

Don Newcombe Scores 20th Pitching Victory of Season

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Don Newcombe became the major leagues' first 20-game victor of the year today and set his sights on being the Brooklyn Dodgers' biggest winner in 32 years.

Newcombe yielded three home runs but hung on for a 6-5 triumph Thursday night to raise his season record to 20-6 as the Dodgers won the opener of a key three-game series with the Redlegs. The victory enabled the Dodgers to remain two games behind the first-place Milwaukee Braves and placed the Redlegs four games out of first place.

Newcombe requires only three more victories to become the Dodgers' biggest winner since Dazzy Vance won 28 games in 1924. Since then, no Dodger pitcher has won more than 22 games in a single season.

Redlegs Continue Homer Pace

Carl Furillo and Duke Snider each drove in three runs to offset a Redleg attack that featured a three-run homer by Wally Post and solo round-trippers by Frank Robinson and Ed Bailey. The three homers raised the Redlegs' total to a new season club mark of 183 and also extended their team homer streak to 20 games—only four short of the National League mark held by the 1953 Dodgers.

Newcombe himself scored the winning run in the top of the ninth when he tallied on Snider's double. Big Newk walked only one batter and struck out six in giving the Dodgers their eighth win in 18 meetings with the Redlegs.

The Braves retained their two game lead with an 11-5 win over the Philadelphia Phillies featured by a grand-slam homer by Bobby Thomson in addition to round trippers by Hank Aaron and Johnny Logan. Ray Crone won his 10th game of the season, although he needed help from Ernie Johnson. Stan Lopata walked two homers for the Phillies to raise his season total to 27.

Cards Down Bucs Twice

Vinegar Bend Mizell won his 12th game and Jackie Collins his sixth as the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0 and 3-2. Ray Katt hit a two-run homer and scored the third run for the Cardinals in the opener while Bobby Morgan singled home the winning run in the ninth of the nightcap.

Johnny Antonelli chalked up his 13th win and Max Surkont his first when the New York Giants swept the Chicago Cubs, 2-1 and 8-5. Daryl Spencer singled home the winning run in the ninth of the opener and the Giants clinched the nightcap with eight runs in the third inning.

Nelson Fox whacked out seven straight hits before he was stopped to lead the Chicago White Sox to 6-3 and 6-4 wins over the American league-leading New York Yankees. Fox had five hits in the opener and two in the nightcap as Bob Keegan won his fourth game and Dixie Howell registered his fifth.

Yanks Retain Lead Gap

The Yankees, however, retained an eight-game lead when the Boston Red Sox beat the second-place Cleveland Indians, 2-1. Three walks and Jimmy Piersall's sacrifice fly gave the Red Sox their winning run and Mell Parnell the decision over 18-game winner Bob Lemon.

Roy Sievers tied his own club record when he hit his 25th home run of the year to give the Washington Senators a 5-3 decision over the Kansas City Athletics. Chuck Stobbs pitched a five-hitter for his 12th win and also started the winning three-run, fifth-inning rally with a double.

Ray Moore yielded three hits before retiring with an injured shoulder in the seventh inning and beat the Detroit Tigers for the fifth straight time as the Baltimore Orioles scored a 3-0 victory in the other American league game.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE SPORTS

Carole Jo Paces Ams At Denver

Denver—(U.P.)—Vonnice Colby of Hollywood, Fla., held a three-stroke lead over Betty Dodd of Louisville, Ky., and Beverly Hansen of Apple Valley, Calif., going into the second round of the $5,000 Mile High Women's Open Golf tournament today.

The former Grand Rapids, Mich., golfer fired a five-under-par 70 in the opening round Thursday. It was the best round of her career of less than two years as a professional.

Miss Dodd and Miss Hansen followed with 73's while Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., placed fourth in with 36-38-74.

The field of 18 professionals and 18 amateurs wind up the tourney Sunday. Carole Kabler of Sutherlin, Ore., led the amateurs with a first round 40-37-77.

Miss Colby, 24, tied for fifth place in the 1955 Eastern Women's Open at Reading, Pa., where she shot her best previous pro round, a 72.

Migratory Bird Stamps on Hand At Post Office

Migratory bird hunting stamps are now available at the Medford post office and at the sub-station on East Main st.

Sportsmen planning to hunt ducks this season are urged to buy their stamps early, to avoid confusion when the season opens. Postmaster Moore Hamilton said.

Federal law provides that each duck hunter must have a duck stamp attached to his hunting license. The money is used to improve sanctuaries on the flyways, and to protect and increase the number of migratory birds. Each stamp costs $2.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Portland Bills 250-Lap Chase For Stock Cars

Portland—The northwest's third and longest NASCAR-sanctioned stock car race with a maximum entry of 26 late-model popular cars, will be held Sunday, August 26, on Portland speedway's half-mile paved track. All entries to date are of 1956 manufacture, and include Ford, Mercury, Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Studebaker, Chrysler, Dodge, Plymouth and Buick.

The 250-lap race—approximately 180 miles—carries a guaranteed purse of $6,000 and is expected to attract every top driver in the Western division of NASCAR (National Association for Stock Auto Racing), the nation's No. 1 track racing organization.

Four Leaders

Among the first entries were those of the four leaders in the west coast NASCAR division and all of California—Lloyd Dane, Buena Park, Chuck Meekins, of Gardena, Ed Page, Lynwood and Clyde Palmer, Monte Vista, who finished second and third in the two Portland races. An unexpected entry was Jim Reed, formerly of Peekskill, N.Y., NASCAR's three-time champion in the short track division.

Oregon and Washington will be well represented with entries from the Pacific Stock Car Racing association. These include Johnny Kieper, Ted Sweeney, Bill Hyde, Royce Hagerty, Lou Sherman, Harold Beal and Art Watts, all of Portland; Hal Hardisty, Pasco, Ed Negre, Longview; Gordy Haines and Bob Keefe, Yakima, and Curly Barker, Tillamook, Ore.

Qualifying trials for positions will start at 1:30 p.m. on the race day, Sunday. Speedway gates open at noon. The advance ticket sale will be held Saturday, August 25, at the track, on Union ave., near the Interstate bridge.

JETS FOR EXECUTIVES

Hagerstown, Md.—(U.P.)—The Continental Can Co. thought its high-priced executives were wasting valuable time traveling via commercial transportation on company business. So now the corporation claims to be the first in the world to order high-speed jets to haul around its executives.

Sam Snead, Bud Holscher Putters Hot

St. Paul, Minn.—(U.P.)—Samuel Jackson Snead, the kind of modern golf's old guard, used a soft putter instead of his famous driver to show the young pros how it's done in the opening round of the $20,000 St. Paul Open.

Snead and a frail 25-year-old Californian each birdied eight holes to tie for first place with six-under-par rounds of 66 at the end of 18 holes.

"Don't touch that putter. I don't want it to cool off," Snead warned the other pros when he walked into the clubhouse.

Bud Holscher of Apple Valley, Calif., felt the same way after tying Snead for the lead.

"That putter never worked better," Holscher said. "It was almost unbelievable."

Cards Attest

The score cards attested to the words of Snead and Holscher. Snead sank putts of 8, 3, 10, 12, 3, 8, 26 and 4 feet for his eight birdies. His usually erratic putter failed him only on the 6th and 13th holes when he 3-putted for bogies.

Holscher, playing in the same threesome with Snead, outdid the old master putting in shots of 12, 6, 5, 12, 13, 15, 16 and 3 feet to match Snead's eight birdies.

There was a real traffic jam behind the front runners. One stroke off the pace with 67s were Ted Rhodes of Chicago, a golfing buddy of Joe Louis; Dave Douglas, Newark, Del.; Howie Johnson, Houston, Tex.; Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., and Freddie Haas, New Orleans, La.

Shoot Again At Gun Club

Final practice trapshoot of Medford Gun club prior to the opening of dove and pigeon season is scheduled Sunday.

Traps will open 8:30 a.m. A varied program will be offered shooters who turn out to sharpen their aims. Dove season opens Sept. 1.

There will be no activity at the club on Sunday, Sept. 2, but a schedule of events for the regular season will be published shortly, President Bert Peck reported.

Members invited shooters of the area to the practice last Sunday. A total of 32 scattergunners took part in the day's program and fired at 2,775 clay targets.

Pastrano Choice Over McMurtry

Tacoma, Wash.—(U.P.)—Willie Pastrano of New Orleans meets undefeated Pat McMurtry of Tacoma in a 10-round heavyweight bout here tonight with Pastrano rated an 8 to 5 favorite.

The 20-year-old Pastrano was ranked No. 5 among the world's heavyweights in the Aug. 1 ratings of Ring magazine. He has a lifetime record of 34 wins, four losses and four draws.

McMurtry, 24, has 21 professional victories to his credit including 17 knockouts. He has been held to a draw once in his professional career.

A gate of $75,000 is expected for the fight in Tacoma's Lincoln Bowl.
