer Singleton, who went into the game for Seattle with a 16-5 record, took the loss. LINESCORES: (10 innings) Portland—210 000 000 6-3 8 6 Ervino—000 020 001 1-4 7 0 Alexander and Calderone, Elliott, R. Jones 4, Watkins 6, Candini 9 and Baich.

List of Entries About Complete For Exhibition by Olympic Team

University of Oregon, Eugene—The entry list for the Olympic Games track and field squad exhibition meet at Hayward field on Labor day appeared to be near completion here as Bill Bowerman, Oregon track coach and meet director, announced the names of more than 50 track and field stars who would be on hand for the competition.

The meet designed to offer pre-Olympic competition for the United States team prior to its departure for Australia, has drawn 33 members of the American team and the remainder of the entries come from a list of collegiate stars and natives of other countries. Dave Sime, the Duke sophomore sensation in the sprints, Jim Bailey, the Oregon star who will run for Australia in the Olympics, Modris Peterson, a Swedish 400 meter hurdler, Jim Lawson, the USC hurdle ace and a decathlon star, Norm Lloyd, an English middle distance runner, and Wayne Moss, the Oregon State high jump ace, lead the list of non-Olympic team competitors who will be on hand. This list of Olympic team members includes such stars as Parry O'Brien in the shot put, Fortune Gordien in the discus, Bob Richards in the pole vault, Oregon's Bill Dellinger in the 5000 meter run, Webfoot Ken Reiser in the steeplechase, Jim Lea and J. W. Mashburn in the 400 meter dash, Lon Spurrier and Lang Stanley in the 800 meter run, Cy Young and Bud Held in the javelin, Eddie Southern and Josh Culbreath in the 400 meter hurdles and the entire 1500 meter field of Jerome Walters, Ted Wheeler, Don Bowden and Fred Dwyer to face Bailey in that event.

The remainder of the list includes top representation from all events and Bowerman said the list makes it certain the meet will be the finest ever held in the northwest. Advance ticket sales have been brisk. Two finish lines have been established for the meet with one set for the east stands and another for the west stands.

Two-Baggers Bring Win For Spokane

By RAY ANDREWS United Press Sports Writer Doubles spell trouble and Ron Jackson of Spokane dished up a basketful of woe in last night's Northwest League action.

The Spokane second sacker bashed four doubles for a new league record as the Indians trounced Tri-City 15 to 3 on a 20-hit attack. George Huffman, Spokane right fielder, also had a large evening with two doubles and two singles and Chet Hammamoto, shortstop, made his presence felt with four singles.

The Spokane barrage made the going easy for Bill Bottler who won his 15th game of the season and helped his own cause with a two-run homer in the fifth. Bottler spaced 11 hits for the victory. Joe Riney of Lewiston did all right for himself with a homer, a triple and a double as the Broncs blanked league-leading Yakima 9-0.

Riney's homer in the eighth sent in two runs. He drove in five during the game to make things simple for Bob Roberts who picked up his 12th victory in spacing seven Yakima bingles. Salem tallied three runs in the eighth and nipped Wenatchee 4-3. Mel Krause and Jack Dunn contributed singles and Russ Rossburg doubled to chase both runs home. Rossburg crossed on a single by Frank Szeula. The victory left the Senators only 1 1/2 games behind the league-leading Yakima Bears.

Bilko Slumps, Still Leads

San Francisco—(U.P.)—Steve Bilko, the mighty siege gun of the Los Angeles Angels, was trapped in a slump before Monday night's game but continued to lead the league by a good margin both in round trippers and percentage. His total of 47 current clouts kept him miles ahead of teammate Jim Bolger who was second with 25. However, Bilko failed to unload one last week and going into Monday night's contest had 34 games left in which to break Tony Lazzari's PCL record of 60.

Bilko's average also dipped by seven points down to .363 after he went four for 20 last week for a mild 200. He drove in four more runs to boost his league-leading RBI total to 139. Gene Mauch of the Angels also tailed off last week but still has an average of .354 and led in hits with 178.

Raritan, N.J.—(U.P.)—Joseph Grigoletti had revenge on the borough council Monday. Two weeks ago the automobile repair shop proprietor appeared before the council in a greasestained tee-shirt and was reprimanded for his appearance. Monday he made another appearance—in a chauffeured limousine and dressed in top hat, white tie and tails.

Olympic Stars To Perform Labor Day At Hayward

Eugene—(U.P.)—University of Oregon officials say today a field of at least 50 of the country's top track and field performers is assured for the Labor day exhibition meet at Hayward field. More than half of the United States entries in the Olympics will compete in the meet.

Oregon Coach Bill Bowerman says he has assurances from 33 of the United States Olympic team members that they will compete in the meet. Several other top stars who will run under the banners of other nations also will be on hand. Olympic team members slated to perform include Parry O'Brien in the shot put, Fortune Gordien in the discus; Bob Richards in the pole vault; Bill Dellinger in the five-thousand meter run; Lon Spurrier in the 800 and Bud Held in the javelin.

Dave Sime, the Duke sophomore sprint sensation and Jim Bailey, Oregon star who ran the first sub-four-minute mile in the United States, also are included in the Star studded field. The meet is slated to get underway at 3:30 p.m. Several Eugene citizens are sponsoring the meet in conjunction with the Oregon Athletic department and the Eugene Active club.
