

Braves Nab Two From Giants To Up Lead to Three Games

By UNITED PRESS
Milwaukee stretched its lead over the second place Brooklyn Dodgers by three games in the National League pennant race yesterday. The Braves beat the New York Giants, 3-3 and 6-2, while Brooklyn nosed out St. Louis 2-1.

Chicago edged out Philadelphia, 6-4, and Cincinnati trimmed Pittsburgh, 7-4.

In the American league, Cleveland beat the league-leading New York Yankees, 3-0. Baltimore edged out Kansas City, 4-1, and Detroit trounced Washington, 8-3. The Chicago at Boston game was postponed because of rain.

Joe Adcock and Del Rice homered to lead Milwaukee to victory over New York in the nightcap of a day-night double-header. Third baseman Eddie Mathews' three-run homer led the league leaders to a 5-3 win in the opener.

Adcock hit 31st homer in the second inning of the second game of Joe Margoneri. Then Andy Pafko singled and Rice delivered his third homer of the year. Adcock's blast carried 400 feet into the bullpen in right center field.

The Braves added another run in the fifth on Johnny Logan's single and Hank Aaron's double. They scored their final two runs in the eighth on Mathews' triple, two walks and Gene Conley's strike.

Mathews' homer in the first game was his 29th of the year. It came in the first inning off starter and loser Ruben Gomez.

Kluszewski Sparked
Ted Kluszewski's 32nd homer of the season sparked Cincinnati in a four-run rally in the eighth inning as they came from behind to beat Pittsburgh.

Frank Robinson and Gus Bell also contributed homers to the Cincinnati attack.

Pittsburgh went ahead, 4-3, with three unearned runs in the top of the eighth inning, set up by Johnny Temple's error.

But Temple atoned by opening the winning rally in the last half of the same frame with a single against Relief Pitcher Roy Face. He moved to second on Robinson's sacrifice and to third on Face's wild pitch.

Veteran Howie Pollet relieved Face and got Bell to ground to First Baseman Dale Long. But Long fumbled the ball as Temple scored the tying run and Bell reached first.

Kluszewski followed with his blast over the right field screen to put the Red Legs ahead, 6-4. They added a final tally on a walk to Wally Post and singles by Smokey Burgess and Pinch-hitter Ed Bailey.

Carl Erskine — getting help from Don Bessent — posted his ninth straight win as Brooklyn nosed out the St. Louis Cardinals.

The win enabled the Dodgers to cling to second place in the three-cornered National League race.

Erskine now has 11 victories against six defeats. It was the fourth time during the streak that he has beaten the Cardinals. He yielded six hits before he was removed after the seventh inning when he complained his arm was stiffening. Bessent then pitched two hitless rounds.

Eight Double Plays
Herman Wehmeier, who had five straight, was charged with the defeat — his ninth against eight victories.

The two clubs turned in eight double plays during the game, one short of the major league record. The Cardinals completed five, one of the National League record.

The Detroit Tigers snapping the Senators' four-game winning streak.

Righthander Steve Gromek scattered nine hits to score a victory in his first start since July sixth.

Harvey Kuenn led Gromek's 13-hit support by driving in three runs with a double and a single and scoring another tally. His double was the only Tiger hit that wasn't a single.

Gromek yielded Roy Sievers' 23rd homer of the season and a pair of doubles by Lou Berberet, but emerged with his seventh victory of the year.

Washington, fresh from four wins over Boston, jumped off to a 2-nothing lead in the second inning. But Kuenn singled home a pair in the fourth to tie the score and drive out Washington starter Hal Griggs. Bunky Stewart, who relieved, was charged with the loss.

Phoenix Legion Area Champion

Winslow, Ariz. — (U.P.) — Phoenix earned the right to represent its region in the sectional American Legion Baseball tourney Tuesday night by routing Beverly Hills, Calif., 12 to 4, behind the seven-hit pitching of Rennie Crittenden.

Crittenden was wild, allowing 12 walks, but the Californians left 11 men on base and hurt their own cause by committing seven errors. Crittenden, a left-hander who quarterbacked his high school football team as well, pitched 20 1-3 innings in the tourney. Phoenix now will compete in the sectional play offs at Billings, Mont.

The Hastings American Legion junior baseball team won the four-state regional tournament last night at York, Neb. Hastings beat Denver, 5-1, in the final game to finish the double-elimination meet undefeated. Hastings had beaten Denver, 1-0 Sunday. Hastings now goes to the 12-state sectional tournament at Billings, Mont., beginning Saturday.

Saratoga Returns High Daily Double

By UNITED PRESS
The second highest daily double in the history of Saratoga — $1,134 — was returned yesterday as Admiral Vee captured the featured Elizabethtown purse.

Get-There-Frank won the opening race, returning 18.90 for $2. Eternal Flame scored at $73 in the second for the huge double. The biggest double ever paid at Saratoga was $4,313 on Aug. 27th, 1945.

Admiral Vee won the feature by a half length over favored Goulash. Portersville was third.

In other racing news, Bal Harbour gained his first win this season in the featured purse at Atlantic City. Powderstroke finished second, a head in front of Ournav.

Jockey Willie Hartack ran up three wins at Washington park in Chicago to open up a seven-race lead over Willie Shoemaker in their battle for national riding honors. Hartack has 256 wins, while Shoemaker has 249 victories. A field of nine horses is expected to be named for the second running of the Yonkers Futurity trot. The harness racing event will take place Saturday night at Yonkers, New York.

Olympic Athletes, Officials To Get Ultimate in Culinary Delight

Melbourne—(U.P.)—Two years of intensive research went into plans to satisfy the gastronomic whims of the 6,000 Olympic athletes and officials who will spend three weeks here in November.

"You tell us what you like, and no matter what it is, we will get it for you," said Brigadier Cyril Elliott, director of Olympic housing and catering. He promised that international visitors from more than 75 nations will get the utmost in culinary quality and fidelity.

At the Heidelberg Olympic Village, now almost ready for the visitors who will start arriving early in November, 10 separate kitchens will be supervised by 200 chefs drawn from all over the world. Thousands of different international dishes will come from the kitchens to satisfy any craving for home cooking.

Elaborate Dishes
The athletes will have 20 dining rooms in the village. There will be up to 20 different kinds of curries for the Indians, scores of elaborately mixed dishes for the Chinese road turkey and cranberry meat for the Americans, kosher meat for the Jews, vegetarian mixtures for the Mohammedans special cheeses and flavoured breads, and special rices and breads, curries and pickles and sucking pig with sour cream for the Russians.

After sifting through the various information collected from different sources, long lists of dishes were prepared—one for each of the visiting nations—and sent overseas for their approval.

To assure complete authenticity in detail, Tom Carlyon, an Olympic official who owns several Melbourne hotels, went abroad to recruit 160 chefs to mastermind the operation. Arrangements were made with the Immigration Department to provide free transport to Australia on the understanding that they would settle here after the games.

All Fully Qualified
Carlyon said the chefs would do much to improve the standard of foods and food preparation in Melbourne and other cities throughout Australia where they might be employed. He said all the chefs are fully qualified and that half of them are "top class."

In addition, Melbourne invited competing nations to bring their own cooks or "spicers" along to supervise special natural dishes. The Russians jumped at this opportunity and undertook to bring out at least one first-class chef, possibly two.

Another item was special requirements for national festivals and feast days Nov. 22, for instance, the opening day of the Games, is America's Thanksgiving Day. Thus the U. S. menu already has the traditional fare of turkey, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie. Australian turkeys and pumpkins will be used but the Melbourne hosts will get the cranberry jelly from the States.

Various items will have to be imported—smoked salmon, sea-weed soup, rice from Thailand and ghee, the unsalted, clarified butter used by the Indians. Maple syrup will be brought out for the Canadians.

In all, 6,000 meals will be served three times a day for 17 days at the village. This will mean 2,000 waiters, cooks, gardeners, domestic servants, guards, engineers, carpenters, electricians and accountants to keep the village going.

This is what the athletes will consume: 10 tons of butter, 6 tons of cheese, 5,000,000 eggs, 80 tons of fresh vegetables, 50 tons of salad ingredients, 16,000 bread rolls, 60 tons of fresh fruit, 150,000 pints of milk, 100 tons of meat and 30 tons of rice.

Heavyweight Toga Picture Clarified

Paterson, N. J. — (U.P.) — Commissioner Abe J. Greene of the National Boxing association specified today that Archie Moore may fight the winner of the Hurricane Jackson-Baker fight for the heavyweight title if Floyd Patterson is not available this year.

Greene clarified the confused heavyweight title picture upon his return from Havana, where the annual NBA convention would be held Tuesday.

The NBA commissioner explained that the organization will "make immediate inquiries into the condition of Patterson's injured hand, and Patterson will be asked to set a time table as to when he will be able to meet Moore for the title."

To Attend Bout
"In the meantime, Greene said, NBA observers will attend the bout between Hurricane Jackson and Bob Baker in Pittsburgh Sept. 26, and will determine if the winner shows enough class to warrant public acceptance as an unquestioned champion."

If Patterson is not available for a title bout soon, and the Jackson-Baker survivor qualifies as a challenger, Greene continued, "the Pittsburgh winner will be urged as an immediate opponent for Moore."

The winner of such a match would be recognized as world champion, but the principals in such a title bout would be required to sign contracts to box Patterson within 90 days if Patterson's condition permits.
